Children Day, June 13, will be celebrated by the pupils and teachers of Table Rock Sunday school with appropriate exercises in the Maple grove on the river. All interested in Sunday school work are cordially invited to attend. Exercises to begin at 11 a. m. From 9:30 a. m, to 10:30 there will be some one stationed at the gate north of Bybee bridge to show the way to the grove. A basket dinner will follow the exercises and in the afternoon there will be preaching by Rev. F. Downing. All are cordially invited.

Poisons engendered by food formenting in a despentic stomach are the direct cause of rheumatism, gout, broachitts, liver and kidney complaints, as thma, pnounomola and many nervous allments.

These results are prevented by the address, "Cover Them Over With Beautiful Flowers," was artistically rendered by the choir, followed by reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg address. After reading first the address the song of "Southland" was sung by the trio of Applegate children which was a gem in execution. The exercise closed with a few remarks by one of the comrades and singing of that old song that is ever new, America.
