Eagle Point Eagles.

BY A. C. HOWLETT.

Miss Edna Charley, of Brownsborough, has entered the school at this place as a pupil.

Rev. Holcraft, Baptist minister, will commence a series of meetings here on Sunday the 30th.

Dr. C. Pletcher passed through here the first of the week, en route to his homestead on Big Butte.

Mrs. Ed. Simon, of near Grants Pass, was here last week visiting relatives.

Henry Ellis, who has been working in Ashland for a short time, returned last Saturday.

Jerry Hickathorn has had some carpenter work done on the building that he purchased of Mr. Calhoon.

Mr. Lonigan has been doing some carpenter work on the A. H. Peachy house, getting it ready for the family to move into.

R. R. Winter's little boy was seriously hurt here Saturday afternoon. While riding through town his horse fell and caught the boy in such a manner as to break his leg.

Peter Young met with quite a serious accident last Monday evening; while working with his horses at his barn, one of the horses kicked, striking a pole which struck Mr. Young across the mouth, fracturing the lower jawbone, bruising his neck and cutting his lips badly. Dr. W. B. Officer was called and dressed the wounds.

During the past week your Eagle Point correspondent has been in so many places that he hardly knows where he is or has been. On Tuesday of last week he went to Medford, going from there to the home of J. F. Davis, the mining man of the Blackwell diggings, where he spent the night. Mr. Davis' daughter, about thirteen years old, was complaining of a pain in her forehead where she had bumped it two or three years ago, and where there has since been a small white spot about the size of a grain of corn. Upon examination it was found that the spot had broken and seven or eight pieces of bone about the size of a pin head came out of it. The next day your correspondent visited Gold Hill and found that town very much alive. He also met several old acquaintances and friends, all speaking a good word for THE MEDFORD MAIL. He returned home Wednesday evening and found that the heirs of the Geo. Heckathorn estate had been up from Woodville to sign the necessary papers transferring the old Heckathorn place to T. E. Nichols, the consideration being $1400. Those who came up from Woodville were Mr. and Mrs. David Ball, Mr. and Mrs. George Maegerly and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Simpkins. The other heirs live in this neighborhood.

Jack Tungate came down from Mt. Pitt precinct last Monday with a band of horses to be taken to Gold Hill. He reported that old Mr. Beck, aged about eighty years, started out for a hunt last Saturday afternoon while his son was away from home. When the son arrived home at night and found his father absent he blew the horn and received an answer, but mistook the direction from which the answer came and started the wrong way to look for him. After searching all night with a lantern he gave the alarm to the neighbors and they all turned out to assist in the search. In the afternoon they met at Mr. Beck's by agreement, and were ready to start again when Dr. Emerson, of Medford, and two other men came in with him. They had found him beside the road, on his knees, unable to stand and almost speechless. He managed to make them understand who he was, but when they reached his home he was past speaking. He had been out nearly twenty four hours. He was in a very critical condition when Mr. Tungate left there.

An Alarming Increase in an Already Prevailing Disease. Are Any Exempt?

At no time in the history of disease has there been such an alarming increase in the number of cases of any particular malady as in that of catarrh now preying upon the people of this country.

While it is not surprising that so many Americans are troubled with catarrh, considering the way they live, yet is surprising that so many suffer so long from the disease before taking anything or until it is too late, as it is in fact very easy to cure if the right course is pursued.

A remedy for that dreadful disease has at last been discovered that expells it from the system, and that is S. B. Catarrh Cure, the only positive internal cure for catarrh, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, cleansing it from all impurities, carrying them through the natural channels and removing the cause of that dreadful disease, CATARRH, which is a constitutional disease and must take constitutional treatment to remove the cause. S. B. Catarrh Cure is for sale by all leading druggists.

Beagle Items.

Miss Hewes extends a special invitation to parents to visit her school.

Travel, plowing and seeding, are at a standstill, on account of the late storm.

Jesse Richardson, of Beagle, took a load of fine porkers to the Medford market one day last week.

The scarcity and sudden disappearance of the festive jack rabbit is unaccountable by the oldest inhabitant.

A pleasant social party was given at the home of Mr. Amick, near Antioch Friday night. All speak highly of the entertainment.

Mr. Childers and son, of Medford, passed through here Thursday with a fine bunch of beef cattle off of their stock ranch in the Meadows district, for the Medford market.

Mr. Payne, a gentleman recently from Michigan, who homesteaded a 40 acre tract in the chapparal district, has his house completed and his family are now occupying the same.

Mr. Williams, the postmaster and merchant at Moonville, has moved and now occupies the property formerly owned by A. L. Gall. He has everything tastefully arranged and convenient.

Quite a number of the solid citizens of our section have ordered fruit trees and will enlarge their orchards—among them we note S. H. Glass, Brown & Stacy and Glass Brothers.

BY SINE DIE.

Miss Noe has returned home again for a visit with her parents here.

Mr. Foster, of China Gulch, was a business visitor in Gold Hill Friday.

Miss Haff, of Gold Hill, was a guest of Mrs. Swinden one day recently.

Robert Swinden and wife were transacting business in Medford last week.

Dr. Braden left last week for San Francisco upon pleasure and business combined.

We are glad to report that Mr. Nutt's little child, who has been very ill, is getting better.

Mr. Mendenhall, of the Gimlet mine, has returned from the East and commenced work in the mine.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Anderson, of McCloud, Calif., have become residents of Kanes Creek. Mr. Anderson will engage in mining here.

Mr. and Mrs. Hysink, who have been engaged at work in the mines here for Mr. Braden, left recently for their home at Grants Pass. The best wishes of all their friends go with them.

BATTLE OF CORPORATIONS.

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—The Record says: On Thursday next in the United States court sitting at Pittsburg the Western Union Telegraph Company will file a suit praying for an injunction restricting the Pennsylvania Railroad Company from removing any poles, wires or fixtures of the plaintiff corporation from the land owned by the defendant company east of Pittsburg and Erie. This move will mark the beginning of a great legal battle between the Gould-Wabash interests and the Pennsylvania-Cassatt corporations.

MOTHERHOOD

The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife. No medicine can restore dead organs, but Wine of Cardui does regulate derangements that prevent conception; does prevent miscarriage; does restore weak functions and shattered nerves and does bring babies to homes barren and desolate for years. Wine of Cardui gives women the health and strength to bear healthy children. You can get a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your dealer.

WINE OF CARDUI

143 Market Street, Memphis, Tenn., April 14, 1901. In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Thedford's Black-Draught. I had been married fifteen years and had never given birth to a child until I took Wine of Cardui. Now I am mother of a fine baby girl which was born March 31, 1901. The baby weighs fourteen pounds and I feel as well as any person could feel. Now my home is happy and I never will be without Wine of Cardui in my house again. Mrs. J. W. C. SMITH.

SAVED HIS CAPITAL.

A Bank President Who Did Not Forget His Old Time Friend.

"Come in in the morning, and the bank will have something for you to do," said the president of a Broadway bank to a meek looking man whose hair was white and whose eyes were marked by deep crow's feet as he left the office, with a bright look of satisfaction on his face that had not been there before.

"Let me tell you a story," said the president as he motioned to me to remain. "I was living in Iowa, and three city lots composed the capital that I looked to to give me a start in business. I held on to them for a long time while working for $35 a month in a real estate office until they had advanced in value to $3,000, when I sold them to a St. Louis man.

"It was nearly 3 o'clock, and I hurried to the bank. I made out the deposit slip and laid it, with my gold and bankbook, in front of the receiving teller.

"'It is closing time now,' he said, 'and you had better not make your deposit until morning.'

"'Charley,' I said, for I knew him well, 'that is ridiculous. It is a half minute before closing time, and I insist that you take my deposit. I don't want to be robbed of all that I have on earth before morning.'

"'I will fix it for you,' he said as he gathered up the money and bankbook and disappeared in the vault with them. In a minute he was back, and I was astonished at his actions.

"'I have put it in my private box,' he continued, 'where it will be safe, and in the morning you can make the deposit if you want to.'

"Next morning the bank's failure was announced.

"I hurried to Charley's house, which was near by, and asked him about the bank.

"'Yes, it has failed and won't pay a cent,' he said. 'Just five minutes before you came in with your money yesterday the directors decided not to open this morning. I was told to give out no information until business hours today, and that is the reason I didn't tell you. If you had made your deposit, the money would have all gone. Now it is safe in my box, and you can have it any moment you please.'

"I did get it, and it was the foundation of my fortune. The man who was just here is that Charley and was the teller who saved my capital for me."

POULTRY POINTERS.

Pure water is more essential than clean grass.

Even though turkeys are good foragers it will not pay to let them go without proper feeding.

Everything in the rearing of young poultry depends upon their care and management at least until well feathered.

Fowls inclined to fatten too easily are not good layers. The flesh they carry makes them lazy, and this never promotes laying.

Middlings make a good food for poultry, but if wet up alone it is too sticky. The better plan is to mix with bran or corn and wet with milk or scalding water.

Whitewash is better than paint on the poultry houses, for the reason that it costs less and has a purifying influence. It may be applied as often as once a month to advantage.

The properties of sunflower seed are peculiar, and a small quantity fed at the proper time will essentially aid in imparting to the plumage of adult fowls a gloss that no other grain will produce.

Gainsborough and His Carrier.

One of the earliest members of the Royal academy, it was Gainsborough's custom to have his pictures conveyed to the metropolis by a prosperous London carrier, a Mr. Wiltshire of Shockerwick, near Bath. This man refused to accept payment on the ground that he loved pictures too well. He was not, however, allowed to go unrewarded, for Gainsborough presented him with six of his best works, and some idea of their ultimate value may be gained from the fact that when at length they were sold the National gallery secured two, "The Parish Clerk of Bradford-on-Avon," for 500 guineas, and "The Harvest Wagon," for £3,000, these prices being considered low. Later "The Sisters" from another gallery realized close upon £10,000.

EXPOSURE to the cold and wet is the first step to Pneumonia. Take a dose of PERRY DAVIS' Painkiller and the danger can be averted.

It has no equal as a preventive and cure for Colds, Sore Throat, Quinsy and Rheumatism.

Always keep it handy.

CALLING UPON A FRIEND.

The Way In Which Two English Actors Once Paid a Visit.

Here is an amusing story of Messrs. Toole and Brough, the English comedians. Having appeared conjointly in a drama, "Dearer Than Life," in which they wore very ragged, woebegone costumes, they visited the well known artists Fradelle and Marshall to be photographed in their rags. While waiting "between the plates" Toole, who was fond of a lark, suggested to his brother comedian to sally out and call upon a certain mutual acquaintance, who would be horribly shocked at receiving visitors in such a garb. Brough at once assented, and, popping on their battered hats, out into the street the pair slipped and made for the house of their friend. Of course the neat housemaid and the neater Buttons were horrified and declined even without being asked to purchase matches or the like.

"I axes your pardon," said Toole in an assumed tone. "You're making a slight mistake. We want to see your master." And he mentioned the gentleman's Christian name and that of his wife.

"We have important business with him," chimed in Brough.

The girl's face wore a dazed aspect, and she said: "Master never sees the likes of you at his house. He's most perticklar, ain't he, Charles?" appealing to the page. "You must be making a mistake."

"Oh, no, we ain't!" responded Toole with supreme gravity. "But I'm sorry William"—the Christian name of the gentleman—"is out. I haven't got a card about me," pretending to fumble among his rags, "but tell your master that his two cousins from the workhouse called as they were passing through London."—London Tit-Bits.

The Boston Boy.

"Lookin' fer a bird's nest, sonny?" asked the good natured westerner of a seven-year-old boy whom he met in Boston Common.

"No, sir," replied the intellectual prodigy as he continued to gaze up into the tree. "I am merely endeavoring to correctly classify this tree as a botanical product."—Columbus State Journal.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court for Jackson County, Oregon.

William Woodham and Mary M. Woodham, his wife; Mary Spurrell and W. H. Spurrell, her husband; Joseph Woodham and Anna Woodham, his wife; Ollie Keys and Herbert N. Keys, her husband; Rosa Graves and Anderson S. Graves, her husband, vs.

Plaintiffs,

C. H. Cannon and Ben A. Lowell,

Defendants.

To C. H. Cannon, one of the above named defendants:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF Oregon, you are hereby required to appear in the above entitled suit in the above entitled court and cause and answer the complaint of plaintiffs on file against you herein within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, which said date of the first publication thereof is Friday, October 17, 1902; and you are hereby notified that if you so fail to appear and answer said complaint within said time or otherwise plead thereto the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint now on file, to-wit: That the defendants in this said cause and each of them be required by the court to perform the conditions of a contract for the purchase of the following described premises in Jackson County, Oregon, to-wit: Commencing at the southwest corner of the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section sixteen, in township thirty six south, range four west, and running thence south 78 degrees, east (variation 19 degrees) 69 rods and 15 links; thence running north 13 degrees, east one hundred and six rods; thence west 88 rods and 10 links; thence south eighty rods to the place of beginning, containing fifty acres more or less, which said contract required the payment of $500.00 on March 1, 1902, and for which said payment you and each of the said defendants are in default, and that it be decreed by the court that said payment be made within thirty days from the entry of the decree of foreclosure, and for want of said payment within said time the said contract of sale be cancelled upon the records of the county recorder for Jackson County, Oregon, and that you and each of said defendants be decreed from and after said date to have no right, title or interest either at law or in equity in or to said premises or any part or parcel thereof; that the plaintiffs have judgment against you and each of the defendants for their costs and disbursements herein and that they have such other and further equitable relief as may to the court seem just and proper.

This summons is published by order of Hon. H. K. Hanna, one of the judges of the circuit court for Jackson County, Oregon, which said order was dated at Chambers October 15, 1902, and required this summons to be published in THE MEDFORD MAIL, in Medford, Oregon, a newspaper of general circulation in Jackson County, Oregon, for six successive weeks from the date of the first publication thereof, the first publication being October 17, 1902, and the last publication November 28, 1902, and requires you and each of you to answer said complaint on or before the day of the last publication thereof.
