Two Boys Roasted to Death—Indian Tribe Threatens the Whites—Burglar Scared by a Parrot—The Pilots' Association Sued For Damages.

The battleship Oregon, after an absence of three years and three months, arrived at San Francisco, and received a rousing welcome.

Scott Leary, the champion amateur swimmer of the coast, broke a world's record at the San Francisco Olympic club swimming tournament by swimming 50 yards in the fast time of 29 1 5 seconds.

The Shriners of North America concluded their twenty-second annual meeting at Kansas City, and next year will meet at San Francisco during the first week in June.

Benedick Wizenberger, who shot Thomas Watson at Susanville, was released from custody after preliminary examination, as Justice Masten decided that Watson was the aggressor.

Almon Weymouth, a pioneer contractor of Livermore, Cal., committed suicide at his residence in that city by shooting himself in the head with a pistol. Desertion by his wife and adopted daughter is given as the cause. He was about 70 years of age and a native of Maine.

At Redlands, Cal., a young pigeon in in its flight caused two live wires to become crossed, which had the effect of cutting off the city's water supply for several hours and inconveniencing many ranchers who were irrigating in the valley, besides entailing a monetary loss to the Edison Electric company. The bird was instantly killed and half a dozen wires were burned out, which cut off the current.

A sensational mining suit was filed in the United States circuit court at Moscow, Ida. It is a battle of the giants. On one side are pitted Patrick Clark, the noted mining man of Spokane, and a group of associates; on the other, Charles Sweeny, the well-known Spokane operator; F. R. Culbertson, another well-known Spokane mining man, and two big corporations mining in Idaho and operating financially in New York city. Clark and his associates charge Sweeny and Culbertson with swindling them out of two mining claims in the Cœur d'Alenes, valued at $1,000,000.

Captain Charles F. Seymour of the Sitka schooner Iliamna was adrift for 21 days, in which time the schooner drifted 500 miles to the westward, and was finally wrecked on the island of Kagataska, one of the Aleutian group, where he lived for six weeks with shellfish as his only food. He was finally rescued by some natives, who took him to Atka island, where he was cared for by Mr. Dirks, who has a station there, and also by Captain Peterson of the schooner Challenge, which belongs also to Dirks. Captain Seymour, with his dog, was the only one on board the vessel.

A blaze at Point Richmond, near San Francisco, that was visible all around the bay, destroyed seven places of business and caused the death of a child and the serious injury of a man. The loss, which is between $15,000 and $20,000, is about half covered by insurance.

A party of miners who were changing shifts at the Baby McKee mine, near Sumpter, Or., found J. B. Conroy and Herbert Thomas in a state of unconsciousness. They died about two hours after being taken out. It is supposed that the men were asphyxiated by the foul air caused by the repeated explosions of powder used in blasting.

Mayor Phelan of San Francisco has notified Treasurer Brooks not to pay any demands for salaries of recorder's copyists who have not been certified by the civil service commission. Pending a decision by the supreme court all doubts should be resolved by administrative officers in favor of the civil service provisions of the charter.

Marvin Ford, the young man whose losses at the race-track forced him to crime, was sentenced by Judge Lawlor, at San Francisco, to ten years in San Quentin. Lee Leong, a Chinese merchant, had been to the Nevada bank, and was carrying a sack of coin. At an opportune moment Ford struck the Chinese over the head, and, seizing the coin, made off with it down Sacramento street, but was ultimately captured in a restaurant.

A Tacoma dispatch says that the Hydah Indian tribe, occupying a reservation near Ketchikan, has declared war against the whites of that section in consequence of the shooting of Kit Coon of the Hidahs by Deputy United States Marshal Jones. Jones went to the reservation to serve a warrant charging Coon with cutting timber on land outside of the reservation. The Indian chief met him with a gun and told him to stay away. Deputy Jones returned to Ketchikan and secured the services of Jailor Williams. Armed with rifles, they took up a position behind a ledge of rocks. The Indian chief soon came along and refused to surrender, whereupon Jones and Williams opened fire, two of the shots hitting the chief. Chief Coon fired once and then dropped to the ground. He was soon picked up and taken home by Indians, who rushed out when they heard the shooting. They threaten to shoot all prospectors found in the woods.

The strike of the journeymen butchers of San Francisco was settled by a compromise. The demands of the journeymen as to hours and union rules were granted by the employers, and the union market cards were waived by the Valuable Pearl Found In a Clam—King Edward Presents Medals to 3,000 Soldiers—Philadelphia Gives Away Valuable Franchises.

The Chinese exclusion law will expire on May 5th next. The labor unions of the country will demand of congress the re-enactment of the law.

A clam fisher in the Mississippi r... near Prairie du Chien brought ... clam recently in whose shell was ...den one of the largest and most perfect pearls ever found in America. The finder sold it for $17,500 to a Prairie du Chien dealer, who in turn rec... $25,000 for it. H. Deakin of Chicago afterward bought it and was offered $40,000 for it. He refused the offer, declaring it worth $50,000.

The Cuban constitutional convention accepted the Platt amendment by a vote of 16 to 11. The resolution to adopt was carried without discussion. This news was received at Washington with genuine satisfaction.

Henry Labouchere was fined £50 and costs in the king's bench court, London, for contempt of court in commenting on a case which was still in course of trial. Counsel for the plaintiff wanted Mr. Labouchere and Horace Voules, editor of Truth, to be imprisoned, but Justices Brewster and Philmore thought that a fine and costs against both defendants would suffice.

The Pacific Fire Insurance company of New York, by reason of heavy losses, has reinsured with the Westchester Fire Insurance company of New York, so that it is no longer in business. The Jacksonville losses did not cripple the Pacific—for it had a surplus beyond all claims—but it reduced its margin above capital to such an extent that the directors decided to withdraw from the field. The Pacific had more than $65,000,000 of insurance in force, which will be protected under the terms of the reinsurance deal.

The Washington house of ex-Senator Thomas H. Carter of Montana has become the hive of a swarm of bees, and the industrious insects have already packed full of honey the entire space under the floor of one room. The store of honey is believed to be the accumulations of three years, and hundreds of pounds have been taken out recently. Mrs. Carter has been distributing the honey freely among the neighbors, who have begged the ex-senator's family not to disturb the bees.

A fine spectacle was witnessed on the Horse Guards parade in London, when King Edward, accompanied by the queen, Princess Victoria and other members of the royal family, presented medals to 3,000 soldier participants in the South African campaign. The members of the special Moorish embassy, in picturesque costumes, were interested spectators.

Emperor William sent a congratulatory message to the International Young Men's Christian association during its session at Boston.

In connection with the celebration of the 450th anniversary of the foundation of Glasgow university the degree of LL.D. was conferred on Andrew Carnegie, Lord Dufferin, Generals Sir Archibald Hunter and Ian Hamilton, Messrs. Cooper and Gayley of San Francisco and three Glasgow ladies. This is the first time the university has conferred the degree on a woman. Mr. Carnegie received an ovation.

The National Editorial association, which met at Buffalo, adopted, after a warm debate, a report in favor of excluding from the mails all newspapers that give premiums. Albert Tozier of Portland, Or., was elected president, defeating G. A. Willard of Booneville, N. Y., by a vote of 242 to 152. The next convention will be held at Hot Springs, Ark.

Mayor Ashbridge of Philadelphia has signed the ordinance granting a wholesale allotment of street railway franchises to Senator Quay and others associated with him. For these franchises John Wanamaker bid $2,500,000, but his letter enclosing the offer was thrown away unopened by the mayor. Following the signing of the ordinance the beneficiaries were offered $10,000,000—an indication of the extent of the city's loss through the action of the mayor and council.

Harry L. Abbott, a printer employed on the McKeesport (Pa.) Daily News and a member of the McKeesport common council, resigned his seat in that body because he does not believe a man can be a Christian and a member of the council at the same time. "Politics is the most corrupt thing I have ever been mixed up with," says Mr. Abbott. "I am out of it for ever. I have separated myself and my conscience is satisfied. Others may not agree with me, but I know that no Christian can sit in the McKeesport council and save his soul."

Jules Henrivaux, till lately director of a glass factory at St. Gobain, France, predicts that the new age is to be glass. He says glass is the best substance known to use for every kind of structural purpose, and especially for dwelling-houses. The point of the idea is found in the inexhaustible supply of materials from which glass is made, in its adaptability to all shapes and forms, and its durability and cleanliness.

Five negroes were hanged on the same gallows at the same moment at Sylvania, Ga. The victims of their crime were Constable Mears and Fillmore Herrington, whom they ambushed and shot to death, and Captain Wade, whom they severely injured. These men were members of an organized band knawn as Knights of the Archer. The motto of the organization was, it is said, "Death to the Whites."

IN THE PHILIPPINES.

The insurgent General Cailles has signed terms of surrender.

Orders have been issued to fit up the transport Thomas, if the Sherman is not available, so that she may sail from San Francisco on July 23d as a special transport for teachers. The Thomas is to be fitted to carry 170 female teachers and 400 male teachers to the Philippines. The war department has received from Judge Taft approval of the selection of 650 teachers who will be ready to sail on the Thomas. The Buford and Logan, which will sail on July 1st and 16th, will take 156 teachers.

Bids for the contract to improve Manila harbor will be opened in Manila on the 1st of August. The work proposed will cost $3,000,000, and the expenditure of that sum is authorized. It is expected that leading contractors of the United States will be represented at the opening of the proposals. The competition is limited to citizens of the United States and residents of the Philippine Islands.

Colonel Bolanos, with five officers and 41 rifles, has surrendered at Lipta, Batangas province.

The recent battle with the insurgents at Lipa, in which Lieutenant Springer was killed and Captain Wilhelm and Lieutenant Lee were mortally wounded, was begun by the Americans. The disproportionate number of officers hit is said to be due to the fact that several deserters from the American troops were with the rebels.

The United States Philippine Commission has appointed the following supreme court justices: Chief justice, Caietana Arellano; Florentino Torres, ex-attorney-general; J. F. Cooper of Texas, General James F. Smith of California, formerly collector of customs; Charles A. Willard of Minnesota, Victorina Mapa of Iloilo, and Fletcher Ladle of New Hampshire. The commission has appointed L. F. Wilfley of Missouri to be attorney-general. His assistant and solicitor will be natives.
