The lawn party given at Mrs. M. Miller's elegant residence last Wednesday, August 19th, eclipsed any affair ever given in Jacksonville. The party was given in honor of Miss Bessie Callender, of Los Gatos, Calif., a grand daughter of Mrs. Miller's. Seventy invitations had been issued to which sixty persons responded. The lawn was beautifully lighted with Chinese lanterns and over one half of the block is a perfect flower garden. No pen could describe the scene that greeted the eyes of the guests as they were ushered into the elegant parlors, received by Miss Mollie Donegan, assisted by Miss Mamie Donegan. After an hour of social pleasure the guests were presented with beautiful cards containing ten questions. To the cards was attached a pencil and a penny. The questions were to be answered on the penny. Five ladies and gentlemen each answered the whole number, so to decide who the first and booby prize should fall to, a blank ballot was taken and marked. The two first prizes fell to Mrs. Jas. Cranemiller and Dr. Robinson—a beautiful cut glass powder bowl with silver top, to the former, and a smoking case to the latter. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neil received the booby prize—a two miniature toys. After the prizes were awarded the guests partook of a most sumptuous lunch spread on the lawn. Then followed several vocal selections by Misses Callender, Miller, Mrs. Dr. Robinson and others. It was after 12 o'clock before the happy crowd thought of bidding the charming adieu. The evening will long be remembered by those present.

My little boy, when two years of age was taken very ill with bloody flux. I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and luckily procured part of a bottle. I carefully read the directions and gave it accordingly. He was very low, but slowly and surely he began to improve, gradually recovered, and is now as stout and strong as ever. I feel sure it saved his life. I never can praise the remedy half its worth. I am sorry every one in the world does not know how good it is, as I do.—Mrs. Lina S.
