MAY LYNCH HIM

SHERIFF'S APPEAL RESPECTED BY CROWD.

CONSTABLE CASEY KILLED

Constable's Brother Shoots Drunken Mexican Who Attempts to Escape From the Jail After Committing the Murder.

San Andreas, July 27.—Deputy Constable James Casey was shot and killed instantly Sunday afternoon while he was about to lock Jules Martinez, a Mexican whom he had arrested, in a prison cell. Then the drunken prisoner made a dash for liberty across the jail yard, exchanging shots as he ran with a deputy sheriff. When escape seemed certain he was brought to earth by bullets fired from a rifle in the hands of a brother of the dead constable.

As he fell a crowd pounced upon Martinez, but he was hustled toward the jail by Assessor Numer. Just as he was about to be taken within the prison where his victim lay dead, a band of determined men rushed up and there were shouts of "Lynch him! Lynch him!"

Numer, however, was armed with a shotgun and he held the crowd at bay long enough to have the murderer placed behind the bars. Still the crowd was not satisfied and demanded that the prisoner be given up.

Then it was that Sheriff Graves appealed to them to let the law take its course, adding this remark: "Any way, the prisoner is wounded mortally and he cannot survive."

The crowd dispersed and Martinez is safe until death releases him from his sufferings.

The tragedy occurred about 3 o'clock. Martinez had been drinking heavily during the day and was extremely noisy. Casey ordered him to keep quiet, but Martinez only laughed and declared Casey was afraid to arrest him. But Casey was not afraid and took Martinez to the county jail. Deputy Sheriff Thorn was in the yard when Casey arrived with the prisoner, and Thorn started to get the key to the cell. Casey started to search the prisoner's pockets, when Martinez drew a revolver and fired twice at the constable. The bullet struck him in the stomach and he fell dead. Thorn saw Casey fall and rushed toward Martinez, who fired again, but missed Thorn.

Dashing past Thorn, Martinez ran out of the jail yard, turned down an alley and started up the road toward Angola. A crowd started in pursuit. Among the throng were the dead constable's three brothers, Thomas, John and Edward. The brothers fired simultaneously and the fleeing prisoner fell, pierced by two bullets.

YOUNG MRS. HODGES CONFESSES TO MURDER.

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 27.—Mrs. Aurora Hodges, aged 19 years, living in Denison, Iowa, has given herself up to the police and confesses to having murdered, on July 11th, Herman Edwards, a traveling medicine vander, near Salt Lake City, Utah. She was immediately placed under arrest and the authorities at Salt Lake City notified.

Mrs. Hodges was traveling with her husband in California a month ago, but at Redlands they had a furious quarrel, and when she awoke in their hotel one morning she found him missing. She searched in vain for him, and decided to go to Ogden, Utah, where relatives of his lived. When she reached there she learned that he had preceded her and had made statements to his people that were of a ruining nature to her character.

DESPOUND LABORER TRIES NEW METHOD OF SUICIDE.

San Bernardino, July 27.—A miner in the employ of the Edison Electric Light Company at its construction plant in Lytle Creek canyon committed suicide in a strange as well as an original manner Saturday night. He took a giant powder cap, such as are used in exploding blasts in tunnel work. To this he attached a fuse and forcing the cap as far down his throat as possible lighted the protruding end. The concussion tore a terrible opening in the man's throat, mangling the tongue and palate and causing blood to flow profusely. When found by a fellow workman a few minutes later he was still living. He was placed in a wagon and driven to the county hospital in this city, but was dead when the wagon arrived. Despondency is thought to have prompted the act.

NEGRO IS LYONED BY DANVILLE MOB.

Danville, Ill., July 27.—While a mob of 600 men was on its way to the county jail to lynch James Wilson, a Bloomington negro, who had confessed to assaulting Mrs. Thomas Burgess, wife of a farmer, J. W. Mayfield, a negro, shot and killed Henry Gatterman, white, a member of the mob. The murderous negro, a refugee from Evansville, Ind., was then lynched by the mob and three other negroes who attacked the whites were beaten badly. The mob finally resumed its march to the county jail, determined to lynch Wilson.

When the mob reached the jail it was fired upon by the sheriff. Nine persons were wounded and the crowd scattered.

Mayfield met his fate while the mob was on its way to lynch Wilson. The angry throng was passing down East Main street when the negro became involved in an altercation with some of its members. They started after him and he drew a revolver, firing into the crowd. Henry Gatterman, a young butcher, fell mortally wounded and expired within a few minutes. The negro fled, but was caught by officers within a block of the scene and hurried to the police station with the mob in hot pursuit temporarily diverted from their march to the county jail. The officers with their prisoner took refuge in the city building and barricaded themselves behind the doors of one of the offices. They could not check the mob, however, for it secured a long pole and battered down a section of the wall and door, both of which were frail.

On account of the overwhelming numbers of the mob it was useless for the officers to resist. The negro was seized and rushed to the spot where he had shot down Gatterman. It was the work of an instant to throw a rope around his neck and swing him up to a telephone pole. After his life had been slowly strangled out he was left hanging while the mob proceeded to the county jail. After going a short distance, however, the mob changed its mind, faced about and returning to the scene of the lynching, cut Mayfield's body down. They rushed it to the principal square, built a bonfire and hacked the body to pieces with knives pitched it in the midst of the flames. For a while they watched it burn and then, coming to a realization of their first mission, to lynch Wilson, they once more resumed their march to the county jail.

WASHINGTON CONVICT HAS BUT BRIEF LIBERTY.

Tacoma, Wash., July 27.—Walter Brown is likely to be returned to Walla Walla penitentiary because he could not appreciate liberty sufficiently to avoid forging checks. He was released last week and the next day he began forging checks again, according to a complaint filed at Walla Walla. Brown was sentenced to two years from Tacoma for forgery and had served part of the sentence, when, after efforts on the part of friends, he was pardoned by Governor McBride. Brown had been a "trustee" at the home of the prison warden, who interceded for him. Now he has been rearrested at Milton, where he went after forging a check on the manager of the Inland Printing Company at Walla Walla. This check he cashed with Julius Levy, a Walla Walla merchant, who had previously cashed two smaller genuine checks given by Brown. After cashing the forged check Brown returned the money to Levy and took the check. Later in the day he again asked for the money on the same check, but Levy had banked his currency. Brown accordingly left the check, saying he would get the money later. Investigation showed the check to be a forgery.

NEGRESS LYNCHED.

Shreveport, La., July 27.—The negro, Jennie Spear, who administered poison to Jennie Dolan, the 16-year-old daughter of John Dolan, from the effects of which she died, was lynched by a mob. The woman was pursued by a posse, who found her crouching in a hay loft. She refused to come out and had to be dragged from the place. She asserted her innocence, but was identified. The mob took her to a nearby tree, placed a rope around her neck and again asked her to confess. She was stubborn to the last, however, and was strung up without making any admissions. While the body was dangling in midair several bullets were fired into it.

CAPTAIN CARTER WILL BE FREE.

New York, July 27.—The opening of the way by the courts at London for the extradition from Canada of Greene and Gaynor to this country for trial on charges of conspiring to swindle the government through contracts for harbor improvement in the Savannah, Ga., district, has called the attention of the department of justice to the fact that the chief conspirator in that huge robbery will soon have completed his term in the military penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan.

NEW YORK WOMEN VICTIMS OF SWINDLE.

New York, July 27.—Hundreds of credulous women in this city and throughout the country have been taken in by an ingenious swindle launched on a gigantic scale and just run to cover in Detroit. Each victim was lured to the extent of from $15 to $25, the sums aggregating many thousands of dollars. The fraud was perpetrated under the name of a league of women, the alleged objects of which are woman suffrage, national temperance, etc. Owing to the similarity of the name with that of a well known organization, the work of securing victims was easy.

Advertisements were published here early in June for "local secretaries," to whom a salary of $600 yearly was offered. Those who answered were the recipients of glowing letters, and finally received checks for $25 to pay the expense of a trip to Detroit. The intended secretary was warned that reduced rates of fare could be secured by sending $15 to an alleged passenger agent in Cleveland within three days. The checks were hurriedly cashed in almost every instance and came back protested. The seekers of employment therefore were out $15 in good money, which presumably fell into the hands of the swindlers.

GOVERNOR FLEES

MESSAGE TO AMERICAN CONSUL IS HELD UP.

OFFICIALS ARE IMPRISONED

General Colos Attempts to Overthrow Growing Power of the Liberals and Crisis Seems Imminent on Isthmus of Panama.

Panama, Colombia, July 27.—Governor Mutis and his American wife have fled from Panama to escape imprisonment, and the entire country is in an uproar, several officials having been placed in jail, while others are in hiding.

The excitement began last night, when the offices of El Lapiz, the organ of the Liberal party on the Isthmus, was visited by officers of the general staff of the army, who destroyed the edition of the newspaper. One of the directors of the paper was wounded slightly, but succeeded in escaping.

Under orders of General Vasquez, commander of the national forces, a company of soldiers surrounded the residence of Governor Mutis. Mrs. Mutis, however, had been apprised of the move and warned the governor in time to effect their escape. They were no sooner out of the house than the troops stormed it. The governor and his wife took refuge in the British consulate, but it is understood will apply to the American consul for protection.

The situation is complicated further by the refusal of the government to transmit a message Consul Gudger attempted to send to Arthur M. Beaupre, the United States minister at Bogota.

RUM AND TOBACCO SHOW INCREASED CONSUMPTION.

Washington, July 27.—Notwithstanding the repeal of the war taxes by the last congress the internal revenue collections keep on creeping up year by year. The steady advance, coupled with the constant increase in the customs receipts, furnish the country with the indisputable evidence of the imperative necessity of revising the tax laws if an economical and honest administration of public affairs is to be expected.

When congress was asked to repeal the remaining war tax laws the commissioner of internal revenue estimated that there would be a decrease in the receipts of his office this year aggregating $75,000,000. The preliminary figures of the collections for the year ended June 30th, as made public by the commissioner, show that the falling off has amounted to but a little more than $41,000,000.

The total receipts from the internal revenue for the fiscal year just ended aggregated $230,740,382, as against $271,867,990 for the previous year. The figures for the year show a steady increase in the consumption of alcoholic liquors and of cigars and manufactured tobacco.

New York ranks third in the amount of revenue collected, being preceded by Illinois and Indiana in the order named. New York's contribution to this class of the public revenues amounted to $26,749,648.
