Grants Pass, near which place he will get out wood for the railroad company, himself and brother having taken a large contract from the company.

B. F. Fredenburg, of Big Butte, was in the city yesterday. The gentleman has recently moved his family to Eagle Point, where his children can have the advantages of a winter's schooling. Mrs. Eli Williams and sons, Lloyd and Walter, of Oregon City, arrived in Medford Wednesday, en route to Big Bu'te, whither they go to visit Mrs. Rachel Allen, mother of Mrs. Williams. J. E. Medley, of Oakland, Oregon, is in Medford upon a visit to his brother-in-law, R. T. King, the gentleman who purchased the Ritter place, just west of Medford. Mr. Medley likes our country immensely well—even better, we imagine, than the immense turkey delds of Douglas County.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fitzgerald and daughter, Miss Inez, left Monday evening for their old home at Hutchinson, Kansas, where they expect to reside permanently. These are good, honest, congenial citzens and their going is a source of much regret by their Jackson County friends.

P. Olson and family, of Central Point, were in Medford Tuesday upon business. Mr. Olson lives just outside the city limits of Central Point, and has but recently added to his landed possessions by the purchase of the Mat Hurst property. During their absence Jake Huger will have full charge of Mr. Yoorhies' Eden valley fruit farm and the trust could not be better placed.

J. L. Demmer left Medford Saturday evening for Herndon, Kansas, where he expects to remain for a month or six weeks—perhaps longer. His mission is that of straightening up some business matters in which he is interested. It is barely possibly he will remain there—but we people here who know him best are hoping that he will not so decide. He is a capital good fellow and both himself and most estimable family would be greatly missed.
