J. H. Ray and daughters, Misses Lucy and Clara, and W. H. Jackson were up at the fish hatchery a couple of days this week.

Merchant and Mrs. W. H. Meeker, Mrs. W. B. Moore, Mrs. E. Brown and Mrs. Carrie Johnson visited in Ashland Tuesday.

Ex-Sheriff Orme left Monday evening for Cow Creek Canyon, where he has placer mines which he expects to soon put in operation.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hartzell and daughter, Miss Lulu, son, Herbert, and Bert Miller enjoyed an outing at Rogue river last Sunday.

A. M. Coney left Sunday for Glendale, where he will operate a wood saw for John Redfield, who has a big railroad wood sawing contract.

C. O. Ramsey, Geo. King and Guy Childers left Tuesday evening for a week's outing on the head waters of Trail creek and the Umpqua.

W. T. York left for Butte creek Wednesday. He will return today with his family, they having been camping up there for a few weeks.

Miss Emma Hawkins, after spending two weeks in Medford at the home of her uncle, W. H. Moore, left last Friday for her home at Des Moines, Ia.

Mrs. A. S. Bliton and daughters, Misses Loraine and Mildred, left Monday morning for a three or four weeks' stay at the famous Coletsin summer resort.

Miss Lota Holcroft left Monday for San Jose, Calif., to spend the summer with her brother, Leroy, who is connected with the Hayes music house of that city.

Mrs. Martha A. Johnson, accompanied by her grandson, John Lawrentz, left last Friday evening for Big Butte creek, where she will spend some time on her homestead.

L. F. E. Morelock, of Carlyle, Illinois, was in the valley this week upon a visit to the McPherson boys, and, incidentally, selling nursery stock for the Oregon Nursery Company, at Salem.

H. C. Mackey left Sunday morning for Cottage Grove for a visit with relatives, after which he and his wife, who has been visiting in the Willamette valley, will go to Portland for a several days' stay.

Miss Ella Dodge has returned to her school in the South Butte district, after a visit with home folk. The young lady has taught a three months' term in this district and is now starting in upon another term of equal length.

Mrs. Jessie Farnsworth returned Monday from Grants Pass, at which place she has been in attendance as trained nurse upon Roger Entriken, the young man who was injured while playing ball at Jacksonville a few weeks since. She reports the young man improving slowly.

Isaac Woolf left Tuesday morning for a trip to Crater Lake, as major domo for a party consisting of A. H. Shogren and daughters, E. F. Chaso, of Portland, and A. J. Johnson, the well known forestry expert of Astoria. They will visit the lake and return by way of Pollock Bay and Dead Indian road, taking in the huckleberry patch at Lake o' the Woods and all other points of interest along the route.

L. G. Porter and family left Wednesday for a few weeks' outing up on Rogue river.

Misses Lol Nichols and Mattie Taylor, of Eagle Point, were visiting Medford friends this week.

Miss Edyth Cranfill will leave Saturday for a visit with her aunt, Mrs. Fred Croxton, at Grants Pass.

Mrs. J. F. White and daughter, Zein, who have been visiting relatives and friends in Klamath Falls, returned home on Wednesday.

L. C. Raimy, a prominent stockman of Beagle, was in Medford over Sunday. Mr. Raimy has a "taken up" notice elsewhere in today's paper.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Morris, of Talent, were in Medford Monday. Mrs. Morris left that evening for a visit at her old home in Springfield, Missouri.

E. W. Carver was at Grants Pass over Sunday upon a visit to his brother-in-law, Fred Miller. Upon his return he was accompanied by Mrs. Carver, who had been visiting her sister for several days.

Merchant H. G. Nicholson and Dr. Bundy were up on Butte creek Saturday, at which place their families have been camping for a couple or three weeks. Mrs. Nicholson returned Sunday with Horace.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Jones, Charlie Gay and Miss Cora Bates left this (Friday) morning for Elk creek, where Mr. Gay has a homestead which he is holding down and where a two weeks' outing will be enjoyed.

Mrs. Geo. Herahberger, who has been in Medford to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith, and to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Marie, and Walter C. Hodge, returned to her home in Glendale last Saturday.

Mrs. E. W. Calkins and children, Mrs. Nellie Wing, Mrs. John Norris and children and G. A. Wiedenhammer, father of Mrs. Calkins and Mrs. Wing, go to Ashland creek Saturday, where they will camp for a month.

Chas. A. Roberts, of Klamath Falls, was in Medford last Friday for a short visit with his sister, Mrs. T. J. Goodwyn. Mr. Roberts was on his way home from Portland, where he has been a delegate to the state grand lodge, A. O. U. W.

Geo. F. King returned last Thursday from a two weeks' business trip into eastern Oregon. He was gone just twelve days and in that time he traveled over seven hundred miles. Mr. King left Saturday for Portland whither he went upon business.

W. K. Ingledue was down from Wimer over Sunday. He is desirous of selling his farm property, near Wimer, and is advertising it elsewhere in this paper. The amount of timber on the land is worth much more than he asks for the whole place, improvements and all.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Marley, of this place, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fisher, of South Whitley, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lusher and Engineer and Mrs. Helling, of Ashland, returned Friday from a several days' fishing and camping trip on Rogue river and Butte creek.

J. W. Berrian, superintendent at the government fish hatchery, was in Medford over Sunday. He reports all branches of work progressing finely. We were in error a couple of weeks ago in stating that the government sawmill will be run by water power. The operative power will be a steam engine.

John Williscroft and L. E. Middlebush, of Eagle Point, were in Medford last week upon business. Mr. Williscroft left Monday for Castlewood, S. D., where his children reside. He expects to return to Southern Oregon this fall and if possible bring his children with him.

Mrs. Finch, of Willows, Calif., arrived in Medford last week and will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. J. K. Darnell. Mrs. Finch tells that the weather in California is very warm, even for so torrid a climate as that state is noted for. Mr. Darnell says that when a Californian admits that the weather is tropical it has reached a point that would parboil and blister an Oregonian.

W. D. Beldeman, of Union, Oregon, was among his old-time Medford friends last Saturday. He has the Ashland-Klamath Falls stage line under contract for thirty days, but he can see no money in the line and will, in all probability, give up the contract at the expiration of the contract. Mr. Beldeman is the same old whole-souled fellow, and his friends like to see him often.

Theo. Dunn, he who was formerly a resident of Medford, now of Portland, was visiting old-time friends in the city last week. After leaving here Mr. Dunn and his family resided for a couple of years in Boston, coming to Portland about a year ago. Mr. D. has been prospecting in Josephine County for several weeks past and has succeeded in locating a fine quartz proposition which he expects to develop. Whole mountains of gold will be none too good a find for him and the wish of his many Medford friends is that he has found a good pay shoot.

Mrs. H. Pellett and children, of Ashland, were in Medford this week upon a visit to L. B. Warner and family.

Wm. McCredle, foreman at the De Hart orchards, and family left Wednesday for a two weeks' stay at Coletsin.

H. G. Meyers, one of Lake Creek's most prominent and successful stockmen, was in the city Saturday upon business.

T. H. B. Taylor was up from Woodville last week. The gentleman is preparing for quite an extended visit to Newport.

Miss Artie Bennett and her aunt, Mrs. Laura Bradley, left Tuesday morning for a visit with friends up Lake Creek way.

Mrs. Fred Luy and children, in company with Jacksonville friends, are enjoying an outing at Brbee springs, on Evans creek.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Kelzur left last week for Crescent City, where Mrs. K. will remain several weeks for the benefit of her health.

Mrs. H. S. Reed returned Monday from a visit to her son, who is connected with the famous Dewey mine, near Gazell, Calif.

Mrs. W. H. Jackson and children and Miss Ora Wilson will leave today (Friday) for Coletsin for a short outing at that mountain resort.

Mrs. Garl T. Jones and daughter, Miss Mabel, will leave Friday for Newport, where they will enjoy sea breezes for a month or six weeks.

Prof. N. L. Narregan and Ralph Wilson returned Tuesday evening from a two weeks' hunting and prospecting tour in the Applegate country.

Druggist and Mrs. Ivan Humason, of Medford, and Miss Edna Jeffrey, of Portland, sister of Mrs. H., spent Saturday and Sunday at Coletsin.

W. H. Moore and family, of Medford, and J. H. Drake and family, of Griffin creek, left Thursday morning for a few weeks' outing in the Dead Indian country.

Frank King has moved to Leland, near which place he owns and is operating a large hydraulic mine, which he is getting in shape for extensive operations.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Stewart drove over to McCallister springs this week, at which place Mrs. Stewart will remain for a few weeks. Mr. Stewart returned yesterday.

W. H. Jackson, A. L. Eisenhart, Ed Van Dyke and Robert Dow were over on Little Applegate Saturday and Sunday, catching fish and having a good time generally.

Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Butler, Misses Gertrude Wilson and Florence Toft returned last Saturday from their outing at Ft. Klamath and the Crater Lake National Park.

Scott Bozorth, manager of the Pacific Homestead, published at Salem, was in the valley this week gathering data for an article on Southern Oregon resources for his publication.

Joe Delk, of Portland, is up in the Prospect country for a few weeks. He has but recently recovered from a three months' spell of sickness. Himself and family formerly resided in Medford.

Bert Miller, night clerk at Hotel Naeh, is having a severe round-up from the effects of a wholesome and job lot of poison oak he ran afoul of while at Rogue river last Sunday on pleasure bent.

Mrs. Frances Little, of Chico, and Mrs. C. W. Millon, of Corning, Calif., are in the valley upon a visit to their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. True, whom they have not seen for about twenty-five years.

Merchant and Mrs. H. B. Nye and Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Moore drove out to Table Rock Thursday to partake of the hospitality of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dickinson—and enjoy, meanwhile, a pleasant ride.

E. B. Hall, of Alabama, a cousin of Dr. I. D. Phipps, is in Medford looking over the country with a view to locating. Mr. Hall is a merchant but he has not decided whether he will engage in the mercantile business or take up fruit raising.

Mrs. J. F. Wait arrived in Medford last Thursday from Portland, where she has been visiting friends and relatives. She has been the guest of Miss Sadie Amsin and Miss Ida Redden while in this city and will leave today, Friday, for her home at Boulder Creek, Calif.

Mort Lawton returned Wednesday from northern California, where he has been at work for several weeks. He made the trip from Montague to Medford, sixty-seven miles, in one day and stopped two hours at Coletsin. He will be employed here in the Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co.'s implement house.

G. L. Davis is in Medford for a few days' stay.

Miss Alleen Webber was among Ashland friends Tuesday.

J. S. March, of Central Point, was doing business in the city Tuesday.

Miss Margaret Olwell, of Central Point, was visiting Medford friends Tuesday.

Mrs. B. P. Theiss and daughter, Miss Geraldine, and Margaret Olwell left yesterday for a month's stay at Coletsin.

R. A. Carter and family returned Wednesday evening from a two weeks' outing at the sulphur springs, on Evans creek.

A. S. Wells and family and L. E. Hoover and family left Tuesday morning for a trip to Crater lake. Accompanying the party is Miss Estella Ross, of Lockhart, Texas, who is in Southern Oregon upon a visit to her sister, Mrs. Hoover.

Leo Van Burkleo, a prominent photographer of Yreka, Calif., is in Medford upon a visit to his cousins, the Halley boys, and having dental work done. He is a splendid appearing young man and is making many warm friends here.

Mrs. W. R. Johnston while at her homestead on Butte creek last week sustained a painful wound on the head. Workmen, while chinking a log house, let one of the chinking pieces fall, striking Mrs. Johnston on the head, inflicting quite a severe scalp wound.

Emmett Barkdull, J. G. Van Dyke, Ade Vis, Rubie Murray, Frank Isaacs and Lynn Purdin formed a party which left Sunday morning for an outing at Fish lake. The boys expect to be absent about ten days, and that they will have a great time goes without saying.

R. E. Ormsby, night operator at the depot, left Tuesday for Portland to take a rest and to regain his strength, for the close application of night work has greatly impaired his health. W. A. Mahoney, the day operator, now has the night shift and George Dewey, of the Leland office, is holding down the day shift.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chamberlain were down from the Fish Lake ditch camp this week, having brought in Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chamberlain, of San Francisco, who have been visiting at the ditch camp for the past five weeks. The old people are parents of Frank Chamberlain, and they returned to their home Wednesday morning.

Mrs. A. W. Joseph and daughter, Miss Myrtle, of New Castle, Calif., were in Medford Tuesday upon a visit to Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Damon. Mrs. Joseph and her father, A. H. Sutton, passed through Medford a few weeks ago bound for Josephine county. They were not favorably impressed down that way and have now decided to locate in Medford.

W. B. Roberts returned last week from an outing at McAllister springs. He brought back with him the head of a fine five prong buck as we have over seen, which he will have mounted. P. B. O'Neil and James Roberts are still at the springs—having heap plenty good time—catching fish and occasionally "slewing" an obstreperous buck which refuses to be "shooed" from their pathway.

Walter Anderson, a former well known resident of this city, and who is a son-in-law of Mrs. O. Gilbert, of the Bazar store, has been appointed superintendent of the sawmill and logging camp of the Lamoine Lumber and Trading Company, of Shasta County, California. It was but two years ago that Mr. Anderson left Medford to take employment as a day laborer with the Lamoine Company, and his success in rising to the position of superintendent, at a salary of $118 per month, shows what can be done by a bright young man who is industrious and sober and who looks after the interests of his employers as faithfully as he would his own.

L. P. Hubbs arrived in the city Wednesday from Carthage, Illinois. The gentleman is a brother of Art Hubbs, salesman for F. K. Deuel & Co. Mr. Hubbs is very much pleased with the appearance of our country and seems pleased because of the fact that he has arranged for permanent residence here. He will take the position now occupied by his brother, and Art will go to Ashland and manage a general store there which is to be opened by himself and Mr. Deuel about the first of September. Mr. L. P. Hubbs has been a traveling salesman for an eastern wholesale house for a number of years, but is not entirely unfamiliar with the retail business, having served several years behind the counter. His wife and son will arrive in Medford in about a month.

A BREAD MAKER.
As a bread flour it has no equal. Makes loaves that are at once white, toothsome, wholesome. Economical, too. Exceptionally so. Goes farther and gives better results than any other. Quality is of uniformly high standard. The Davis' Best brand is the family flour par excellence. Best on the market for the money. 80c per sack. A. A. DAVIS & CO.

John Grieve, ex-assessor, was down from his Elk creek ranch on Monday.

W. S. Dover and family left Thursday for a few weeks' stay at Yreka, Calif.

Wm. Angle and John Hardin returned Tuesday from a prospecting tour in the vicinity of Sterling mountain.

A. F. Nelson, superintendent of the Eureka mine in Josephine County, was in Medford upon business this week.

Colonel Blaisdell, an extensive mine owner of Josephine County, is in Medford, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. C. Nash.

Mrs. R. E. Loar and daughters, Misses Myrtle and Grace, Miss Sophis Hanson, Mr. Fancher and family and Bert Orr left yesterday for a few days' outing on Ashland creek.

J. J. Lane was down at Redding, Calif., last week upon a visit to his sons. The weather was very hot there, the thermometer last Friday registering 118 in the shade—and the dust was ankle deep.

N. H. Spencer came up from California Wednesday evening for a few days' stay. He has purchased a five-acre orange orchard in Butte County and will make that country his home. His orchard adjoins Wesley Dial's orchard. Mr. Dial is also a former Medford man.

W. B. Carter, of Sawyer Bar, Calif., returned to his home Thursday after a few weeks' visit with his brothers, Hon. W. A. Carter, of Gold Hill, and R. A. Carter, of Medford. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Virgie Carter, who returned to her home at Etna after a visit with relatives.

Miss Lottie Ulrich, who has been in Medford the past year stopping at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. R. Lindley, and who held a position as teacher in the Medford schools, left Tuesday for her home in Alton, Illinois. Miss Ulrich, by her musical talent, has been an appreciated help in many public events and she has made many friends, who wish her a happy home going.

Dr. T. N. Berlin, who is here upon a visit to his daughter, Mrs. H. U. Lumsden, was called to his home at Kent, Wash., very suddenly Tuesday by a telegram announcing the illness of his son at that place. He was accompanied home by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Treve Berlin, who was also visiting here, and whose husband is now out in the mountains with Mr. Lumsden.

A Medford dramatic club is being organized by Robert Ransome, a well known actor and stage director, of San Francisco. The club will open the new Wilson Opera House with the beautiful southern comedy drama "In Old Kentucky." The production will be staged with special scenery, three race horses and a plucky band. The best talent is being secured, and the play promises to be the social and theatrical event of the season.

G. W. Woody is accredited with having brought the first load of wheat, of this year's crop, to market, the same having been brought to the A. A. Davis flouring mill in this city on Thursday of this week. The wheat graded "best quality," but Mr. Woody could tell nothing of the yield except that it was good.
