SOME POST OFFICE FIGURES.

Interesting Facts from the Report of the London Postmaster General.

The annual report of the postmaster general, though not due till parliament reassembles, has been made public by Lord Londonderry. He recalls the colossal blunders of the public with great gusto. It is really astonishing that 388,657 packets should be posted unaddressed and still more that 2,767 contained cash, notes postal orders and other "paper money."

There is another record of carelessness against the public in the fact that the articles found loose in the post have increased by nearly 80 per cent. in the last four years. The error for cheapness affects even postal covers, to our loss, it would seem. For the fact that undelivered correspondence for the army in South Africa is being returned in large quantities, there is ample explanation in the melancholy list of losses in the war. The postmaster general appears to be surprised that 35,448 letters addressed to the Transvaal and the Orange Free State, which were stopped at Cape Town at the outbreak of the war, "were not claimed there by the persons for whom they were intended."

There was, no doubt, a difficulty in the way of either Boers or uitlanders sending down to Cape Town for their mails after war had been declared. There is a healthy surplus on the working of the department of £23,710,631, which will please the chancellor of the exchequer. But the deficit on telegraphs has increased from £66,599 to £285,433.

MISSIONARIES WELL PAID.

Married Men Receive One Thousand Dollars a Year and Traveling Expenses.

The foreign missionary does not work for love of humanity alone. He is a well-paid person, and instead of having the usual Sundays and holidays of rest like other folks he is given a year's vacation with salary every once in from four to ten years, says the Philadelphia Call. The married men missionaries in China receive $1,000 a year and travel pay. When missionaries who are married have children old enough to require to be kept in school away from home they are allowed $150 additional. If young children are with their parents and to be supported $100 additional is allowed for each child. Of course these salaries include house rentals and traveling expenses to and from the stations.

When missionaries take a vacation of a year their traveling expenses to and from their stations are paid at this time and almost their full salary likewise allowed them. More than the salary must, of course, be the impelling motive when missionaries go to such fields as China.

It is good, too, to learn that the laborers are not lacking even in the face of such horrors as it is feared have recently been inflicted on Gospel workers in China. Even at the present moment foreign mission boards are in receipt of hundreds of letters from volunteers who clamor to be sent to the land of the Celestials.

A HOME TREATMENT.

PLACED WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL.

Dr. Darrin, the Celebrated Physician, for the Cure of all Chronic, Nervous and Private Diseases, Returns to His Head Office in Portland September First.

Dr. Darrin, the celebrated physician, who makes the eye, ear, catarrh, deafness, throat, bronchial tubes, lungs, kidney, stomach and liver a specialty, as well as all private diseases, will return to Portland September 1st, where he can be consulted free by letter for the treatment and cure of the afflicted in Southern Oregon, who cannot afford to take a journey to large cities to consult specialists. Dr. Darrin's reputation is so well known that the afflicted throughout this part of the county should not hesitate to avail themselves to his phenomenal skill.

Dr. Darrin makes a specialty of all skin diseases of a chronic and obstinate character that have for years, or a lifetime, resisted the ordinary modes of practice, and are the classes of maladies in the treatment of which he has become pre-eminent throughout the American continent, and especially on the Pacific coast, and by his success has achieved for himself a very enviable reputation.

For those who cannot possibly place themselves under office treatment he has formulated a method of "Home Treatment," whereby the suffering may be favored with his latest modes of cure, including batteries and belts, when necessary, which in many cases give instantaneous relief and soon effect a permanent restoration to health—which includes building up and reorganizing the whole constitution. Consultation in all cases is confidential and free. Those unable to visit the doctor can write for question blank and circular and get his opinion on such cases. Home treatment will be sent to any address at the rate of $10 a month, or in that proportion of time as the case may require. Address Portland, Ore., care of Portland hotel.

Would be patients should preserve this notice where it will be available when wishing treatment of Dr. Darrin. Any case commencing treatment before September 1st will be treated at $10 a month.
