

OUR COUNTY . . . Correspondents

Jacksonville News.

Miss Josephine Orth has been on a visit to friends in Sams Valley.

C. F. Faith, of Grants Pass, was at the county seat during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miner, of Gold Hill, were visiting in Jacksonville Monday.

J. D. Buckley, a pioneer of Applegate, was visiting in Jacksonville Saturday.

E. Merz, manager of the Medford Brewing Company, was in Jacksonville Saturday.

Wm. Bailey, a miner of Palmer creek, was at the county seat Tuesday on business.

P. W. Bleckhart, the miner of Galla creek, was a visitor at Jacksonville last week.

Miss Emma Helms left on Tuesday evening's train for a visit with friends in Grants Pass.

Miss Etta Oglesby has gone on an extended visit to her aunt, Mrs. D. B. Fleck, of Portland.

G. M. Grainger, of Ashland, was down on business with the commissioners' court Wednesday.

Assessor J. C. Pendleton was at the county seat Wednesday on business connected with his office.

R. J. Orme, of Footh Creek, was a visitor at the county seat Tuesday on business with the county court.

The commissioners' court was in session this week with the usual amount of routine county business before it.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klippel and Henry, Jr., and Miss Alice Klippel, of Medford, were visiting in Jacksonville Monday.

Geo. Frye, of Lake Creek, was before the commissioners Wednesday on business relating to the Lake Creek school district.

John Watkins, the Rogue river ferryman, was in Jacksonville last Wednesday on business with the commissioners' court.

J. C. Savage, J. Kinkle and T. Merriock, of Savage creek, came up to the county seat Tuesday on road matters before the county court.

Grant Orme, formerly deputy sheriff of Jackson County, now residing near Grants Pass, was at the county seat Wednesday on business.

O. Biede, the tinner, is fitting up a tamale stand, opposite the post-office. Prosperity has certainly struck the country. What next?

E. B. Downing and F. H. Osgood, capitalists of Seattle, accompanied by F. H. Kelley, are looking over the mineral and other resources of the county.

Geo. Ross and J. W. Bishop left for Bonanza this week with some fine horses to be present at the races, which take place there in a short time.

J. G. McDonald, of Tolo, administrator of the estate of Robert Westrop, came up Tuesday to make final settlement of the estate with the court.

Mrs. J. Moss, of Grants Pass, nee Miss Jennie Jackson, for many years a resident of Jacksonville, is visiting her friends here, the guest of Mrs. Susie Neil.

Pat Swayne, the good natured Sullivan of Applegate, who is one of the "big uns" if any one undertakes to impose on him, was in Jacksonville during the week.

Lindsey Sisemore and family left Jacksonville Wednesday morning for Ft. Klamath, where Mr. Sisemore owns a ranch. They go there to live and will be gone indefinitely. Their many friends wish them success in their new home.

There were 3000 names registered in Jackson County Wednesday at noon. There are probably not 200 more in the county, with several days yet in which to register.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. B. Helms, of Texas, who have been visiting at Judge Neil's for some time, left for their home on Monday evening's train, going by the way of Portland.

Geo. Hines, the liveryman, is breaking some fine horses, recently bought from Wm. Robison, for use in his stable. They were raised east of the mountains and are beautiful.

The Ladies' Whist club held its last social for the season at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Luy, Monday night. The meetings will be resumed in the fall when the evenings get longer.

An examination of the receipt book of the county recorder for the past year, from March 1899 to April 1900, shows a total of $2238.70, incumbent's yearly salary, $1400; not gain to the county for the year, $838.70.

Hon. Theo. Cameron has gone to Waldo to witness the season's clean-up at the Simmon & Cameron mine. This is expected to be one of the largest annual outputs ever shown by the mine since it has been in operation.

Wm. Ray, of Applegate, and Wm. Mathes, of Phoenix, two old pioneers of the county, met in Jacksonville Tuesday and had a pleasant time swapping reminiscences of early times "before the Indians were hung."

Chas. Stevens, of Williams creek, who is one of the largest strawberry growers in the country, was a visitor in Jacksonville Saturday. He claims his crop was not hurt by the frosts and that he will have his usual supply for the market.

E. D. Briggs, of Ashland, Republican nominee for joint representative, was in Jacksonville Monday, as also C. B. Watson, candidate for district attorney. Mr. Briggs has been in Douglas County in furtherance of his political interests.

A. Learned, of the Boss candy store in Jacksonville, has become an expert in the manufacture of candy. He makes all the choicest grades of fine French candies and puts them up in the most tasty and attractive manner. He is deserving of liberal patronage and is receiving it.

Internal Revenue Collector Fox and Wm. Songer came down from Ashland Monday evening. Mr. Songer was on business in connection with the Wells' estate, of which he was administrator. The general business of the estate has been settled and the administrator discharged, but other matters pertaining to the property are to be adjusted and require his attention.

Miss Emaline Plymale, daughter of W. J. Plymale, of this place, was married at Yreka May 1, 1900, to Melvina Stine, a young man of the same place. Though the wedding was strictly private many valuable presents were sent in by friends. A fine package of wedding cake was received in Jacksonville from the happy couple. They have a nice little home in Yreka, where they will be pleased to see their many friends.

The funeral of Jas. Linn was one of the largest that has been in Jacksonville for some time. There was a large procession of Native Sons and Daughters and many carriages besides a great number of citizens on foot. The floral tributes were unusually large and wrought into many varied, artistic and beautiful designs. The music of the choir was solemn and impressive and the Native Sons' burial service original, touching and appropriate. And thus has passed away in the flower of youth, one of Jacksonville's most popular and promising young men.

At the meeting of P. P. Prim Cabin Native Sons, Saturday night in Jacksonville there were ten new members initiated, and in all about forty members present. This is so far the banner charter cabin in the state and is now the banner cabin for numbers, having more members than any other cabin in the state. Fred Wagner, of the Tidings, and Geo. Barron, were down from Ashland and Lindsey Sisemore was over from Sams Valley, and there were a number of others from a distance present. Jacksonville people never do things by halves—they take the whole cake or none at all.

Gold Hill Items.

BY SPECTATOR.

Deputy Assessor A. E. Kellogg has been working in Central Point the past week.

F. E. Parker, recently from California, spent Sunday in Gold Hill with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Dekum has returned from Portland after an absence of several weeks, and will now locate here permanently.

Missos Frankie Barnes and Jo Orth and Mrs. Lindsey Sisemore were visiting here Sunday.

J. W. Lawton, of Medford, visited here Monday in the interest of the Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Company.

Revs. Gregory, Haberly and Mathews conducted a series of meetings in the M. E. Church last week.

Born—In Gold Hill, on April 30, 1900, to Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Chisholm, a son; on May 3d, to Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Reames, a son.

Ralph Darling is able to be on the streets again after an attack of typhoid malaria, which confined him to his bed for the past two weeks.

I. M. Muller, secretary of the Republican county central committee, spent Monday and Tuesday in the Butte creek country, in the interest of the party.

Most of the placer mines on Galla, Kanes, Sardine and Fooths creeks are engaged in cleaning up for this season, which has been the most profitable one for several years.

Lindsey Sisemore started Tuesday with his family for Klamath County, where he will locate and engage in the cattle business, in which he is interested with Pelton Bros. He was joined at Phoenix by C. P. Parker, who will go to Wasco County.

The public school at this place will close this week for the summer vacation. Prof. P. H. Daily, our principal and Republican nominee for county superintendent, has proven to the people of Gold Hill his ability as an educator in the management of the school the last two years.

The city water works has again changed hands. J. J. Houck has purchased from the Gold Hill Light & Power Company their pumping plant and franchise, and has removed the plant to his flour mill above town. Connections have been made with the town reservoir and the town will be supplied with water this week.

The Southern Pacific depot at this place is well under way. It will be the largest depot building in the county, outside of Medford, which speaks well for the future prospects of Gold Hill. Many other improvements are in progress at present. The new residences of C. F. Young, H. C. McNeil and Ivan Humison are nearly completed.

The May day celebration here was a grand success, the town being crowded to its utmost capacity. Horses from all parts of the county took part in the races. The Medford juniors won the prize in the base ball contest over the Gold Hill juniors. The game was well played on both sides, but the visiting team had the best management, which resulted in the best score.

Several families from Nebraska arrived here Monday and are looking for homes.

Thos. Herriott, of Applegate, is now employed in W. M. Holmes' blacksmith shop.

Mrs. E. Pleasants and Mrs. Stocking made Medford a business visit one day last week.

Mrs. N. P. Thompson and Miss Sophronia Shields visited friends in Medford last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Newton left for Henley, Calif., where they intend spending the summer.

John E. Ross and Lawrence Cardwell left for Henley, Calif., Monday, where they go to seek employment.

Mrs. W. T. Leever, who has been very ill for the past three months, is not improved any as yet, we are sorry to say.

Miss Mary Mee left for Grants Pass Thursday, where she goes to visit her sister, Mrs. Emma Bebb, who is seriously ill.

Miss Lizzie Stidham left for Glendale Sunday evening to assist her sister, Miss Stella, in teaching the school at that place.

W. L. Skeel, evangelist of the Church of God, is holding a protracted meeting here and much interest is being shown.

Mrs. Booth Lee left for Harrison Gulch, Calif., last week to be at the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Owens, who is very ill.

Ayer's Pills cure constipation. After suffering terribly I was induced to try your Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles and now feel like a new man. I would advise all my fellow creatures to try this medicine for it has stood the test of time and its curative power cannot be excelled. I. D. Good, Brownstown, Va. Jan. 30, 1900.

There's nothing new about it. Your grandparents took it. 'Twas an old Sarsaparilla before other sarsaparillas were known. It made the word "Sarsaparilla" famous over the whole world. There's no other sarsaparilla like it. In age and power to cure it's "The leader of them all."
