PURELY PERSONAL.

Miles Cantrall was in from Buncom Monday.
B. I. Stoner was up from Gold Hill Monday.
Prof. Carlock, of Talent, was in the city Sunday.
Royal Brown was in from Eagle Point Tuesday.
S. J. Richardson, of Beagle, was in the city Tuesday.
J. D. Heard left Sunday for a visit to San Francisco.
Miss Effie Welles was visiting Ashland friends this week.
Josh Patterson, of Talent, was a Medford visitor Monday.
Miss Ora Adkins was visiting Ashland friends this week.
Miss Estella Smith visited her parents at Ashland Tuesday.
Charlie Baker was at Grants Pass this week upon mining business.
Miss Mattie Taylor, of Eagle Point, was visiting friends in this city Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Morris were down from the Fish Lake ditch camps Tuesday.
L. A. Boggs, of Pittsburg, Pa., is among the many recent arrivals in Medford.
F. Osenbrugge was at Grants Pass this week making a shipment of dried prunes.
W. E. Spencer, of Klamath Falls, was registered at the Halley house Tuesday.
Life Insurance Agent Sherman was in Medford this week upon business in the interest of his company—the Penn Mutual.
S. B. Holmes, of Eagle Point, was registered at the Nash Monday, as was also the genial Joe Rader, from that same neck of tall timber.
Mrs. E. W. Calkins left Medford last Friday evening for Seattle, in response to a telegram announcing the death of her brother-in-law, W. F. Wing.
E. A. Jones, of South Whitney, Ind., arrived in Medford last Saturday and will spend the summer here. The gentleman is a brother of Mrs. C. C. Fletcher.
Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bethell, of Ottawa, Kansas, arrived in Medford Tuesday evening. These people are here looking over the country with a view to locating.
Mrs. E. W. Scott left Tuesday for Igorna, Calif., where she will pack her household effects preparatory to moving them to Medford, where herself and husband will reside.
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Griffin, of Woodville, are visiting Medford friends. Mr. Griffin devotes most of his time to placer mining near Waldo, but right now he is taking a few weeks' lay-off.
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hoyt, of Topeka, Kansas, left Sunday evening for Grants Pass, where they will visit relatives prior to their return to their home. Mr. H. is a brother of Mrs. T. W. Johnson, of this city.
S. D. Biden and daughter, Miss Violet, of Evans creek, were among Medford friends Wednesday. Mr. Biden reports that a considerable amount of snow has fallen in his section the past winter. His health, which has been poor for some months, is very much improved.

B. R. Moore, of Woodville, was a Medford visitor Wednesday.

Landlord Hamilton and son, Master Lorenzo, were at Ashland Wednesday.

Harry and Will Sondry, mining men at the Scott quartz mine on Applegate, were in Medford this week purchasing supplies.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Damon returned Wednesday evening from their winter's stay with their son, U. M. Damon, at Oroville, Calif.

Messrs. P. M. Kershaw and G. A. Dunlap left this week for the Waldo country, where they will do photography for a couple or three weeks.

Mrs. E. Brown left Medford last Friday for Walla Walla, Wash., where she will visit for several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coyle. Her visit at this time is occasioned by the quite serious illness of her mother.

Miss Mae Earhart, who has been postmaster at Ft. Wrangel, Alaska, for several years, returned to her home near Medford, on Tuesday of this week. The young lady has resigned her position and will reside here with her mother.

Messrs. Cook and Howland, Forest creek miners, were in Medford Wednesday, having brought in gold dust to the amount of several hundred dollars, from a recent partial clean-up. These gentlemen also own and operate placer mines on Jump-Off Joe.

Miss Hope Jenkins, who has been spending part of the winter in Southern California, stopped off in Medford last week for a few days' visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Howland. The young lady left Sunday evening for her home at Sberburn, Minnesota.

J. Court Hall, of Gold Hill, and his brother, Dr. Hall of Lakeview, left for the east Tuesday. They will visit their old home in Ohio and from there will go to New York City, from which place the doctor will leave for Europe, where he will finish his education. After a few weeks visit in New York Court will return to Oregon.

H. F. Treibel, of Everett, Wash., arrived in Medford Wednesday of this week. The gentleman will undoubtedly embrace the opportunity to possess himself of a timber claim while here and there is a probability that he will locate here permanently. He is desirous of getting away from the excessive rains of the Sound country.

Rev. B. C. Tabor, who, several months ago conducted religious services in Medford, was a visitor to our city Monday. The gentleman was in delicate health when formerly here, but he has since taken treatment and has almost entirely recovered. He is now located at Roseburg, where he has bought a home. His mission into Southern Oregon at this time is to pay a visit to his friends and followers of his belief—which is that of the Seven Day Adventists.

Will H. Stewart returned Sunday evening from San Francisco where he had been for two weeks undergoing treatment at the Lane hospital. The operation was that of skin grafting. This is the second operation which Mr. Stewart has had performed, and he feels confident that it is the last one which will be necessary. In this last operation pieces of skin nearly the size of one's hand was removed from one part of his body and grafted onto other parts.

Perry Stewart and O. S. Snyder returned Tuesday evening from their six weeks' stay at Portland and Vancouver, Wash., where, Perry says, they have been doing carpenter work between showers, but the showers came along too frequent to make his work profitable and he decided to again habitate the land where climatic conditions are more congenial and the between shower work is more than fifteen minutes at one time—and he's here to stay—ditto Mr. Snyder.

F. S. Gould, John J. Vis and Peter Anderson, of Grand Rapids, Mich., arrived in Medford last week and are now up in the hills looking up a suitable timber claim. They are friends of Geo. F. King, the timber locator, which fact gives them a good standing in this locality. Mr. Gould is manager of the Postal Telegraph Company in Grand Rapids and Mr. Vis conducts a stock broker's business in the same city. They are very favorably impressed with our city and may in the future become residents of Medford.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

—From the Eugene Journal:—John B. Rhinehart arrived here from his present home in San Francisco on the overland Tuesday night. He said that his son Eugene, has a good position in the freight auditor's department of the Southern Pacific railroad. Lillian and her husband reside at Coquille City.

—The Palm-York Company has fitted up office rooms in the rooms formerly occupied by George Kurtz's cigar factory. This is a very convenient location and a very pleasant place for prospective real estate purchasers to linger while the many virtues of the Rogue River valley are being extolled by the proprietors.

—Wanted—Girl to do office work. Prefer one used to typewriter. W. T. York.

—I. S. Morris has sold his farm on Griffin creek, consisting of twenty-two and one-half acres, to Thos. Lafrania, lately of Eau Claire County, Wisconsin, for a consideration of $850. The deal was made through M. Bellinger. Mr. Lafrania is here with his wife and child, and will take possession of his purchase at once.

—The Knights of Pythias boys gave another very enjoyable social and dance at Pythian Castle last Monday evening. The second degree work was given Dr. Ira Phipps after which the members and their wives or lady friends enjoyed a very pleasant evening with games dancing and general sociability.

—C. C. Gilchrist has a hog—of the female persuasion—which he claims is a record breaker. The animal is four years old and is parent to ninety-six pigs. Never at one time has she given birth to less than ten pigs, and the greatest number was fourteen. She is of the Poland China and Berkshire breed.

—THE MAIL is in receipt of a letter written by F. W. Lloyd, formerly of Medford, and a member of the G. A. R. Post of this city. Mr. Lloyd is now in Alaska and his letter tells of the lowering of a Russian flag on Washington's birthday. It will appear in these columns next week.

—C. D. Vincent, a member of the Fish Lake Ditch Company, is expected to be in Medford about the first of April, at which time arrangements will be made for further work on the ditch. Engineer McCray will also return to Medford about the first of April.

—J. D. Ross, a horse buyer, of Seattle, shipped fourteen head of heavy draft horses from Medford to the Sound city on Saturday of last week. The price paid for the horses varied from $70 to $150 per head. Mr. Ross also shipped three thoroughbred bulls.

—For Sale—Span of about 1000-pound mules, cheap. J. H. Thorndike, Medford.

—F. M. Wilson has improved the appearance of his new residence, on South C street, by enclosing it with a new and very pretty picket fence. When he gets the dwelling and fence nicely painted he will have a home to be proud of.

—Those who have visited the millinery parlors of H. A. Medynski & Co. are loud in their praise of the elaborate display of spring hats and millinery novelties, as well they have a license to praise, for it is indeed a place of much beauty and taste.

—Loren Damon and family have moved to Medford from the Wallace Woods ranch, near Central Point. Mr. Damon will operate the Barneburg place, east of Medford, the coming season and will soon move thereto.

—THE MAIL is buying halftone cuts made of orchard and fruit scenes near Medford. When these arrive this office will use them, together with descriptive matter, in printing letter heads for our customers about the city.

—All kinds of sash and doors and screen doors, at lowest market price. W. Woods.

—All members of the Medford Board of Trade who have not paid their dues are kindly asked to do so at once. Pay to the secretary, J. F. Lawton. Please do this at once, and thereby hasten the work which is before the board to perform.

—Messrs. Wilson & Russell have re-painted the interior of their Rialto confectionery establishment—and various other improvements are noticeable thereabouts.

—Merchant J. G. Taylor is having a new cement sidewalk put in this week. G. W. Priddy is doing the work.

—For several years W. R. Jones and his son, Wilbur, have made quite a success in growing wheat on their fine farm north and west of Medford, but they have decided to diversify their pursuits to some extent and have ordered enough Newton pippin apple trees to set out forty acres of land, and next fall the planting will be commenced. The thorough manner in which their grain farm has been handled is as good a guarantee as is needed for their success as horticulturalists.

—The brick block occupied by the Medford cigar factory, and belonging to G. W. Hamlin, was sold at sheriff's sale last Saturday to Ed. Wilkinson for $2675. The amount of the mortgage and costs was $2393.78.

—Electrician Gurnea has been busily engaged this week in installing electric lights in the M. E. church—an improvement in the lighting of the church which cannot fail of approval by the congregation.

—Celebrated Manhattan food for stock and chickens—at Medford Feed store.

—J. W. Miller has a foundation laid for a new residence which he is erecting on property purchased a few months ago from W. T. York, situated south from Mr. York's new residence.

—Last Tuesday evening was entertainment night with members of Chrysanthum circle and they had a most delightful time—as has always been the case when they have laid plans in that direction.

—Miss Gertie Johnston, we are sorry to learn, has been, and still is, quite seriously ill from paralysis of tongue and throat and nervous prostration. Dr. Stephenson is in attendance.

—Mrs. Slinger, who, a few months ago purchased the entire holdings of the Southern Oregon Pork Packing Company, has closed her meat market in this city.

—If you expect to vote at the coming June election you must register before May 15th. The registration of 1900 cuts no figure whatever with this year.

—E. E. Morrison, who now lives on the Naylor place, has purchased 150 acres of the old Gordon place, in that vicinity from Leo Burch.

—Said an Irish physician of a patient: "If he lives till morning he may pull through; but if he doesn't there is no hope for him."

—Next Sunday is Easter, and appropriate exercises have been planned for at all the churches of Medford.

EMMA NEVADA AT ASHLAND.

This World-Famous Prima Donna is billed for Ganiard's Opera House on April 8th.

The appearance of Emma Nevada, the greatest living lyric prima donna at Ashland, Oregon, April 8th promises to be one of the greatest musical events that has taken place in that city for some time, and hardly likely to be equalled for some time to come. The famous singer comes to us fresh from her European triumphs and in the very zenith of her powers. Her voice, one of the most exquisite ever given to mortal, was never more perfect than now. Mme. Nevada is the last great singer of the coloratura school and to hear her sing is a most valuable lesson in old Italian tone coloring and brilliant execution. The diva is ably seconded in the clever company she brings.

Pablo Casals is the favorite violinist of Paris and is given credit by the musical critics of the French capital with being one of the most wonderful masters of the instrument in the world. The pianist, Moreau, has been the musical idol of Paris for some time past. He is a handsome fellow and a superb player. He is also a composer of considerable reputation, his orchestral compositions being given by the leading orchestras of the Continent and Great Britain. Maquarre, the flutist, is also a Parisian favorite. He won the gold medal for his playing at the Paris Conservatoire. A program with four such celebrities on it is a rare treat, indeed, and an opportunity to hear classic music splendidly interpreted that is not often met with in any city.

This superb company will appear at Ganiard's Opera House, Ashland, Oregon, Tuesday April 8th. The Southern Pacific Railroad Company, upon application to the local agent will make a rate of one and one third fare for the round trip for parties of ten or more and Hotel Oregon will make liberal reductions to patrons of the concert. Seats on sale April first. Reserved seats $1.50 and $2.00; address all orders for tickets to E. F. Loomis, manager Ganiard Opera House, Ashland, Ore. Send draft, money order, or registered letter.

Married—Goble-Plymale.

On Tuesday evening of this week there was performed in this city the ceremony which joined in holy wedlock Dr. J. G. Goble and Mrs. Bessie M. Plymale, both residents of this city.

The ceremony was performed at the bride's residence, on North C street, by Rev. T. L. Crandall, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and in the presence of only a few of the interested parties' most intimate friends, they being Merriam and Mrs. D. H. Miller, W. F. Isaacs and Edgar Brown.

The bride was beautifully attired in a tailor made suit of grayish green broadcloth trimmed in pearl gray, while the groom wore the conventional suit of black.

Both the bride and groom are well and most favorably known in this city, and where they have friends in great number who are right now pleased because of this opportunity to congratulate two as popular young people as these truly are. The bride has grown from childhood in our midst and is as fine a lady as a Medford root ever sheltered. The groom is a practical optician and has been a resident of Medford for several years and has many warm and steadfast friends.

The happy couple left Wednesday morning for Grants Pass, where they will remain for about a month, afterwards returning to Medford, where they will reside permanently.

THE MAIL, extends its heartiest congratulations, and coupled with these is a wish that their lives may always be rose-hued, happy and prosperous.
