THE PRESIDENT

When the President goes through a crowd a peculiar mania for touchveloped among the women. The strong; then let thirty thousand hands reach out from all sides, and unless the Federal guards were alert and the President rather quick to dodge on his own account, he would be foundled over like a prize pony at every meeting place.

At Sioux Falls a hatchet-faced old lady not a member of the di vorce colony-no hatchet faces there-made a dash for him. She was shouldered off, but returned to the charge again and again.

At last, just as the President steped into his carriage, she put a skinny claw over Senator kittredge's shoulder and slapped the President or with such scientific system. vigorously on the forearm.

The President never glanced around. There had been no visible evidence that he had noticed his pursuer. But he turned to Senator Kittredge and whispered in his grimmest way:

"I'm It, Senaror."

Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Burbage, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." cent size, was permanently cured. Sold by Chas. Too Grat a Risk.

In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of colic or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. Chamberlain's Colic. A Napoleon Among Animals.

From the May Cosmopolitan,

Imagine a procession of ten thousand cattle, marching two by two, in a line fifteen miles long; let twenty thousand sheep follow them, bleating along twelve miles of road; after them drive sixteen miles of hogs, twenty-seven thousand fowls bring up the rear, clucking and quacking and gobbling, over a space of six miles; and in this whole caravan, stretching for nearly fifty miles and requiring two days to pass a given point, you will see the animals devoted to death in the packing houses of Swift & Company in a single day. Surely a Buddhist would think that the head of that establishment had much to answer for. Never before in the world's history was a massacre of the innocents orga-

The commander of the army of twenty thousand men engaged in this work earned his first penny picking cranberries in a swamp on Cape Cod, more than fifty years ago. It was at Sagamore, on that historic peninsula, that a son was born to the house of Swift, June 24, 1889, and named Gustavus Franklin. A few years later, when the boy was not picking cranberries, be drove hogs along the cape. It was like Napoleon exercising his infant armies at school.

At no time in the history of disease has there been such an alarming increase in the number of cases of any particular malady as in that of Catarrh now preymalady as in that of Catarrh now preying upon the people of this country.

While it is not suprising that so many Americans are troubled with catarrh, considering the way they live, yet it is surprising that so many suffer so long from the disease before taking anything or until it is too late, as it is in fact very easy to cure if the right course is pursued.
