C. W. Ashpole, of Eagle Point, was in Medford Monday upon business.

Dr. Levison, the optician, is in the city for a few days, at Hotel Nash.

C. B. Bailey, of Gold Hill, was a business visitor to the city Tuesday.

Mrs. J. R. Hardin and Mrs. Moyer visited Central Point friends Thursday.

C. W. DeCarlow, of Elk creek, was among the Medford visitors this week.

Dr. B. F. Adkins returned from his trip to San Francisco Saturday evening.

Attorney C. P. Snell returned from a professional trip to Roseburg last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Drisko and Mrs. A. Z. Sears visited Ashland friends Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Boyce, of Gold Hill, were in Medford Wednesday doing trading.

Engineer McCarty, of the Southern Pacific, spent a couple of days in the city this week.

Hon. W. A. Carter, of Gold Hill, was in this city one day last week interviewing friends.

Miss Lottie Pratt, of Ashland, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pierce, of this city.

Mrs. C. R. Ray, and daughter, Miss Ina, of Gold Hill, were visiting Medford friends Wednesday.

Miss Bernice Cameron visited her sister, Mrs. L. L. Jacobs, in this city Saturday and Sunday.

J. W. Curry left last week for Washington, D. C., to resume his position as clerk in the census office.

Mrs. Bessie Plymale, of Ashland, was visiting relatives and friends in Medford a few days this week.

Geo. E. Weber left Wednesday evening for Crescent City in the interest of the Woodmen of the World.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Erford left Medford Wednesday morning for their new home at Boulder, Colorado.

Misses Virgie Woodford, Mamie and Myrtle Nicholson visited Central Point friends last Saturday evening.

Horace E. Pelton, the well known stockman of Sams Valley, was in the city a couple of days this week.

Miss Aileen Webber returned home Monday from a visit of several days' duration with Grants Pass friends.

Thos. Cummings, of Corvallis, arrived in Medford Wednesday and will endeavor to lease a farm near here.

Miss Mazie Kame returned home from Grants Pass this week, where she spent several days visiting friends.

Geo. Creed, of Wilderville, arrived in Medford Tuesday to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, Mr. Land.

Thos. Carroll, of Tacoma, was in Medford Wednesday upon a brief visit to his brother, Capt. Carroll, and family.

L. F. Shippley, of Placer, Josephine County, was in Medford over Sunday on business, and also visiting with his cousin, A. W. Bish, and family.

Messrs. W. H. and Chas. Morgan, of Tolo, were Medford visitors Monday. THE MAIL will henceforth be a regular weekly visitor to their household.

Mrs. Kate Crystal, accompanied by her daughter, Lulu, and son, Fred, left Monday morning for Sebastopol, Calif., where they will reside permanently.

F. M. McKinnis, of Talent, was in Medford Wednesday upon business. THE MAIL will, from this date on, be a regular weekly visitor to his farm home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Collins and family, of Dallas Center, Iowa, arrived in Medford this week and will visit here during the summer with Mrs. Collins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Strayer.

E. L. Wright, of Grants Pass, is in the city this week upon business. Mr. Wright is interested in the Grants Pass Marble Works and is here with a view to establishing an agency in this city.

Merchant O. W. Walters, of Talent, was in Medford Monday night in attendance at a regular meeting of Tallman lodge, No. 31, K. of P., upon which occasion there was work in the second degree.

O. E. Gorsline, the Medford lumberman, was in Roseburg and Glendale last week upon business connected with his lumber trade here. The gentleman, notwithstanding the ill health he has had nearly all winter, is saying that for a home and business location Medford beats 'em all.

Evan Reames, the Klamath Falls banker, accompanied by his wife, arrived in Medford Tuesday and will remain here several days. Mr. Reames is one of the executors of the estate of the late T. G. Reames, and it is in connection with the appraisal of the property of the estate that he is here.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Jones, of Central Point, were in Medford Monday. Those people have recently purchased a thirteen-acre fruit orchard just west of Central Point, for which they paid $800. The tract is an exceptionally good one and is well set to all varieties of fruit. They will move to their new home this week.

R. U. McClannahan, the rustling traveling salesman for the Palm & Whitman cigar manufacturing company, returned Wednesday from a several weeks' trip throughout Oregon in the interest of his firm. He reports a good business all along the line, considering that this trip was made during the dull season of the year.

T. J. West and son, Bert, of Brownboro, were in Medford Wednesday. These people are new to Southern Oregon, having moved here from Washington last fall, but they have lived here long enough to find out that we are the most hospitable people that ever inhabited the best land in the whole United States. Mr. West was fortunate in dropping anchor in one of the best neighborhoods in Southern Oregon—and he found out the kind of genuinely hospitable people they are—during his family's recent sad affliction—and he is not backward in sounding their praises.

Samuel Richardson, of Harris, Mo., who has been in the volunteer service in the Philippines for several months, is in Medford visiting Merchant F. K. Deuel and family. Mr. Richardson is en route to his home, which was Mr. Deuel's former residence, but he decided to stop here for two or three weeks and secure a much needed rest and at the same time visit his old friends. Mr. Richardson is a very gentlemanly appearing and acting young man, and if he is a fair criterion of our boys now serving their country in the far east, which he doubtless is, then United States has just cause to be proud of her soldiers.

Notice to the Public.

We wish to call the attention of the people of Jackson County to our stock of harness and saddlery goods just opened up in Medford.

We manufacture all our HARNESS and devote ourselves principally to HEAVY STOCK SADDLES.

We have endeavored—in selecting our material and making it up—to merit a share of your patronage, and take pleasure in inviting those interested in this line to call and examine our goods and receive our prices on both hand and machine work.

We are compelled to employ a machine in order to compete with other machine made goods, but give our special attention to hand made goods.

Deuel & Steven's old stand, Medford.

—Burglars were operating in Ashland this week. Two places of business were broken into Sunday evening, but the robbers failed to secure any booty.

—A suit to recover money wherein S. T. Sanders was plaintiff and a Mr. Walters was defendant, was heard in Justice Stewart's court Wednesday.

—Nothing further regarding the sale of diseased meat in Medford, the rumor concerning which was published in last week's MAIL, has been learned.

—Farmers report the roads improving rapidly under the influence of the warm weather. Spring farm work will soon be commenced in earnest.

—The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will have charge of the religious services at the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

—It will be good news to Johnnie Galway's many friends in this city to learn that he is much improved in health.

—Wm. Angle Tuesday commenced the construction of a new cement pavement in front of the opera house building.

—Chief of Police Johnson has a new star which contains the true insignia of his office—that of Chief of Police.

—H. C. Mackey has taken up his residence in the Bateman house, south of A. A. Davis' mill.

—M. Bellinger contemplates moving to Medford from his farm.

A Gentle Hint.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperatures—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, and the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor bill and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing consumption, hemorrhages, pneumonia, severe coughs, or croup, or any disease of the throat or lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Get a sample bottle free from Chas. Strang. Regular size, 75 cents. Get Green's prize almanac.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

—Mr. Samuel Randles, an aged and highly respected citizen of Lake Creek, died at his home on Tuesday night of this week of la grippe. Funeral services were held yesterday. Deceased was the father of Mrs. Frank True, living on Griffin creek, and an uncle of Mrs. Jos. Delk, of this city. He was about seventy years of age and has been a resident of Jackson County for a great number of years. He has many acquaintances and fast friends in all parts of the county who have nothing but kind words for him and his many excellent traits.

—Take H. B. Myers your watches, clocks and jewelry if you want good work done. All work warranted for one year.

—J. W. Hunter and F. S. Sherer, of Oklahoma, who arrived in Medford a couple of weeks ago, have leased the photograph gallery in the Hamlin block, which has been occupied by Mr. Mackey for several years, and will open up a studio therein in the near future. H. C. Mackey & Boyd, the present occupants of the building, will remove their studio to some other building in the city, but the exact location has not yet been decided upon.

—Acetylene gas lights still ahead and guaranteed to be the best on the face of the earth. Woller's tin shop.

—E. C. Boeck and Mr. Spafford have secured the agency and right to manufacture the celebrated American gate, in Jackson and Klamath Counties. This is one of the very best patent gates ever put on the market. It is easily handled from either side and is operated while sitting in the wagon or carriage. A sample gate has been manufactured and is on exhibition at Mr. Boeck's shop.

—Do you know that the cheapest place in town to buy good jewelry is at Elwood's?

—Revival services are being conducted this week at the M. E. Church by the pastor, Rev. W. B. Moore. So much interest was manifested in the meetings as conducted last week and so much good seemingly was being accomplished that it was decided to continue them this week, and possibly they will continue into next week, although no announcement to that effect has been made.

—Fruit Sprays—Dunn's solid fruit sprays, best and cheapest. In any quantity, already mixed for use. For sale by Cox & Perry, Medford.

—Sam'l and Julius Goldsmith, the former a well known traveling man, and the latter formerly engaged in business in this city have closed out their cigar business at Salem, in which they engaged about two months ago. A misunderstanding over the lease of the building which they occupied, is assigned as their reason for going out of business.

—Logan and Japan wineberry roots for sale. H. Voegler, Medford.

—W. A. Woollyer, of Grants Pass, who recently organized a lodge of the Modern Woodman of America, is in the city endeavoring to organize a business college. He states that he is meeting with satisfactory results and that he expects to secure a sufficient number of pupils to justify him in organizing a school.

—A new lot of Japanese goods just received. Call and see them. G. L. Davis.

—Miss Florence Toft has accepted the position of telephone girl at the central office in Strang's drug store, vice Miss Lillian Barr, resigned, who with her sister, Mrs. Ada Mills, will leave in a couple of weeks for San Francisco. Mrs. Mills goes to take her little son to the hospital for treatment and Lillian will take a course in a business college.

—For Sale—Eight horse power engine and boiler. M. M. Gault, Medford machinist.

—The Southern Oregon Oil Company, of Ashland, has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, with a capital stock of $100,000, divided into 400,000 shares at twenty-five cents per share. The company has bonded about ten acres of land which is supposed to be productive of oil.

—All kinds of sash and doors and screen doors, at lowest market price. W. Woods.

—A strike in a Josephine County mine, which is said to be the richest ever discovered in this section of the country, is reported. The name or location of the property cannot be learned at this time. Mr. Dusenbury, the Galis creek mining man, says it has caused a great excitement in mining centers.

—For Rent—Furnished room for light housekeeping, $2.50 per month, on Seventh street. Apply at MAIL office.

—Mort Foster, who has been visiting his mother and family in this city for a few weeks, has accepted a position as salesman for H. E. Boyden, the hardware dealer, and will not return to Spokane. Mort is a thorough salesman and Mr. Boyden is fortunate in securing his services.

—For Sale or Trade—Twenty acres of wood land, near Medford. Hubbard Bros.

—The $25,000 capital stock for the new bank at Ashland has all been subscribed and a permanent organization has been effected. A bank building has been purchased and the new bank will be open and ready for business by April 1st. A. McCallen will be cashier.

—Get Wells & Shearer to do your moving—satisfaction always.

—Miss Carrie George, the postal telegraph operator, has been commissioned a notary public for Oregon, by Governor Geer. She has been making a number of improvements in the appointment and appearance of her new office, which is now a very cozy one.

—$70 sewing machines—$30 to $45—call on Jno. F. White, Medford.

—Terrific storms, leaving in their wake death and destruction of property, are raging in the east. In Oregon sunshine and the odor of violets is the order of the day. No wonder thousands of easterners are coming to Oregon.

—Ten acres of the south end of the Earhart farm for sale.

—Chrysanthemum circle, No. 84, of this city, will celebrate the fourth anniversary of the organization of the Women of Woodcraft, on April 9th. Particulars will be published in a subsequent issue of this paper.

—Fine line of very nice jardinières—received this week—at G. L. Davis'.

—Dr. E. T. Burnett left for Ashland Monday morning to take charge of his new dental office, which he recently purchased of Dr. J. W. Odgers. We wish the doctor success in his new home.
