

PURELY PERSONAL.

W. T. West was in from Paisley this week.

R. E. Peyton, of Leeds, was in Medford Monday.

C. W. Myers was over from Klamath Monday.

Miss Cora Bates returned home from Redding Sunday.

Mrs. H. G. Wortman returned from Ashland Saturday.

M. D. Bowles, of Lake Creek, was registered at the Nash Monday.

Mrs. Lou Whittle, of Central Point, was visiting friends in Medford Monday.

A. R. Jacobs, a prosperous young farmer, living near Talent, was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Butler returned Friday from their visit at Willamette valley points.

W. G. Messal and family, of Lake Creek, were registered at Hotel Nash Wednesday.

Ex-Commissioner W. H. Bradshaw was in from Lake Creek Monday upon business and jolly his friends.

E. G. Pomeroy, our good and tried friend, over at Spikenard, was in the city Wednesday upon business.

J. B. Dent and Charlie Milligan, who are employed at the Nye-Wortman mine on Galls creek, spent Sunday with their families in Medford.

J. T. Spencer and family left Monday evening for their home at Northboro, Iowa, after a few weeks' visit with N. H. Spencer and family, out on Griffin creek.

Carl, Edith and Pearl Webb, Grace Foster and Dr. Burnett were over at Table Rock last Sunday and enjoyed a picnic dinner on the topmost point of the rock.

Mrs. Anna Colleen left Tuesday morning for her home at Dixon, Calif., after a two weeks' visit with relatives here. She is a daughter of Arnold Childers, Sr.

Ashael Hubbard returned Sunday from the grand lodge, K. of P., which assembled at Astoria last week. J. H. Butler was also a delegate from Tallisman lodge, of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Fitzgerald returned Monday to their home near Grants Pass. Mr. Fitzgerald is making a crowning success of his fruit venture down that way—and it's all deserved.

N. H. Spencer and children, J. T. Spencer and son, Mr. and Mrs. A. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Nicholson and Miss Myrtle Nicholson made up a little picnic party which visited Table Rock Sunday.

Mrs. H. A. Frenna returned to Medford Tuesday evening. Her husband and son are now at work in San Francisco, but they too will return to Medford about Christmas time, when the family will settle down for a permanent stay in this city.

T. J. Kelso was in from Eagle Point Monday. He was a pleasant caller at THE MAIL office—where he left the necessary which pays his subscription to 1902. He is engaged in hauling lumber from up near Talent to his place for an addition to his dwelling house.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Leever came over from Ft. Klamath last week for a few days' stay with relatives and their many friends. Mr. Leever is engaged in stock raising and is doing well. Both himself and wife like the country immensely well—and are healthy and happy.

A. J. Stewart left Monday morning for El Paso, Texas, where he has large interests and where he will spend the winter, returning to Medford next spring, as has been his wont to do for several years. He is a splendid gentleman and his comings are always welcomed by our townspeople.

Jeff Wilson was over from Langell Valley, Klamath County, last week. Mrs. Wilson has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Obenohain, at Central Point, for a couple of weeks and returned to her home with her husband. These people returned a few weeks ago from an outing trip to the coast.

Thos. Smith, the gentleman who recently purchased a tract of land near Jacksonville, was in Medford last Saturday upon business. He is very much elated over his purchase and is regretting that he did not buy a few months sooner so he could have secured about $400's worth of prunes which have just been harvested from the orchard.

W. T. York and family and R. B. Orr and family were up Talent Sunday looking over the country. At M. L. Pellett's place they were shown a bin of very fine apples—the product of Mr. Pellett's orchard. There are several thousand bushels of these apples and they are a prime article. It was only a couple of three years ago that Mr. Pellett was offering his farm for sale at a price that was very low but since that time he has made different arrangements and don't want to sell. His crop of fruit since then has more than paid the amount asked then—and the place is still his—with prospects for its laying up a good bank account for him in years to come.

G. G. Culy, the big stockman of Steamboat, was registered at the Nash Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Mitchell arrived in Medford last week from Klamath, Calif.

Capt. J. T. C. Nash left Monday evening for a business trip to Roseburg and Portland.

E. B. Jennings left Wednesday evening for a three or four days' business trip to Roseburg.

Mrs. Louis Bundy, wife of Dr. Bundy, the dentist, is down from Eugene visiting her husband.

Wm. Gibbon, one of the best friends THE MAIL has in the valley, was in from his farm, near Central Point, Tuesday.

Mrs. A. E. Graves, who formerly lived in the Applegate country, stopped off in Medford Monday for a day's visit with friends, en route from Portland to San Francisco.

Prof. J. A. Bish, teacher in the Woodville schools, was in Medford over Saturday and Sunday, visiting his parents and friends. Abe is making a decided success of school teaching—and his friends rejoice with him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fryer and their daughter, Mrs. Green, of Eagle Point, were Medford visitors Saturday. Mr. Fryer dropped into THE MAIL'S new shop to look around and to say encouraging words—all of which are fully appreciated.

Mrs. D. I. Waldrup, and daughter, Mrs. Bessie Plymale, and Mrs. Waldrup's sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Crabb, came up from Ft. Jones, Calif., this week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Miller and other Medford relatives and friends. Mrs. Crabb's home is at Des Moines, Iowa.

Mrs. S. D. Musso, of Bowman, Calif., arrived in Medford this week and will visit for a couple of months with her son-in-law, Editor A. H. Chessmore, and family. Her son was here during the summer and was very favorably impressed with the country and it is not unlikely that he and his mother will move here.

Rev. L. O. Wilson and family, of Grants Pass, were in Medford a few days this week upon a visit to Rev. E. F. Wilson and family. These reverend gentlemen are brothers and both M. E. Church pastors. Rev. L. O. has recently been transferred from Grants Pass to Red Bluff, Calif. He is now en route to his new field of labor.

P. H. Gray was over from Poe's valley, Klamath County, this week. He is going to engage in stock raising over that way and is of the opinion that there's big money for him as well as other stockmen. He bought a couple of acres of potatoes when he first went over there, and he brought in a few samples, which weighed four and five pounds each—and they had received no cultivation whatever. The variety of the potatoes is the Blue Victor.

W. D. West, of Silver Lake, is now visiting relatives in this city. Mr. West is a nephew of T. F. West, Mrs. E. M. Denison and Mrs. R. T. Lawton and a cousin of Mrs. G. H. Haskins, D. T. and J. W. Lawton, whom he had not seen for nearly twenty years. This is Mr. West's first visit to Medford. He is greatly pleased with its general make-up and go-ahead business appearance. Mr. West is a practical engineer and a good, all-round fellow and cannot come too often or stay too long.

J. H. McFall, a farmer living near Central Point, was in the city Monday upon business. The gentleman has been living in the valley for a couple of years, during which time he has been doing pretty well in a financial way, so well in fact that he has decided to take his family and pay his relatives at Aurora, Mo., a three months' visit. He has not visited his old home for twenty-three years, and has decided that right now is an opportune time—and he goes—and may pleasures abound where himself and estimable family camp.

Geo. T. Richards, of Grand Rapids, arrived in Medford this week after a trip into eastern Oregon. The gentleman and his family arrived in Oregon City from Michigan several weeks ago. The family remained in the above named city while Mr. Richards has been making a detour of the southern part of the state. He likes the Rogue river valley and Medford and has decided to spend at least the winter here, and has rented the Misses Townsend's property out near the Orchard Home tract. He left Monday evening for Oregon City to get his family, expecting to return to Medford the latter part of this week. Mr. R. is a farmer and if he likes the way our country acts for the next few months he will invest in farm property hereabouts. Those Michigan men as a rule are good men—and hustlers—and Mr. Richards seems very like the majority.

The price paid for him was $50.70.

A Model Grocery Store.

For weeks past workmen have been "rolling logs," so to speak, in preparing the large, brick store room, belonging to Thos. McAndrews, for occupancy by G. L. Davis, the grocer. The building was completed last week and no sooner was the snow white paint dry than did Mr. Davis commence the work of moving in.

The main building is 50x60 feet in size and is all in one large salesroom. The fixtures are all new, of modern style and conveniently arranged or the uses for which intended. Shelving and counters extend the full length of each side and across the back end. Tables are located at various places in the room, while through the center are large pyramid tables upon which is fancy glassware and Japanese goods. At the center rear is an elevated office, leading to which is a flight of stairs and around which is a railing. Every piece of the store fixtures is painted a pure white and when loaded with the new goods which Mr. Davis has put in presents a very pretty scene to look upon. The windows are French plate glass and around them have been installed, about a foot apart, 124 electric lights, which with the aid of twelve other electric lights in other parts of the store, will afford a great abundance of light.

The east side of the room is given up almost exclusively to canned, bottled and fancy lunch goods; the rear to crockery and heavy groceries; the west side to shelf groceries, cigars and tobacco, while the center is taken up with vegetables, fruits, syrups, wooden and willow ware.

Mr. Davis carries a $8000 stock of goods, employs five clerks and delivery men—and does two men's work himself. His employees are T. E. Pottenger, Carl Crystal, H. H. Davis, Everett Eads, John Dent and Charlie Caldwell, the two latter being drivers of the two delivery wagons which the establishment keeps busy going to all parts of the town.

Mr. Davis' new business home is, without a doubt, the finest place of business of its kind in the state, outside of Portland—and THE MAIL is pleased because that's so—not especially because it's George Davis that's doing it all, but because that it's Medford enterprise that's forging ahead. The place is a beauty spot in Medford and Mr. Davis is entitled to wagon loads of credit for having put forth so much enterprise in this direction.

—Empty barrels—New and old barrels for sale cheap at the distillery office.

—Candy ten cents per pound for the next thirty days at the Boss—Jacksonville.

The Wonderful "Snap Shot"

Cured a Bad Sore Throat.

State of Oregon, ss. J. T. Roberts, being duly sworn, deposes and says: In April I got the sore throat so bad I could not speak above a whisper, but did not know what was the matter. I went to Mr. Sutton and he treated it with Snap Shot and in about ten minutes the pain and soreness left my throat and I have not been bothered since with it.

I also had the rheumatism so badly I had to go with a cane, and the cords were drawn so that I could not bend my leg. I went to Mr. Sutton's office and used the Snap Shot and in a very short time I threw the cane away and went home without any trouble, and have had to use the cane no more and have had no recurrence of the rheumatism.

Sutton's Snap Shot is a great remedy.
