ON THE WEBER PIANO

Read what Madame Nevada has to say for the beautiful Weber Piano placed at her disposal in her apartment in the Hotel Oregon by the Coos Piano House, of Medford, during her stay in Ashland.

The following is a personal note to Mr. H. M. Coos thanking him for his courtesy:

Ashland, Ore., April 7, 1902.

THE COOS PIANO HOUSE:

Dear Sir: It was very kind of you to place a fine Weber Piano in my rooms and certainly I would have used it to-morrow night at my concert had my manager not already arranged for another.

Thanking you for this very soft, beautiful toned piano, I am sincerely yours,

EMMA NEVADA PALMER.

More Weber laurels. Read what Madame Katharine Fisk, the famous contralto, says of the Weber Piano:

March 21, 1902.

ELIERS PIANO HOUSE, Portland, Oregon.

Dear Sir: I have nothing but praise for the beautiful Weber Grand which you placed at my disposal for last night's concert. It was truly a delight to me, and the broad singing tone—such a fine support and background for the voice.

I am also indebted to you for the Baby Weber upright which I have here at the hotel, and which gives the most perfect satisfaction. I am, believe me, very truly yours,

KATHARINE FISK.

The Coos Piano House of Southern Oregon is the sole agent for this wide famed piano, beside many other favorite makes of pianos.

Be sure to see these pianos or correspond with Mr. Coos before buying, as this favorably known piano house does not mislead the people by advertising the makes of pianos they do not handle, nor was it ever guilty of forcing a cheap inferior make of a piano before the public for a noted artist to perform on. We are always prepared to furnish public entertainments with first class high grade pianos at reasonable rates.

H. M. COOS.

Thomas Building, West Seventh Street

—N. S. Hallcroft, of Portland, has been appointed by the Baptist Association as a missionary in the church and Sunday school work for that association in Jackson county. The gentleman will make Medford his home and expects his family to arrive within a couple of weeks. He is a splendid gentleman to meet and is said to be a very able and earnest worker in the cause of Christianity and the general betterment of mankind.

—If the drymen of the city who have previously handled the street sprinkler want to keep in good favor with the merchants of this city, they will at once get around with their little wagon and proceed to make mud of some of the dust now flying about the streets.

—All kinds of sash and doors and screen doors at lowest market price. W. Woods.

—H. L. Gilkey has sold his residence in West Medford to H. M. Coos for $1800. This is a good piece of property and Mr. Coos is to be congratulated upon having acquired it. He will take possession about June 1st.

—Chas. Carney is beautifying his West Medford residence by the application of new paint. Millard Filmore Parker is the gentleman on the job who is keeping the paint brush bristles heated to a temperature of about 110 in the shade—and works overtime to catch up on the lost moments spent in jolly all passers-by.

—Uncle Thomas West has so far recovered his health as to be able to be about the city again. Uncle Thomas is one of the early residents of our city and none is more pained than he is when confined to his home.

—H. N. Marey is again in possession of the West Side blacksmith shop, and in another column of this paper he is advertising to the public that he is prepared to do all kinds of blacksmith and wagon work in first class shape.

—Miss Martha Cardwell has resigned her position as teacher in the Klamath Falls schools and left this morning for her home near Medford.

—Klamath Falls Express.

—Next Wednesday evening will be regular Board of Trade meeting night. Matters will come up at this meeting which will be of great interest to the city and there should be a large attendance.

—Fresh milch cow for sale. J. Mosher, Medford.

—J. B. Dugan has sold 200 acres of his Sams Valley farm to Geo. Riley for $5,500. The deal was made through Sam'l McClendon's real estate agency in Gold Hill.

—W. F. Taggart is improving the appearance of his residence, corner A and Seventh streets, by the application of paint. Messrs. Ling & Boardman are the brush artists.

—Guy Lawton has taken a position as butcher for the Pottenger & Cox meat market.

Thirt,-Eight New Arrivals.

When the south bound passenger train pulled into Medford Monday morning there was a great unloading of people at the Southern Pacific depot, and when all had alighted and had found their way to the depot waiting room that room was filled almost to its capacity. There were just thirty-eight of these new comers ranging as to ages from babes in their mothers' arms to gray headed men and women. They all came from Imperial, Nebraska, and most of them came with the intention of locating.

They were Peter Ensele and family, Fred Hackett and family, Geo. Huber and family and John Blass and family. In these four families are thirty-five people, and all are Germans. Aside from these there were of the party Mr. Wittle, T. Kelson, and Leo Evans, young men and unmarried.

It was last July that Mr. Peter Ensele visited Medford and surrounding country with an idea of locating. So well pleased was he with our country that he returned to his Nebraska home and at once began arrangements to move here this spring. This move on his part created an interest among his friends and the influx of Monday was the result. None of these people have bought property here but most of them put to when they shall have found something to their liking.

Mr. Ensele states that others will come here from Nebraska just as soon as they can make arrangements to do so. He puts up some very logical reasons for their making a change. One case he cites is of his own experience:—Last year he had quite an acreage sown to wheat and his yield was two and a half bushels to the acre; from 200 acres planted to corn the same season he harvested about 1400 bushels.

Since leaving Medford last July Mr. Ensele has been in correspondence with F. M. Stewart, real estate dealer in this city, and it was largely through information furnished by Mr. Stewart that the colony is now here.

Meeting of Presbytery.

The Presbytery of Southern Oregon met in the Presbyterian church, in this city Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. Rev. Dr. Towns, of Roseburg, presided, the opening sermon in the absence of the retiring moderator. Wednesday was taken up with business of the Presbytery. In the evening a popular meeting was held in the interest of missions. Rev. F. G. Strange gave an address on "Home Missions" and Rev. W. A. Smick spoke on "Foreign Missions."

The following ministers and elders were in attendance: Rev. W. S. Holt, Synodical Missionary of Oregon, Rev. W. S. Smith, of Oakland and Yoncalla, Rev. J. A. Townsend and Rev. W. A. Smick, of Roseburg, Rev. Chas. W. Hayes, of Grants Pass, Rev. J. E. Blair and Elder D. N. Fish, of Glendale, Elder S. C. Swagerty, of Woodville, Rev. S. H. Jones, of Jacksonville, Rev. F. G. Strange and Elder J. C. Whipp and J. Syd McNair, of Ashland, Rev. Adolph Haberly and Elder L. B. Warner, of Medford, Rev. W. S. Smith, of Oakland, was elected moderator. The Presbytery will meet in Glendale next October in connection with the Synod of Oregon.

Arrangements were perfected for the establishment of another church in Jackson County and for funds for the maintenance of a pastor. The church will be located at Woodville at which place the good people have very generously agreed to erect a suitable church building.

Proposal for Constructing Bridge for Jackson County.

Sealed proposals will be received by the County Court of Jackson County, at Jacksonville, Oregon, on or before the 7th day of May, 1902, for the construction of a bridge across Bear creek, at Medford, Oregon, to be substantially as follows:

Commencing 27 feet from the end of the present bridge on the west side of Bear creek construct a stone abutment, from hard pan with a base of 2 1/2 feet and 20 feet long and battered to 12 inches at top.

The top to be 12 inches lower than present bridge at that point. Thence an approach of 77 feet in length resting on suitable tubular iron, or stone piers of proper dimensions sunk to bed rock, or proper hard pan, enclosed 18 inches deep and 2 feet from either side in cement and gravel, and filled with first grade concrete. Thence east a span of 110 feet across main channel of creek, resting on proper piers. Thence east a span of 105 feet with same piers as before.

Said bridge to be not less than 18 feet clear roadway free of all obstructions and to stand a straining capacity of not less than 50,000 pounds dead weight.

Contractor to furnish the County Court with complete plan, with specifications of the proposed bridge with his bid, and also furnish a bond in sum of $500.00, that he will enter into bonds and sign contract within 8 days after being awarded the contract by the County Court for construction of proposed bridge.

Bidders to bid on bridge to be constructed eighteen inches lower than the present bridge.

If a truss plan is proposed, all angle blocks and washers are to be of cast iron and all rods to be stubbed up so when threads are cut the rod is still full size, and if bid is for wood bridge, then the contractor to furnish plan, and estimate, to cover the several spans by the lineal foot.

County Court reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

"I first used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in the fall of 1848. Since then I have taken it every spring as a blood-purifying and nerve-strengthening medicine."

S. T. Jones, Wichita, Kans.

If you feel run down, are easily tired, if your nerves are weak and your blood is thin, then begin to take the good old standard family medicine, Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
