BY A. C. HOWLETT.
Annual school meeting Monday, June 16th.

Last Tuesday Clayborn and Walter Williams, of Oregon City, stopped at the Sunnyside hotel. While here they visited the county seat and the Sterling mines in company with your Eagle Point correspondent. They left the first of this week for Derby to visit relatives.

Last Thursday your correspondent in company with the Williams boys, went to the Sterling mine, on Applegate, to take in the sights. We found the genial proprietor, Capt. Ankeny, superintending the work and he showed us the different things of interest about the mine. He is running a full force of men, night and day, twenty-four in all.

Last Thursday the family of Merchant George Brown had a family reunion. This was the first time the whole family had been together for fourteen years, the occasion being the celebration of Mr. Brown's sixty-ninth birthday. The following members and the children of their respective families were present: Mrs. Sarah Guiren, of Victoria, B. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holmes, of Central Point; Mr. and

Mr. Van Scoy was unable to be present but his place was filled by his friend, Mrs. Charlotte Shock. It was an occasion long to be remembered by the family and their many friends with many happy returns of a like occasion.

Our Sunday school went to Rogue river last Sunday for a picnic and we venture to say that every one present had one of the best times of their life. There were about forty present and when all were seated around the table for dinner it was one of the jolliest crowds ever assembled. The table was loaded with all the delicacies that the land affords and each housewife seemed to have tried to outdo the other in the preparation of her lunch. After dinner there were recitations by the children and Prof. Jonas recited the poem, "The Little Graves by the Willows," after which Rev. J. P. Moomaw and A. C. Howlett gave short addresses. Late in the evening all returned to their homes with a hope that they might attend another Sunday school picnic soon. Before returning Prof. Jonas took a picture of the entire company and one of the children standing on the banks of the river.

One Minute Cough Cure is the only absolutely safe cough remedy which acts immediately. Mothers everywhere testify to the good it has done their little ones. Group is so sudden in its attacks that the doctor often arrives too late. It yields at once to One Minute Cough Cure. Pleasant to take. Children like it. Sure cure for grip, bronchitis, coughs. Chas. Silver Lake's Sad Memory.

From the Portland Telegram.
Silver Lake is an eastern Oregon town whose people have not celebrated Christmas for seven years, according to Z. M. Brown, a Crook County stockman, who has just returned from that part of Lake County. An expensive monument standing in the village cemetery, he says, tells how forty-five residents of Silver Lake met a horrible death by fire through the upsetting of a coal oil lamp at a Christmas-tree festival seven years ago. That number of persons taken out of a small community leaves vacancies in the homes that will not be filled in this generation. Silver Lake will not permit a saloon license to be issued since that event, so it is the one absolutely "dry" town in the state. A drunken man overturned the lamp Christmas eve, 1895, that resulted in a tragedy which caused a thrill of horror to pass over the entire northwest and cast the county of Lake into deepest gloom.

A National Ailment

Is dyspepsia and indigestion, which is in reality catarrh of the stomach. The inner lining of the stomach of a person suffering with catarrh of the stomach is covered with a coating of unhealthy mucus, which prevents the proper flow of gastric fluid.

Stimulants to the gastric juice may give temporary relief, but as they do not remove the cause of the disease, they cannot effect a cure. The most reliable remedy on the market today is S. B. Catarrh Cure, which removes the cause of dyspepsia, indigestion, sour stomach, water brash, heartburn, palpitation of the heart and loss of appetite. It is for sale by all leading druggists. For sale by Medford Drug Company.

Book on catarrh free. Address Smith Bros., Fresno, Calif.

The British mule camp, which has been maintained in Lathrop, Mo., since May, 1901, during which time 90,000 horses and mules for use in South Africa have been handled, is to be moved to Toronto, Canada, immediately. Nearly all the British officers have already left, and the 2000 horses still there will be shipped to Toronto within a few days.

My little son had an attack of whooping cough and was threatened with pneumonia; but for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we would have had a serious time of it. AN OLD SORE months of diligent and faithful use of external remedies that the place remains as defiant, angry and offensive as ever. Every chronic sore, no matter on what part of the body it comes, is an evidence of some previous constitutional or organic trouble, and that the drugs of these diseases remain in the system; or, it may be that some long hidden poison—perhaps Cancer—has come to the surface and begun its destructive work.

The blood must be purified before the sore will fill up with healthy flesh and the skin regains its natural color. It is through the circulation that the acid, corroding fluids are carried to the sore or ulcer and keep it irritated and inflamed. S. S. S. will purify and invigorate the stagnant blood when all sediment or other harmful materials are washed out, fresh rich blood is carried to the diseased parts, new tissues form, and the decaying flesh begins to have healthy and natural look; the discharge ceases and the sore heals.

Several years ago, my wife had a severe sore leg and was treated by the best physicians but received no benefit. Our druggist advised her to try S. S. S., which she did. Fourteen bottles cured her and she has been well ever since.

Lonely in the Gallery.

Years ago our theaters did not have the large audiences they now have, and it was a common sight to see a house of "empty benches."

"I was employed at the gallery box office of one of the theaters," says a reminiscence Philadelphian, "and one stormy evening sold but one ticket, that to a boy about thirteen years of age, who rushed up to the window and asked if I thought he could get a good seat. I replied that I thought he could. I felt sorry for the little fellow and wondered how he would feel sitting in the gallery all by himself. After the first act was over I was aroused by a tap on the window and, upon opening it, saw my solitary ticket purchaser standing there with a very sad expression on his face.

"'Mister,' he said, 'I'm the only one up there, and it's so lonesome that I am afraid to stay. Would you give me another ticket, and I'll bring our gang around tomorrow night to help you out?'"

"I took the lad to the manager and explained the situation. That boy will neared the balance of the performance from a plush covered seat in the front row."—Philadelphia Times.

A Real Friend.

"I suffered from dyspepsia and indigestion for fifteen years," says W. T. Sturdevant of Merry Oaks, N. C. "After I had tried many doctors and medicines to no avail one of my friends persuaded me to try Kodol. It gave immediate relief. I can eat almost anything I want now and my digestion is good. I cheerfully recommend Kodol." Don't try to cure stomach trouble by dieting. That only further weakens the system. You need wholesome, strengthening food. Kodol enables you to assimilate what you eat by digesting it without the stomach's aid. Chas. Strang.

Banana Juice For Bronchitis.

The juice of bananas is recommended as one of the best remedies in chronic bronchitis with insufficient expectoration and marked dyspnea. A dram eight or ten times a day during the first days is usually prescribed, and later the dose can be diminished.

The sirip is prepared as follows: Cut the fruit in slices and place them in a jar; sprinkle with sugar and cover the jar, which is then enveloped in straw and placed in cold water, and the latter is heated to the boiling point. The jar is then removed, allowed to cool, and the juice is poured into little bottles.

Imitating the Music of a Cascade.

Certain tribes on the Amazon have been fascinated by the music of the waterfall. Musical instruments were found in use among them consisting of a complicated mechanism by which water was poured from one bowl into another, in imitation of the cascade, and then returned by the receiving bowl into the vessel which had poured it, so that by a repetition of this mechanism a constant murmur of a cascade could be kept up so long as the audience desired or the player was able to perform it.

The California Historic Landmarks League, at a recent meeting in San Francisco, decided to incorporate, and a constitution and by-laws were adopted. Dues are placed at the nominal sum of $1 annually, as the league desires to ensure the support of the entire state in its work of protecting the ancient missions and other historic landmarks from decay, and restoring them, so far as can be done consistently, without destroying their identity or confounding tradition. J. R. Knowland is temporary president. The organization will be perfected at the league's next meeting, on June 14.

Happy Time in Old Town.

"We felt very happy," writes R. N. Beville, Old Town, Va., "when Buck-Beck's Arnica Salve wholly cured our daughter of a bad case of scald head." It delights all who use it for cuts, corns, burns, bruises, boils, ulcers, eruptions. Infallible for piles. Only 25c. at Chas. Strang's drug store.

London's Postal Service.

So complete are the postal arrangements of London that there is not a house more than 200 yards from a letter box or 100 from a postoffice and money order office. There are over 10,000 pillar boxes (we call them letter boxes, which are cleared every hour from 10 in the morning till 5 in the evening, and there are twelve deliveries a day in the city.

YARNS FROM ERIN.

The Absurdities That Are Born of Irish Simplicity.

Here are a few samples of the absurdities arising out of the extreme simplicity of some Irish folk: A young man came to confess to an Irish priest in London whose experiences of the humors of his fellow countrymen would fill a book. "Well, my man," said the priest, "and how do you earn your living?" "I'm an acrobat, your reverence," the priest was nonplussed. "It show ye what I mean in a brace of shokes," said the penitent, and in a moment was turning himself inside out in the most approved acrobatic fashion in and out of the pews.

An old woman who had followed him to confession looked on horrified. "When it comes to my turn, father," she gasped, "for the love of God don't put a penance on me like that. It 'ud be the death of me!"

I think it was the same good father who, observing the regular attendance at a Lent mission had done nothing to reform one of his parishioners, told him so and asked him the reason of it. "Ah, father," he replied, "I can manage the faith right enough, but the morals bate me."

On another occasion this priest was called upon to marry a man of whom he knew nothing to a girl of his congregation. On investigation he found the would be bridegroom's knowledge of the Catholic faith very limited.

"Have you ever been baptized?" he asked. "Well, father, I can't trust me memory to that. 'Are your parents living?' 'The mother is.' 'Let's have her address.' This was given and a telegram dispatched to the old lady on the spot, reply paid. The answer came in due course, 'Vaccinated, but not baptized.'—A Kerry Man in London Spectator.

She Played the Tramp Card.

"How did she get here?" At a famous dancing assembly this was the quite audible comment made by several married belles when a beautiful young matron as yet on the outskirts of the exclusive set entered the room. The newcomer, whose first appearance it was, proved herself quite equal to the occasion. She had a nodding acquaintance with nearly every woman in the room. Some of them even went to her luncheon parties. Calmly turning to the most supercilious critic in the room, she echoed as though in reply:

"How did I get here? I drove here, my dear Mrs. Crossbeam. Did you walk?"—Lippincott's Magazine.
