Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Morris were down from the Fish Lake ditch Wednesday.

Mrs. I. F. Williams, of Central Point, was among Medford friends Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Merriman, of Talent, were visiting Medford friends Sunday.

W. W. Scott, of Central Point, was doing business in the Hub city Saturday.

Postmaster and Mrs. W. T. Reames came up from Gold Hill Tuesday morning.

Fred Weeks and his sister, Mrs. W. H. McGowan, visited Ashland friends Sunday.

Miss Icy March is visiting her uncle, W. J. Gregory, and family, in Mound preeluct.

J. G. Van Dyke was at Ashland Sunday upon a visit to his son, William, and family.

Mrs. J. H. Norris and Mrs. E. W. Calkins visited Jacksonville friends Monday evening.

J. A. Jonas, of Eagle Point, was doing shopping in the Rogue River valley metropolitan Saturday.

J. L. Gault, of Ashland, was in Medford last week upon a visit to his brother, M. M. Gault.

Merchant F. K. Deud returned Sunday evening from his quite extended business trip in the east.

Wm. Sablin, formerly salesman for the Allen & Gilbert piano company, has returned to his home at Eugene.

Wm. Perry, of Big Butte, was among our visitors this week—and THE MAIL will visit his home regularly hereafter.

H. D. Kubli, of Applegate, was in Medford Sunday, apparently on particular business, involving many private conversations.

Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, of Gzelle, Calif., and Mrs. F. Newberg, of Ashland, were visiting J. W. Mitchell and family last week.

F. X. Musty, of Spiceland, was a pleasant caller at The Mail shop Wednesday. Hereafter the gentleman will read the Mail and Oregonian.

F. V. Medynski is at Roseburg today making proof on his timber claim. His witnesses are Wm. Bates, of this city, and J. I. Patton, of Big Butte.

Traveling Salesman G. L. Davis was selling goods to Medford merchants this week, and juggling his family. Business in his line, he says, is getting better each trip he makes.

Merchant C. W. Walters and Prof. Carlock, of Talent-on-the-Bear, were in Medford Monday in attendance at a meeting of Talleman lodge, No. 31, K. of P., of which they are members.

Messrs Hinsley and Wilson of Portland, are in Medford representing the United Art Association of that city. They have a fine collection of pictures and report a very good business in this section.

T. L. Farlow was down from Lake Creek Wednesday.

Mrs. Conrad Mingus, of Ashland, was visiting her many Medford friends last week.

Mrs. R. T. Burnett, of Ashland, is visiting her mother, Mrs. L. J. Sears, of this city.

Jas. Swords and W. H. Young, of Spokane, arrived in Medford last week and are now out in the mountains investigating some copper propositions.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wells, of Gold Hill, were visiting Medford friends Monday. They remained over Monday night to enable Mr. Wells to attend the regular meeting of the K. of P. lodge, of which he is a member.

Geo. C. King, of Trail creek, was in Medford Monday after supplies. Mr. King is one of a party of five or six from Michigan who have located homesteads on unsurveyed land in the vicinity of Trail and Elk creeks.

Mrs. G. H. Thomas, of Seattle, is in Medford upon a visit to her brothers, J. W. and H. H. Mitchell, and families. The lady will remain a month or more and from here will go to northern California to visit other relatives.

Perry Stewart left last week for Portland, where on Monday last he commenced work in the Nicolai Bros. big sash and door factory. Perry is a whaling good workman and deserves the good position he has secured.

Merchant and Mrs. C. I. Hutchison left Monday for Los Angeles, Calif., where they will remain for several weeks enjoying that famous winter resort—where the seasons are very nearly one and the same the year 'round.

John Broad, of the Oregon Belle mine in the Applegate district, was in Medford on Monday of this week. He reports things moving along nicely at the mine, and says the "Belle" is producing its regular crop of the yellow metal.

W. H. Lee, of Santa Rosa, Calif., was a Medford visitor Saturday. The gentleman is head representative of the Bill Posters' Association and was here incidentally upon that business, but more particularly to visit the Halley boys, who are old-time friends of his.

Mrs. Nellie Newcome, of Oakland, Calif., is in Medford upon a visit to our good townsman, Frank King, and family. Mr. Newcome, husband of the lady named, is superintendent of the electrical block signal system of the Southern Pacific Company at Oakland.

Lester Childs returned from Seligman, Arizona, Tuesday evening, where he has been employed on the Santa Fe railroad. He says there are twelve inches of snow there and that it is too expensive to live there for the wages the company pays—hence his return to Southern Oregon.

N. E. Graves, a former mining man and engineer in the Applegate country, was in Medford this week upon business and to visit his many old-time friends. He is now residing at Yreka where he is doing mining engineering and is also opening up a good quartz proposition which he owns.

Harvey Richardson, of Trail, was in Medford last Saturday. The gentleman informed a MAIL representative that the directors of school district No. 35 were contemplating the incurring of a district indebtedness in violation of the law and that the legality of the issue would be contested. He doesn't say who would do the contesting but in all probability he is acquainted with the personnel of the contestants.

K. McFavish was in Medford last week. The gentleman is in the employ of the Southern Pacific company and is getting $4 per day, but he is figuring that there's a possibility that he will give up this job and engage in carpentering in Medford the coming summer, there being two or three big jobs upon which he is now figuring. Since leaving Phoenix he invested in city property in Oakland, Calif., upon which he will build dwellings for rent.

W. F. Kenfield, of Woonsocket, South Dakota, was in Medford Sunday and Monday. The gentleman is an attorney of considerable prominence in South Dakota and has accumulated a goodly amount of the world's chattels, and is now hunting the Pacific coast over for a suitable place in which to locate, not for the practice of law, but for the enjoyment of his wealth. He was very favorably impressed with our valley and there are good reasons to presume that we will see him again and that he will invest in property here, probably orchard land. If the country he is looking for is a climate that's not radical either way—just right the year 'round, where the land of plenty is overflowing and fruits of all varieties predominate, we will give him the word

L. G. Porter was over at Coles this week, having been called there upon matters appertaining to timber land and to meet eastern lumber men.

Resolutions of Condolence.

The following resolutions of condolence were passed by Olive Rebekah Lodge, No. 28, at its last meeting:

WHEREAS, Our Heavenly Father in his infinite wisdom deemed it best to remove from among us our beloved sister, Eugenia Lawton, and

WHEREAS, Our pleasant associations with her as a member of this lodge render it meet that we record a remembrance of her upon our records as well as our minds, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That by her death our society has lost a member whose removal leaves a shadow that will be deeply realized by all members of this lodge.

RESOLVED, That we as a lodge extend our deep sympathy to the bereaved relatives of the deceased and express a hope that so great a loss to us all may be sanctified to our good by Him who doeth nothing in vain, and commend them to the care of the Infinite Father who would fain be their strength and comfort now, and at last wipe away all tears.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be placed on the records of this lodge, a copy be furnished the city papers for publication, and a copy under seal of the lodge be forwarded to the bereaved family.

MINNIE CALKINS, CYNTHIA HOWARD, ETTA M. SHEARER, Committee.

They are Still in Business.

We are still in the real estate and insurance business, AND EXPECT TO STAY WITH IT!

We have a fine list of farming, orchard and alfalfa land. We also have a complete list of city and suburban property, buildings and lots of all sizes and prices to select from.

If you have property to sell or rent, or wish to purchase give us a call.

R. T. LAWTON & SON.

Resolutions of Condolence.

WHEREAS, Death has entered the home of our esteemed brother, J. W. Lawton, and took from him his beloved wife and companion, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the members of Medford Lodge, No. 83, I. O. O. F., extend to our Brother Lawton their sincere and heartfelt sympathy in this sad hour of bereavement; and be it further RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the MEDFORD MAIL, and also that they be spread upon the minute book of the lodge, and a copy of the same be sent to Brother Lawton.

buggles this week. There were thirty-one rigs in the car, mostly hacks and buggies. If this company does the business they did last season this is but a small starter for the season's trade.

—We want all the eggs we can get; cash or trade. H. H. Howard & Co.

—J. D. Eachus died yesterday morning at the home of his son-in-law, E. P. Bennett, north of Medford, after an illness of only a few days. Deceased was eighty-two years of age and came here from Newman, Calif., a year ago last fall, and has since made his home with Mr. Bennett. The remains were taken to Newman this Friday, morning by Bennett, where funeral services will be held and interment made.

—Flour, feed, hay and provisions always on hand. L. B. Brown, successor to Austin & Son.

—J. R. and J. F. Cook, J. B. Sells and J. D. Hooker took the first degree in the K. of P. Lodge last Monday night and D. B. Russell and E. A. Hicks the second. The grand chancellor commander will be with the lodge next Monday night and it is desired that there be a full attendance. There will also be work in one or two degrees.

—All kinds of sash and doors and screen doors, at lowest market price. W. Woods.

—The nine-year-old son of Mat Demmer had the misfortune to break the thigh bone of his right leg on the 9th inst. In jumping over a ditch the lad fell in such a manner as to break the limb close to the body. The fracture was reduced by Drs. Jones & Shearer, and the little fellow is getting along finely.

—Gentle pony for sale cheap, or will trade. W. P. Dodge, Medford.

—J. N. Bradbury, formerly a Medford young man, but for three years past a brakeman on the Southern Pacific in California, was unfortunate last week in having his hand badly smashed while "making up" a train in the Redding yard. He is a son of S. Bradbury, of this city.

—Call at Gurnea's for bargains.

—THE MAIL has information that the assessment books will be in Sheriff Orme's office today, Friday, and that after this date taxpayers may pay their taxes at any time during office hours. You will get a rebate of three per cent if you pay before the 15th of March.

—Apples—25 cents per sack. Olwell Bros.

—Among the articles of incorporation filed in the office of the secretary of state last week appear those of the Medford Drug Co., incorporators, A. H. Willett, Fronia D. Willett, Ivan Humason; capital stock $5000. Principal place of business, Medford.

—Carrriages and hacks repaired and painted at the West Side blacksmith shop.

—Rev. Adolph Haberly has been quite ill for several days with appendicitis. He is much improved at this time and it is thought that a surgical operation will not be necessary. Dr. Stephenson is in attendance.

—Sewing machines from $20 to $45—on easy payments. J. F. White, West Side, Medford.

—L. B. Brown has purchased H. D. Austin & Son's feed store, and will hereafter conduct the same. Mr. Brown is one of our most reputable citizens and that he'll do a good business goes without saying.

—Hon. Carl T. Jones, who has been quite ill for the past three or four weeks with pneumonia, has so far recovered as to be able to be about the city again. Dr. Pickel was the attending physician.

—Well rooted Black Melrose grapes; two years old; for sale at my vineyard on Jackson creek. C. D. Reed.

—Every man and woman in Jackson County, who can, should lo-e no time in filing on a timber land claim before the land is withdrawn and the act repealed.

—For Sale—Fresh milk cow. Wallace Woods.

—There will be second degree work at Odd Fellows hall on Saturday evening of this week. It is desired that there be a full attendance.

—Plows sharpened, pointed and laid in first-class shape. Purdin's blacksmith shop, B street.

—Don't forget about the K. of P. dance tonight, Friday—opera house—heap big time—Prof. Boffa's orchestra—tickets $1; spectators 50 cents.

—I still have a nice lot of China ware left at a bargain; also music instruments and folios.—Gurnea.

—E. S. Woller:—"I have secured the agency for the Rife Hydraulic Ram. With one foot fall I can raise water to a height of thirty feet."

—Coal—Best ever put on Medford market. Carload received direct from mines in the east. Mitchell & Boeck.

—Rev. S. M. Judd will preach at the Christian Church Sunday, February 23d, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend.

—J. W. Wiley shipped a carload of fat hogs to San Francisco Tuesday. The prevailing price for hogs is now $5 per hundred.

—Druggist Humason has rented the Peitz residence, in West Medford, but possession will not be given for about a month.

—A. N. Sallas, formerly of Jacksonville, has engaged in the practice of law at Welsler, Idaho.

—Miss Edyth Oranfill, who has been quite sick for the past few days, is improving rapidly.

Notice.

To WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—Notice is hereby given that C. T. Payne, of Jackson County, Oregon, has disposed of all his real and personal property and consequently is not responsible for any debts which he may contract. Neither will I be responsible for them.
