

PURELY PERSONAL.

Sam'l McClendon was up from Gold Hill Monday.

Merchant E. M. Welch was at Ashland Wednesday.

Thos. Nichols, of Brownsboro, was in the city last week.

Attorney C. B. Watson was down from Ashland Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Hardman, of Riddle, is the guest of Mrs. M. Bellinger this week.

J. W. Wiley shipped two carloads of hogs to San Francisco Tuesday.

Mrs. R. B. Orr, of Central Point, was visiting Medford friends Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Jones, of Central Point, were Medford visitors Saturday.

Mrs. N. H. McKay left Saturday for Ashland where she expects to remain for sometime.

A. M. Clark was in from the ditch camp yesterday for repairs, having broken one of the big graders.

H. D. Kubli, of Applegate, returned a few days since from a trip to Portland, and spent Tuesday in Medford.

Dr. Goble left Wednesday morning for Klamath and other California points, to be absent three weeks.

Mrs. R. R. Moore and daughter, Miss Sunbeam, of Phoenix, were pleasant callers at THE MAIL office a few days since.

S. D. Biden and family have moved to Medford from Asbestos for a few weeks. Mr. Biden has been in poor health this fall.

J. D. Heard returned from San Francisco last Saturday. He has nearly recovered from his recent serious illness.

Lin Purdin returned to Medford Saturday evening from his pilgrimage of several months in the coast country. He will remain in Medford during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kame and daughter, Miss Mazie, were in from the farm, near Central Point, last week. Mr. Kame reports everybody happy and doing well.

Henry Hoefft, who has been out at Lake Creek for a few weeks visiting friends, returned last Saturday to Klamath, Calif., where he is employed in a box factory.

Reed Hutchinson, who has been in Medford since August upon a visit to his aunt, Mrs. N. R. Johnston, and family, left Wednesday morning for his home at Harrisville, Mo.

Prof. G. A. Carlock, of Talent, was a Medford visitor Monday. This is the professor's third term as principal of the Talent schools—which is a pretty good recommendation for any man.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hunt were down from Ashland Tuesday. While here Mr. Hunt purchased a carload of fat hogs from D. T. Cox and several head of beef cattle from Mike Hanley's herd.

Mrs. R. I. Everett left Thursday morning for Redlands, Calif., at which place her husband is engaged in business. She was accompanied from Ashland by Mrs. Hargadone, a sister of Mr. Everett.

W. H. Hurley, of Anderson creek, is in Medford this week in attendance upon Uncle Thomas West, who has been quite ill, but who, we are pleased to note, is now considerably improved.

Attorneys A. S. Hammond and A. E. Reames returned Tuesday evening from Lakeview where they had been attending court. In making the trip over they did not "touch" at Merrill or Klamath Falls. The smallpox excitement is still on in these places—hence they were the days of large profits in the piano and organ business are past? "Small profits and quick sales" is the motto of today.

WE HAVE REMOVED

Johnson residence on A street, between 7th and 8th streets, the third house northwest from the Bear creek bridge, and there will be pleased to sell you anything in the musical line: pianos, piano-cased organs, stools, piano scarfs and fleecy-lined rubber covers, (what you need for your pianos at night during damp weather) instruction books, piano and organ boxes, gramophones and phonographs and their records. "cut out" by these professional gentlemen.

E. A. Long, the contractor and builder, was down from Ashland Thursday.

W. C. Daley, of Lake Creek, was registered at Hotel Nash Wednesday, as was also L. Tonn, of Butte creek.

J. R. Dent left Thursday for Hornbrook, where he has mining interests, and where he will remain for a few weeks.

Wm. Bateman returned last week from a several months' sojourn in Idaho and Washington, in which states, he says, there was nothing doing. Mrs. Bateman will return in a few weeks.

E. J. Ellison, traveling salesman for the Palm-Whitman Olgar Company, returned this week from a tour of northern Oregon towns. He reports business in his line very brisk and as a result of his efforts many orders for goods were turned in.

W. Eaton returned last week from Galls creek, where he has been engaged in building a dwelling house for Mrs. Lawrence. He expects to leave soon for Albert Lea, Minn., whither he goes to look after the affairs of a brother, who died a few months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dunne left Thursday morning for Ft. Jones, Calif., where they will reside. Mr. Dunne recently traded his Medford property, near the Catholic Church, to Andrew Anderson for property in Ft. Jones. Mr. Anderson is a son-in-law of J. Meeker, and will move to Medford within a few months to reside.

Claud E. Jones, of Marion County, Iowa, arrived in Medford Monday and will visit for some time with his brother, Dr. W. S. Jones, and family. The doctor is expecting his father and mother to arrive here from Iowa within four or five weeks. They will remain during the winter—and for all time if the doctor's persuasive powers are of sufficient weight.

J. W. Loshier was down from Ashland Sunday. He is still with the Southern Pacific bridge gang. Ralph, he says, is breaking on a passenger train between Ashland and Dunsmuir, but will probably go back onto a freight run again, because of the fact that there are no promotions for a passenger brakeman, while with the freight run there are chances to climb higher.

Prof. W. A. Wann, who has been in Jackson County for several weeks doing business in the interest of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, and the Bankers' Life, of Des Moines, left Saturday for Eugene, where he will remain for a couple or three months, returning to Southern Oregon in early spring to resume his work here. Mr. Wann is a fine gentleman and has adopted a new method of working life insurance—the same being upon the hypothesis that the victims of agent attacks are capable of deciding for themselves whether they want life insurance—in other words he has reduced the boring capacity of the ordinary agents' auger—and the public is grateful therefor. The companies he represents are good ones and because of this and his considerate way of doing business he wrote many policies while here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Callahan and Mr. and Mrs. James Stall, all of Grand Forks County, North Dakota, arrived in Medford last week. Mr. Callahan has recently sold a large farm in North Dakota and will invest part of the proceeds therefrom in Jackson County soil. Both himself and his good wife are well pleased with our valley and have not as yet expressed a regret because of their coming here—nor do we think they will. People who have experienced the inconvenience of North Dakota blizzards, cyclones, dust storms, drouths and "frozen up" thermometers are not "hankering" for an opportunity to get back there when they are enabled to once get away. Mr. Callahan tells that when he left North Dakota, last week, the ground was frozen solid and so intense had been the frost that the ground was cracked open several inches in many places. There had also quite an amount of snow fallen. If this country proves to his liking his two sons-in-law will come here as soon as they can sell their lands in North Dakota. He says there are eighteen families in all that are figuring on coming to the Rogue river valley, and if they come, Oscar Carpenter, of Medford, is responsible for it all, he having previously lived in that country and has been sending Oregon bouquets into that blizzard land for several years past. Mr. and Mrs. Stall will return to North Dakota after a few weeks and if they can dispose of their section of land there they will return here and anchor for keeps.

Mrs. J. R. Wilson, who has been ill with nervous prostration for some time, is considerably improved, we are pleased to note.

AN EASTERN Exchange thinks it is time that the people of the United States should make a concentrated effort to pronounce the name of the president properly. Each man in the country has a way which he thinks is correct, but there is only one way to pronounce it. It is not hard to remember and is pronounced just as the following spelling indicates—P-o-e-z-e-v-e-t. This is official and authentic. Next time you hear a man call him "Rusevelt" or "Roosevelt" inform him of the proper pronunciation, and then if he persists in getting it wrong you are at liberty to out him from your acquaintance.

Settle Up Notice.
As I have sold out my business in Medford it becomes necessary that all my book accounts be settled at once. During my absence of a few weeks accounts may be paid at the office of City Recorder York, or to Mr. J. H. Butler, I. A. WEBB.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

—I. A. Webb, who, with his son, Carl, left Medford a couple of weeks ago with team for Southern California, was taken suddenly ill at Baird's Spur, a small station below Dunsmuir, Monday night with hemorrhage of the bowels. Tuesday morning a telephone message was sent to Mrs. Webb in this city, advising her of her husband's illness, and she left on the noon train that day for the above named place, accompanied by Dr. Piekol. When they reached Dunsmuir they received a message to the effect that Mr. Webb had been put on the northbound passenger train, bound for home, and would meet them at Dunsmuir. The party reached here Wednesday morning, since which time Mr. Webb has had several more hemorrhages, but as we go to press we learn that he is resting easy and seems very much improved. This is his third spell of sickness of like nature and strange to relate they have all occurred during the month of November.

—M. M. Gault met with a serious and painful accident last Thursday. He was at work at the turning lathe in his machine shop when the end of his right thumb caught in the machinery and was almost torn off at the first joint. There was no one near to shut down the machinery and the only way possible for Mr. Gault to extricate his hand from its perilous position was to cut off the thumb entirely, which he did with his pocket knife. It was a nifty piece of business but it saved his whole hand from being mangled. Drs. Jones & Shearer dressed the wound and it is getting along all right, but it will be weeks before he will be able to work.

—The Fraternal Union of America is preparing for a rousing old time November 23d, when their supreme secretary, Col. Handley, will be with them. There will be a public lecture in the opera house at 7:30 on that evening, also a musical feast by Prof. and Mrs. Boffa and a recitation by Miss Mae Merriman. After the lecture the fraternal will adjourn to their lodge room to initiate fifteen or twenty candidates, after which will follow one of the elegant spreads for which this union is noted.

—Shakes for Sale—$4 and $7 per 1000, two and one-half miles north of Medford. W. J. Prall.

—J. A. Merriman is going into the business of raising chickens quite extensively. He has an incubator and brooder and now has nearly 200 young chicks which he will put on the local market as soon as large enough for "friers." He will put his incubator to work again in January and proposes keeping it busy during the entire season. He is also shipping in several pairs of blooded fowls from the east.

—New line of wall paper at the Medford Furniture store.

—Wesley Dial has sold his place in West Medford, corner Ninth and I streets, to Patrick Daily, father of School Superintendent Daily. The price paid was $800. Mr. Dial has not determined just where or in what he will reinvest, but it will not be a great ways outside the incorporate limits of Medford. Mr. Daily will make this property his permanent Medford residence. This deal was made by Real Estate Agent York.

—Real Estate Agent York is offering some bargains in real estate in another column of this paper.

—A very pleasant dancing party was given at the opera house Tuesday evening. There were about twenty couple in attendance. Music was furnished by the Carver orchestra. Another party will be given at the same place on Tuesday evening, November 26th. It is expected a series of parties will be given during the winter at intervals of two weeks.

—Died—At Boulder, Colorado, on November 7, 1901, of consumption, Edwin Everett Hoag, aged 28 years. He was the son of E. A. Hoag, of this place, and spent part of his boyhood with his father in this valley. He leaves a wife, father and sister, as well as many friends, to mourn his loss.

—Wall paper, very latest patterns, at the Medford Furniture store.

—J. D. Callahan, who arrived here this week from North Dakota, has purchased the Mrs. E. A. Ward property in West Medford. There are two and one-half acres in the chunk and it is well set to fruit. The price paid was $700. Real Estate Agent Stewart made the sale.

—There is a case of smallpox at Lakeview and came from Bly, Klamath County. The Lakeview physicians have passed on the case and all have declared it to be smallpox, but in a mild form. It is called Manila itch at Klamath Falls but it is so closely akin to smallpox that the distinction between them seems hardly discernible by physicians.

—Apples, 25 cents per sack, at the Olwell orchard, Central Point. Come at once, before they are picked over.

—Ed. Miller has a beetle pickled in alcohol. This little pickling act, however, was a mistake on Ed's part. It was a tarantula he supposed he was preserving, but if beetles do not want to be pickled they should keep off of banana stalks. This is the story George Porter is telling but Ed relates that Porter "chipped in" on the purchase of the "alkie."

—Col. John L. Handly, of Denver, Colorado, supreme secretary of the Fraternal Union of America, will deliver an address at the opera house Saturday evening, November 23, under the auspices of the order F. U. of A. A short program Everybody invited.

—You get a fine piece of graniteware with each can of baking powder purchased of Chessmore & Myers.

—Little Gladys Heard was unfortunately in injuring her arm while at play on the school grounds last Thursday. It is the same arm that was broken a couple of years ago, and the present injury is of such nature that there is danger of serious results.

—Ground bone, oyster shells, oil meal, Manhattan Stock and Poultry Food, condition powders and insect exterminator for sale at Chessmore's.

—Wm. Ferguson, all the same Bill Nye, has purchased the Barnum building, corner Seventh and South A streets. He expects to rent it for a second hand store, but this he will not do until February, at which time Mr. Chessmore's lease expires.

—It was told THE MAIL this week, by a party who is supposed to know, and who alleges that he does know, that inside of three years the Southern Pacific will be at work on the much talked of cut off from Canyonville to the head waters of Evans creek, and that the Cow creek canyon will be cut out.

—Klamath Falls papers insist there is no smallpox in their town, but private advices are to the effect that it does exist there and is quite plentiful, although the cases are not considered dangerous.

—W. T. York has real estate bargains—and good ones—see his list elsewhere in this paper.

—Elsewhere in today's paper appears a tribute to the late Hon. Henry Klippel. It contains some historical facts not generally known, and, as a whole, will be found to be interesting reading.

—Attorney W. H. Parker writes from Oakland, Calif., saying that Mrs. Parker's health is improving and that they are nicely situated near the dividing line between Berkeley and Oakland.

—Married—On November 14, 1901, at the Presbyterian manse, Mr. R. R. Guches and Miss Gladys Hillman, both of Griffin creek, Rev. Adolph Haberly officiating.

—Died—In Salisbury, Mo., November 14, 1901, Mrs. Anna Haberly, mother of Rev. Adolph Haberly, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of this city.

—Read W. T. York's real estate bargains in another column of this paper.

—In just six days, from November 6th to November 12th, ten carloads of cattle, eight of fruit and two of hogs were shipped from Medford.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Taylor are parents to a new girl baby which came to their home on Thursday of this week.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Wait was taken seriously ill Wednesday with heart trouble. Her condition was somewhat improved yesterday.

—A little girl baby came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Eisenhart on Friday of last week.

—Wm. McCredie, we are informed, will have the superintendency of the DeHart fruit farm another year.

—Mrs. J. W. Lawton is quite ill with typhoid fever, as is also Electrician Gurnea's son.

—Rev. F. Sack held religious services at Grants Pass Sunday.

Meeting of City Council.
An adjourned meeting of the city council was held on Thursday evening of last week.

The bond of Recorder W. T. York for $1500, with H. G. Wortman and H. E. Boyden as sureties, was approved.

The city engineer's report was read and accepted. He reported that during the months of September and October seventy-four cords of wood had been consumed, a daily average of a little more than one and a fifth cords.

Petition of E. C. Boeck and others for street lights was referred to light committee.

City attorney was instructed to draft an ordinance permitting property owners on south side of West Seventh street, between F and G streets, to put down twelve-foot sidewalks, to be constructed of either plank or cement. (Messrs. Thomas and White will put down a cement walk in front of their new brick building which is in the district above described.)

The city treasurer was instructed to transfer $1000 from the general fund to the electric light fund.

An ordinance was passed dividing the city into three wards, as follows: First ward—all of that portion of the city lying east of C street; second ward—all of that portion lying west of C street and south of Seventh; third ward—all of that portion lying west of C street and north of Seventh.

Carl T. Jones was nominated and elected councilman to fill the vacancy made by the death of Mr. Klippel.

Street committee instructed to cause the watering trough in front of the Halley house to be removed, and the gutter in front of Messrs. Halley's and Wilson's property be made to conform with street grade.
