JACKSONVILLE'S CELEBRATION. The celebration in Jacksonville on July 4th proved to be an entire success. Greatly to the satisfaction of the committees who had made untiring efforts and had spent time and money to make it such a day was apparently appreciated and enjoyed by the great throng of people who were in attendance. The preparations for making a fine display in the parade were extensive and required much patience and labor, but the result was so satisfactory none regretted the time spent. The day dawned cool and bright and was greeted with cannon booms and waving banners as the sun arose and revealed a cloudless sky, that had been dark with threatening clouds at the day before. Vehicles of every description came rolling in from all parts of the valley and by 9 o'clock our little city was thronged with people eager to see the sights. Sheriff Orme, marshal of the day, assisted by his aids, succeeded in arranging the parade, which was the feature of the day, in splendid order. The unanimous praise bestowed upon the parade committee was well deserved for a more gorgeous and artistic array of floats has never been seen in Southern Oregon. There were three divisions to the parade. The first was led by the Medford K. of P. band, whose lively rendition of the old patriotic airs soon enthused the great crowd, numbering over three thousand people. The flag float followed with Miss Mabel Prim carrying the large, handsome flag in the center. The next came a beautiful float, handsomely decorated with red and gold, carrying Miss Marie Nickel as Goddess of Liberty. The next was the Angel of Peace, represented by Miss Isa Cook, surrounded by four little cherubs. The thirteen colonies represented by young ladies on horseback were next in order, followed by the liberty car with a host of little children in national uniform. The last of the first division was the Justice float, represented by Miss Mollie Ray. The float was very beautifully designed, being pure white and trimmed with silver stars. The second division was led by the handsomely rigged battleship Oregon, Master Vance Colvig in command. This handsome little ship, designed by Mr. Francis Voyle, was a surprise to all who saw it. The float representing our army and navy was well planned and carried out the idea of protection in full. Our national colors were beautifully represented by three separate floats. Miss Lizzie Buck was the central figure on the red float, Miss Lella Prim, the white, and Miss Annie Wendt, the blue. Following these was Uncle Sam and Little Cuba, which created much amusement. The third division was led by the float, Oregon, containing fair Oregon's representative wealth, was laden with samples of what she can produce from her rich and fertile soil, with her incomparable climate and unlimited mineral resources. Following this was the Native Daughters' float. The gorgeous costumes added very much to this feature. Next came the Redmen of the forest. This was so well represented that one could almost imagine the old chiefs and warriors had returned to their old hunting grounds in the Rogue river valley. The Rebekah float, with Rebekah at the well was splendidly designed, was next in order, with the hose cart and the fire engine bringing up the rear. The exercises at the court house held the attention of the crowd for an hour or more. Hon. H. D. Norton, of Grants Pass, delivered the oration, Miss Nura Sydow, of Central Point, read the Declaration of Independence and the music was furnished by the Presbyterian choir. At 2 o'clock the commodious grand stand was filled with people to witness the ball game between Medford and Jacksonville nines. The Medford boys came off victorious, and the Jacksonville boys accepted their defeat in their usual gentlemanly and generous manner. The fireworks in the evening were witnessed by a large crowd, and the dance was also largely attended. Altogether, everything passed off very pleasantly and general satisfaction prevailed throughout the entire day.

Does It Pay to Buy Cheap? A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boeche's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectorations, gives a good night's rest and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. Got Green's prize almanac. Chas. Strang, druggist.

Gold Hill Items. BY SPECTATOR. Mrs. Ida Betts and son, Merrill, left for Seattle Tuesday, where they will remain permanently. C. R. Ray, with several mining experts, left for Elk Creek district Monday, on a tour of inspection. Mrs. A. Cunningham and children left Tuesday for Seattle to spend the summer with relatives. Mrs. Ivan Humason left last week for Portland to spend a few weeks visiting friends and relatives. Contractor E. G. Perham is putting the finishing touches on J. H. Beeman's residence on Fifth and C streets. Hon. C. W. Nottingham, state representative of Multnomah County, is here looking after his mining interests. Messrs. McKee and Richards, of the Anderson mine on Fooths creek, are having 150 tons of $40 rock crushed at the Humason mill this week. Mr. Sutton, of the Roaring Gimlet mine, left last week for New York state, to visit his old home after an absence of nearly twenty years. Dr. Jan. Braden returned Saturday after a few months' absence from his home at Irvington, Indiana, to look after his mining interests in this district. H. B. Nye was down Sunday from Medford looking after the Bill Nye mine interests, and your correspondent had the pleasure of accompanying him in inspecting the mine, and saw several bushels of specimen rock they took out last week that could not be beat in any county. It goes from eight to ten thousand dollars to the ton. The Nyes are practical mining men, as their work will show. They have the best developed mine in this section of the country. There are 900 feet of tunnel on two well connected levels, of one and two hundred feet deep respectively, and thousands of dollars of ore in sight that glitters with gold. You are a lucky number if you possess a small block of Bill Nye stock.

Your Hair "Two years ago my hair was falling out badly. I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and soon my hair stopped coming out." Miss Minnie Hoover, Paris, Ill. If you want long, thick hair, feed it with Ayer's Hair Vigor, and make it rich, dark, and heavy. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists. If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address: J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

DR. DARRIN.

His Phenomenal Record of Cures of all Manner of Chronic Diseases is Attested by the Following Facts—Surgical Operations Scientifically Performed When Necessary.

THE NERVOUS SYSTEM The System Which Controls the Whole Body.

The most wonderful part of man and most difficult to comprehend, perhaps, is the nervous system, which touches and controls every part of the body. Having its roots in the brain, its trunk in the spine, and its branches extending into and throughout every muscle, limb and organ of the animal frame, it carries either life and health, or disease and death along its course.

The brain secretes a nervous fluid which is magnetic in its effect and influences. The magnetic element travels along the nerves like electricity, from the roots of the hair to the tips of the fingers, and through its telegraphic communication permeates the whole system. When the nervous fluid is deficient or when the nerves do not properly transmit it, weakness and disease are the inevitable results; electricity, the wonder of the age, roots the disease from its stronghold. It permeates the secret ambush of disease and exterminates it root and branch. It removes the wretched symptoms of loathsome maladies, and averts their dreadful results. It relieves more agony and suffering than tongue can tell, as the following cures by Dr. Darrin show:

CURES PERFORMED BY DR. DARRIN. Jas. Harvey, Jr., Talent, Or., cords of the neck contracted and head drawn to one side; cured two years ago. S. R. REV. DR. DOANE. Rev. N. Doane, D. D., Dean of the Theological School of the Portland University, Celebrated His Golden Wedding Last September. This worthy man has been at the head of the Methodist church in the Northwest over forty years. He had a double reason to be congratulated on this occasion as he was totally deaf for years, and in spite of his advanced age,

His hearing was restored two years ago by Dr. Darrin. No one will attempt to question the reverend gentleman's word, as his unblemished record is well known. He tells his story below in his own words:

REV. DR. DOANE'S CARD. UNIVERSITY PARK, PORTLAND, OR., April 26, 1899.

To whom it may concern and encourage, to friends who have suffered like myself, the loss of hearing. On April 24th I called on Dr. Darrin, whom I believed to be a skillful aurist and physician, to restore my hearing. He applied his remedies and electricity to one ear and cured the deafness in a few minutes. Then he turned his attention to the other ear, which did not seem to yield so readily. For this ear the doctor gave me medicines to use at home, which I am now using. I think it the duty of all who are afflicted to have their hearing restored if possible, and I know no one whom I think more skilled than Dr. Darrin. N. DOANE.

WHAT FURTHER TREATMENT DID FOR REV. DR. DOANE. To the Editor:—Two weeks ago I said something of regaining my hearing under the treatment of Dr. Darrin, of which I had suffered for several years. On the first application the deafness of one ear was remedied. The difficulty with the other was more serious. I applied the medicine faithfully and went again to the doctor who succeeded entirely in restoring the lost sense of hearing, so that when I went out upon Third street, Portland, it seemed to be the noisiest city I was ever in. My hearing still remains distinct, in both ears equally good. N. DOANE.

BY REBECCA. The haying season is just over in this vicinity. Wm. McKee, of Big Butte, was on a business trip to this part of the country the first of the week. W. H. Meeker and party, of Medford, passed through town Monday on their way home from a mountain excursion. J. H. Hammersly, accompanied by his father, of Gold Hill, called in town Monday while on their way to McAllister springs. In the same pretty grove, as described two years ago, near a very cool spring, the people of South Butte met to commemorate our national holiday. The program was admirably presided over by J. R. Tyrrell, and consisted of songs, the reading of the Declaration, and recitations, which were effectively rendered, and at the close of which sumptuous dinners were spread from well filled baskets and everybody invited to the generous hospitality. The base ball game in the afternoon between the Brownboro and Lake Creek teams, resulted in favor of the former. The party at night was largely attended. A general success was voted over the whole time by both the home people and the numbers from abroad.

Completion of British Museum List That Has Occupied Twenty Years. The index of books at the British museum is at last complete, after 20 years of hard work, says the St. James' Gazette. When the printing of the great catalogue began in 1881, the manuscript catalogue then used contained 3,000,000 references to about half as many books—cross titles accounting for the difference between the figures. Since then something like half a million new books have been received at the museum, their average yearly number being now 46,000. The preparation of the printed catalogue has, of course, been enormously expensive. It was hoped at the start to reduce the cost by issuing it to subscribers, and for a yearly subscription of £3 10s. a subscriber received all the parts published in the year. As the number of volumes issued annually, however, rose from 16 to 30, while the subscription remained the same, the price of each volume fell from the low sum of 4s. 8d. to 2s. 4d., and the revenue from this source has not been great. Only about 250 copies of each issue are printed, and only about 80 are circulated—half of them given away! In all there are over 600 volumes of the catalogue, containing the titles of 2,000,000 books. The subject index will be the great task of the British museum in the new century. It is to be commenced at once, but will not be ready for 15 years at least.

They Are the Whole Thing. George Gould and his sister Helen have been appointed receivers for the Countess de Castellane. They will continue, also, says the Chicago Tribune, to be the disbursers.
