EASILY MADE HAPPY.

A New York Woman Who Finds Four Dollars a Yoar is Enough for Her Needs.

There is one woman in New York who is rich on four dollars a year and is an object lesson of content-ment in her daily life. She is Miss Emily B. Elwell, ward No. 57, almo-house, Blackwell's Island. The sim-ple needs of her existence are pro-vided for. She has a roof over het head, food enough to eat, and gar ments sufficient for the society is which she moves.

Three years ago, when she had it go to the almshouse, she had but one haunting fear-that she would fill a pauper's grave. That fear has been removed. The money from which hel moderate income springs will be am ple to bury her. Miss Elwell was a teacher in the New York public schools for 13 years Her life was exemplary, her mannel was gentle and ladylike, nobody disliked her, but she was unfortunate. She had no influential friends, and when anybody had to be dropped from the list of school-teachers, sht was the one selected. At last the time came when no place was open for her to teach in, and she was compelled to become an inmate of, the poorhonse. " The story of Miss Elwell's life be-came known to a sympathetic wom-an, whose name is a secret to Miss Elwell, and this nightmare of her ex-itionse istence was removed. This unknown friend put into the hands of the officers of the Interna-tional Sunshine society $100, to be deposited to the credit of Miss Elwell in a savings bank. The formet teacher was to have the interest or that amount each year, and the principal was to be used to defray the expense of her burial.

AMERICANS HONORED.

Five of Our Countrymen Get Medals from Royal Geographical So-cicty at London,

Dr. A. Donaldson Smith has re turned from London, where he attended the annual meeting and dia ner of the Royal Geographical soci ety, of which he is a fellow. The meeting was held at the Hotel Metro pole on May 20, and Dr. Smith shared with Duke d'Abruzzi, of the Italian royal family, the honor of receiving a gold medal conferred by the society for geographical research Gold medals are usually awarded at the annual meetings, but never more than two a year. Dr. Smith is the fifth American upon whom this honor has been con-ferred, says the Philadelphia Press The others who received the decoration were Elisha Kent Kane, Lieus

Greely, Lieut, Peary and Commission-er Rockhill, who is now in China. The two medals presented by the Royal society this year possess addi-tional value from the fact that they are the last to be struck bearing Queen Victoria's head. In the future the medals will bear the head of the king, who has become the patron and honorary president of the society.

WOLF SHOT IN BOSTON PARK. Animal Which Had Been at Large

for Two Years in Eastern City is Killed.

Officer Richardson, of the Boston park police, shot a gaunt female wolf in Franklin park, a resort frequented by thousands of people, late the oth-er afternoon. The animal was one of er afternoon. The animal was one of a pair of gray cubs that escaped about two years ago from the schooner Blinsin while it was moored at the foot of Congress street, in the city proper. About a year ago one of the wolves was seen in Franklin nash in a lades and an in Franklin park in a ledge, and an officer shot it. The mate was not seen until ten days ago, when several persons living in the vicinity of the park said they had been frightened by an immense gray dog hanging around their houses at night. The police concluded it was the missing wolf, and a watch was set, with the result that it was killed.
