  Rev. Tabor returned Wednesday

  THE M. S best wish is that success in a business way may always be found within their easy reach, and that peace and happiness may always be enjoyed at their hearthstone and beneath their rooftree.

  Peoples' Popular Francisco.

- Medford, who regretted their departure.

  A.L. Carpenter, of Central Point, was in Medford Tuesday upon business. Mr. C. is the gentleman, who together with his wife, came to the Rogue river valley this fall from South Dakota, traveling the entire distance by team. Mr. Carpenter purchased the D. E. Jones place, near Central Point, which place he is now shaping to suit his notion. He is grading his yard, moving the house, building fence and grabbing out a considerable number of trees. He wants to sell a fine lot of oak wood which he has recently out.
- H. W. Jackson came over from his H. W. Jackson came over from his company's mine, in Josephine County, this week. The company, which is made up principally of A. A. Davis and Mr. Jackson, own mining property in Josephine County which bids fair to Josephine County which bids fair to Josephine County which bids fair to out-rival anything yet brought to light. They own mountains, almost of nearly sure copper, and aside from this they have a gold ledge nearby, which is swondrous rich. Mr. Jackson brought out with him several samples of copper, some of the larger of which were sent to the Paris mineral exhibit. The copper ore also contains from $40 to $60 of cold and silver.

More Cupid Arrows.

- It was a quiet little event, indulged in by quiet little people, which was celebrated at the residence of Rev. W. B. Moore on Sunday evening, December 9th, at which time and place Mr. Scott Davis and Miss Ida Weaver were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock by Rev. Moore.

  The event was a surprise to many of their friends, who, while they had figured that Cupid's arrow would go whizzing into that locality one of these days, couldn't just guess the date, but the telitale license told the event a few hours in advance of its actual taking place.

- Attorney Riley Hammersley, of Gold Hill, was a Medford visitor Monday.

  Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Daley, Jr., of Eagle Point, were Medford visitors Tuesday.

Dolls, Toys and Japanese Ware

I have been selling groceries pretty nearly all my life and have become accustomed to small profits. I presume I will be foolish enough to think that grocery profits are profits big enough for Christmas goods. As a matter of fact I have marked all my goods on that basis—and purchasers get the benefit.

Come i and see my stock and don't be bashful about asking questions.

- Southern California. Notable among the pleasures afforded by the Shasta Route is the winter trip to Southern California and Arizona. Renewed acquaintance with this section will ever develop fresh points of interest and added sources of snjoyment, under its sunny skies, in the variety of its fudustries, in its prolific vegetation and among its numberless resorts of mountain, shore, val-
- 94 02 loy and plain.

  The two delly Shasta trains from Portland to California have been recently equipped with the most approved pattern of standard and tourist sleeping cars, but the low rates of fare will still continue in effect.

  Hisstrated guides to the winter reserts of California and Arisona may be had on applica.
  - California and Arizona may be had on application to C. H. MARKHAM, G. P. A.
