THE urgent need of an elastic surrency will be admitted by any one who has ever tried to make a 310 bill stretch to cover all the expenses of a two weeks' vacation.

As Indiana man committed suicide because his wife went home to her mother. This probably completes the list. Men have now committed suicide for everything under the sun.

Is the young New York banker who has just made $3,000,000 on the hear deal in stocks is wise, he will get out of the market permanently now and see how many good things he can find in life.

Most of the old soldiers from this section, who attended the Grand Army Encampment at San Francisco, have returned. They report having enjoyed several days of as good a time as they ever did in their lives. San Francisco did herself home Saturday ovening. proud as an entertainer, and no expense was spared to make the old warriovs happy. Everything was free to the old soldiers. If a person Beach. was wearing the blue suit and brass buttons he couldn't pay street car fares; he couldn't pay ferry fares, por could he buy fruits. All these were thrown at him as freely as rolls the waters of the great Pacific. It is told that a couple or three of the old boys from the east enjoyed the W. Clements and an aunt of Mrs. festivities to such an extent that M. Purdin, they indulged too freely in spirits, but these the policemen did not see or rather did see-but there were so arrests made—they were taken care of as kindly as a fond mother gathers her prodigat boy to her bearthstone-only there were no chastisements; no har h words spoken-just a spirit of guardianwhip and protection-and a determaination that no harm should come to the boys in blue while within the borders of the Pacific coast netrog-
