

OUR COUNTY Correspondents

Eagle Point Eagles.

BY A. C. HOWLETT.

S. A. Carlton was in town last week looking after his property interests.

Dr. Fletcher will be at Eagle Point Jan. 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th to do dental work.

Miss Julia Ayres, a student at the Medford Academy, is spending the holidays with her parents.

James Ringer and family have moved into the house which he recently purchased from E. Pool.

Jerry Heckathorn has opened a barber shop in the building formerly occupied by A. J. Daley as a store house.

Miss Nettie McGee came up from Josephine County last week to visit her brother, O. P. McGee, and family. She expects to visit relatives in Ashland next week.

Quite a number of our citizens went to Central Point last Wednesday to attend the mask ball and to visit relatives. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Officer and J. P. Brown.

Miss Clara Richardson, our primary teacher, and Miss Lottie Taylor went to Central Point last Saturday, and from there to Medford on Sunday, the former to meet her sister and the latter to have some dental work done.

Mrs. J. J. Fryer, who has been etopping in Central Point for some time so that her grandson, Austin Green, might receive medical treatment, has returned to Eagle Point, while Austin has gone to California, where his father resides.

A. Pool, owner of the blacksmith shop here, has bought a new set of tools and wants to secure the services of a good smith to use them. There is a good opening here for a blacksmith as there is a great deal of horseshoeing to be done.

Rmanuel Pool sold his blacksmith tools last week to Thomas Henderson, who took them to his father-in-law's farm, north of here. Mr. Pool and family have moved into the house formerly occupied by John Smith, on the D. P. Mathews place.

W. R. Potter went to Ashland last week to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Susan Jane Potter. Mrs. Potter formerly lived in this neighborhood but moved to Ashland with her husband and children several years ago. She was seventy-two years, ten months and eighteen days of age.

Eli Ellis and son, Henry, returned Saturday from Ashland, where they had been for the past week. When they went up there they took with them two onions, raised by A. L. Haselton and weighing two and one-half and three pounds, respectively. The size of the onions was somewhat of a surprise to the people there, but when we assure them that there were thousands of pounds of the same kind raised here last summer they will marvel still more.

Our Christmas tree entertainment proved to be a grand success. The exercises were opened with an address by A. C. Howlett, after which the young folks entertained the audience for a while. When the tree was lighted there was revealed the finest lot of presents that have been seen here for a number of years. There was also a tree at the residence of A. Letcher, where a few of the neighbors assembled and spent the evening. William Smith, living on Rogue river, also reports that they had a tree at his residence and that quite a large crowd met there and had a good time.

There is a class of people who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over 1 cent much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15 cts. and 25 cts. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

Big Sticky Items.

BY PECK'S BAD BOY.

Mrs. Poole visited with her aged mother, Mrs. Evans, one day last week.

Al. Turpin spent a day recently with his sister, Mrs. Laura Wyland, of Wellen.

Mr. and Mrs. Lane Wyland and children spent last Sunday at H. C. Turpin's.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Owens and children were guests at Calvin Owens' last Sunday.

J. B. Montgomery furnished the turkeys for the raffle at Central Point Christmas day.

A few of the Big Sticky young people attended the ball at Central Point Christmas night.

Miss Bessie Turpin spent a few days recently with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Turpin.

W. W. Gregory spent Christmas at Ashland. He attended the ball at Phoenix Christmas eve and the one at Ashland Christmas night.

Some of our young people attended the Christmas tree exercises at Eagle Point on Christmas eve and report having had a very nice time.

Mrs. Al. Turpin and her cousin, Mrs. Chas. Heimroth, took the excursion train to San Francisco and will go from there to Healdsburg to visit Mrs. Turpin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Payne.

Mr. Editor, you and your readers must excuse the Bad Boy for sometimes sending stale news. But there is no postoffice near and the roads get so sticky that the "boy," although a bad one, dare not venture over them on his untrained bronco, so consequently cannot mail his letters very regularly.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith royally entertained a few of their friends on Christmas day. The time before dinner was passed very pleasantly in social conversation, and promptly at one o'clock dinner was announced—and such a dinner! The table fairly groaned with the good things prepared by the kind hostess. It would take up too much space to mention the whole bill of fare, but the savory oyster soup and rich pineapple pie were too good to pass unnoticed. Among those who enjoyed this good couple's hospitality were Mrs. Poole and son, Irvin, Mrs. E. J. Roberts, Miss Nellie Roberts, Mrs. Lulu Perry and little daughter, Nellie, and E. G. Roberts.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedy at Chas. Strang's. Get Green's Special Almanac.

Kanes Creek Items.

BY SINE DIE.

Miss Mae Noe spent Saturday in Gold Hill.

Ed. Swinden made a business trip to Jacksonville Friday.

Mrs. Elta Bean and children leave soon for California to join Mr. Bean.

Ed. Roten, who has been prospecting on Applegate, came home to spend the holidays.

Mr. Noah, of Gold Hill, is employed in the Agner & Flannagan mine in this district.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gray, of Medford, were visiting relatives here the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Simons, of this place, attended the mask ball in Gold Hill Christmas eve.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards, of Talent, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Chandler at the Braden mine.

Mr. Winders, of Grants Pass, came up a few days ago and is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Nutt. Mr. Winders is Mrs. Nutt's father.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Stanley, of Roxy Ann precinct, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cottrell, of Medford, were in attendance at the Nichols dance.

Will Chapman, who has been absent in California for some time, has returned home and is employed at the Agner & Flannagan placer mine, on Kanes creek.

The dance at Elmer Nichols' last Friday night was a grand success both socially and financially. A large crowd was in attendance, there being over forty-five numbers sold. The supper was excellent and highly spoken of by all in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Swinden gave a dinner Christmas to a few invited friends and all report a delightful time and an excellent dinner and the only regret that is felt by the merry company is that Christmas doesn't come oftener. Those present besides the family were Mr. and Mrs. Higginbotham and family, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and daughter, Miss Dollie.

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annetto, Hay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly ward off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. Sold by Charles Strang, druggist.

Phoenix Items.

The ball Christmas eve was quite a success.

Orin Bishop is spending the holidays with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edsall, of Sisson, Calif. are with us again.

Mrs. Walcott, of Medford, visited her mother, Mrs. Smith, here on Christmas.

Elder Brownrigg is on the sick list and may not be able to preach for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hunter were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Brownrigg last Sunday. They expect to leave for California about the first of January.

We notice on cards and banners in bright letters the unchristian abridgement "Xmas." It seems that some one was trying to blot out that name which is above all other names. This ought to have been counted a misdemeanor and the man dealt with accordingly who invented it.

REMARKABLE CURE OF CROUP.

A Little Boy's Life Saved.

I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steer of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth today.—Joel Demont, Inwood, Iowa. For sale by Charles Strang, druggist.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure backache, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phebe Charley, of Peterson, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and although 73 years old, I now am able to do all my housework." It overcomes constipation, improves appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c at Charles Strang's drug store.

STRANGE RITUAL MURDER.

Capital Crime Committed by Man in Germany Under Singular Circumstances.

A German named Lebedeer, serving in the French foreign legion, has told a strange story about a ritual murder to the officers of a court-martial assembled at Oran in Algeria, says the London Telegraph.

The soldier was being tried for having made away with his military effects, and he excused himself by stating that he was preparing to desert, as he was afraid that he was about to be arrested as the man who killed and cut up a young Catholic student named Worsner, at Koenitz, about two years ago. This was a case of what is known as ritual murder, and it caused much sensation at the time of its perpetration.

Lebedeer's story is that he was out of work one day at Koenitz and a man offered him money to accompany him to a synagogue. There he saw some masked men, who ordered him, under pain of death, to kill a young student who was asleep in the place, and who had evidently been drugged. Lebedeer had to do what he was told. He cut up the body, and the blood was drained into a silver basin. When all was over Lebedeer was paid, and was told that whenever he wanted assistance he had only to present a sealed letter given to him by the masked men to any Jews whom he should meet. He used the letter at Breslau and at Frankfurt-on-the-Main, and then entered French territory. Fearing arrest he joined the foreign legion. Lebedeer was condemned by the court-martial to six months' imprisonment and a magistrate has been appointed to see if his extraordinary story can stand verification, or if it is merely told for the purpose of avoiding military punishment.

DANISH EXPORT OF EGGS.

There Has Been an Immense Growth of the Trade Within Five Years.

In 1925 we scarcely knew Denmark as an egg producer; but in that year was founded the first Danish cooperative society for the export of eggs. The same system which had succeeded with butter was now to be applied to eggs, says the London Mail. The country was divided up into districts; each district had in some railway station a collecting depot, and all members of the society were bound to deliver three times a week at the depot. The depot agent refused, or had a right to refuse, all eggs more than four days old, and every producer of each district had a distinctive number branded on the egg. Thus, in the event of an egg proving bad, the depot which shipped it would be proceeded against, and by means of the distinctive number the depot agent would be able to detect the producer, on whom the loss would finally fall.

By thus guaranteeing absolute freshness and making good any occasional loss, the Danes established a high standard, and so created a continuous demand. And what is the result? In 1929—the first year of the experiment—there were established six local egg societies, with an aggregate of 2,000 members; in 1930 there were actually no fewer than 837 separate cooperative societies, with a total membership of 130,000 producers! It is surprising that Denmark should send to England alone 300,000,000 of eggs annually.

MORGAN'S GIFT TO ART.

New York Banker Presents to Metropolitan Museum a Valuable Collection of Greek Ornaments.

In the most informal manner, J. Pierpont Morgan made a princely donation to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, of the New York city, the other day. It consists of a collection of ancient Greek ornaments, for which he is said to have paid $200,000.

The collection was bought from a London art dealer. One of the Rothschilds, it is said, was anxious to obtain it, but Mr. Morgan anticipated him.

The articles were wrought principally in gold, some of the ornamentation being in silver. Inscriptions on some of them show that they were made about 350 B. C., in Asia, where Ionian Greeks from Miletus had established a colony after that city had been sacked by the Persians.

In the collection is a gold-embossed mask of a young woman, with a Greek inscription of four lines in response work. The mask is in perfect condition. There is a large gold crown about four inches in length and eight inches in diameter. A heavy gold necklace of beautiful Greek workmanship has ten golden amorphous as pendants and a large mask as a centerpiece. The necklace is in fine granulated work.

The other articles are a gold and silver spiral wreath of unique design and in perfect condition, a large gold wreath of ivy leaves, two gold-winged statuettes representing musicians playing Pan's pipes, and a gold ram of monumental workmanship.

HAPPY MOTHERS

Whose Strength Equals Their Love.

Few women if any shrink from the passing pain of maternity. All they ask is to feel the child's heart beating against their own as they hold it in strong arms to the full fount from which it feeds. How rarely the mother's strength keeps pace with her love, a woman knows. When the baby is laid against a breast that cannot nourish it, and folded in arms almost too weak to bear the tiny burden. The woman who is strong and whose abundant vitality enables her to nurse her child and enjoy its care is looked upon as a marvel. She is considered an exception, peculiarly and specially endowed by nature. But the real marvel is not the strong woman but the weak one. She is the exception. The strong healthy woman is nature's type. She shows what every woman ought to be and what almost every woman may be by the use of proper means.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. The record shows that of the hundreds of thousands of women who have used "Favorite Prescription" ninety-eight per cent. have been absolutely and altogether cured. The other two women in each hundred for whom no complete cure was possible, have in general acknowledged a great improvement in their condition; headaches less frequent and less painful, backache greatly diminished; able to resume again the care of the household and take pleasure in social life. That is the general story of the two per cent. of women who had found no help in any other medicine but have by the use of "Favorite Prescription" found relief and comfort.

But think of the great army, the ninety-eight per cent., numbering hundreds of thousands of women who have been cured perfectly and permanently. No more headache, no more backache, no more monthly misery. Pain is a thing of the past. These are the women who are fit for maternity, who will have strength to give the child they bear.

"I have intended for some time to write to you," says Mrs. Eva Burnett, of Russellville, Logan Co., Kentucky, "and give a testimonial in regard to what your medicine has done for me. My baby came in July, 1899, and I had congestive chills, and lay at death's door for ten long weeks. I was in a dreadful condition and had six of the best doctors in the city. After everything had been done and I had been given up to die I asked my husband to get me a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. He had no faith in it, but he got it, and when I had taken it two weeks I was able to walk to the dining room to my

WOMEN TESTIFY TO THIS.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription establishes regularity. It dries unhealthy drams, heats inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. Taken as a preparative for maternity it gives physical vigor and the mental courage which comes from a feeling of strength. It encourages the appetite, tranquilizes the nerves and induces refreshing sleep. It makes the baby's advent practically painless, and increases the flow of the nutritive secretion.

"I wish to advise the suffering women of this great land, of the good I have received from Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' writes Mrs. Mary Shappell, of Columbus Grove, Putnam Co., Ohio. "For four years I had been a sufferer from female troubles, and at times was unable to do even the housework for three in the family. I had such pains that I suffered almost death dozens of times, but after taking five bottles of your medicines I can truthfully say that my health was greatly improved. I have a good appetite and am gaining in flesh right along. This spring is the first time in five years that I have done my house cleaning all by myself and without the least fatigue whatever. I hope all suffering women may find relief as I have done."

"My gain in weight has been just ten pounds, and I am still gaining." Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence confidentially conducted and womanly confidences guarded by strict professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The offer of free consultation by letter made by Dr. Pierce is not to be classed with the misleading offers of free medical advice, made by those who have neither medical education nor experience. Anyone may offer "medical advice," but the medical advice of an unqualified person, either man or woman, is not only worthless but may be dangerous. As chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., with an associate staff of nearly a score of physicians, Dr. Pierce is enabled to offer to those who consult him by letter free, a medical experience and success which has no superior.

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription" and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and every other narcotic. This perfect freedom from all injurious ingredients makes "Favorite Prescription" the ideal tonic for nursing mothers and all weak "run down" women.

If a dealer tries to sell a substitute in place of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription it is because less meritorious medicines pay a little more profit to the dealer. If you want to be well you want to insist on the medicine which has cured other women. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

WHAT IT IS WORTH.

Annie Barnett, of Hinton, Fisher Co., Texas, says, "Will say I like my 'Medical Adviser' so much; it is worth its weight in gold."
