THE MEDFORD MAIL

Published Every Friday Morning. A. S. BLITON. MEDFORD, OREGON, JULY 1, 1904. WAS BORN TO MUSTLE. He is of few days; but quite a plenty. SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 PER YEAR. Entered in the Postoffice at Medford, Oregon as Second-Class Mail Matter.

Gold Hill Celebration.

The people of Gold Hill never do things half way, and the celebration they will give on the Fourth will be among the best ever given in Southern Oregon. The services of Rev. Jas. McDougall, of Grants Pass, have been secured as pastor of the day. The exercises will commence at 10:30. Musical selections will be rendered by a quartet of singers from Grants Pass and the Gold Hill Girls' Band. In the afternoon at 2:30 a grand calumpanian parade will take place. After that there will be three horse races, viz., pony race, 300 yards, purse $5; saddle horse race, same distance, purse $10; free for all race, same distance, purse $15. There will be girls' foot races, boys' foot races, sack races, spoon races, etc., the prize for each of which will be $2.50. In the evening two rock drilling contests will occur, one, doubled handed, for a purse of $20; the other single handed, for a purse of $10. There will be daylight fireworks and the grandest display at night ever seen in Southern Oregon. The ball game will be between Medford and Gold Hill. In the evening there will be a grand ball, music for which will be furnished by Miller's orchestra, of Medford. The management is assuring everyone that they "will never regret it if they come." At 2 p. m. Prof. McCormick will dive from the roof of the bridge into Roguo river, a distance of 55 feet.

A Serious Accident.

Yesterday afternoon John Barkdull came near losing his life in a terrible and very unusual way. While gathering mulberries Mr. Barkdull endeavored to reach some very fine ones by climbing a fence. When almost within view of the fruit he lost his footing and fell, cutting a horrible gash in the side of his throat, one and one-half inches in depth and between two and three inches in length. Dr. Cameron dressed the wound and stated that one-eighth of an inch more would have severed the jugular vein. Mr. Barkdull suffered considerably from the wound, but will recover.

PURELY PERSONAL.

J. S. Bowman, of Phoenix, was attending to business on Friday. M. Yount, of Talent, was here on a trading expedition Saturday. Prof. E. E. Washburn, of Jacksonville, registered at Hotel Hart Friday. Robt. Westrop, of Leland, came up to Medford Thursday, for a two days' visit with friends. Representative-elect H. Von der Hollen and son, of Wellen, were in Medford Saturday. Mrs. J. W. Mills came down from Phoenix Monday evening for a few days' visit with friends in this city. E. E. Smith, of Big Butte, formerly deputy county clerk of Jackson county, spent the day in Medford Monday. J. B. Van Derford was in town on a business trip Saturday. Mr. Van Derford will read The Mail in the future. Robt. Ashworth and daughter, Miss Agnes, of Central Point, accompanied by Miss Hicks, were Medford visitors Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hildreth, accompanied by N. B. Hildreth and S. L. Trefron, all of Ashland, registered at the Nash Saturday. Mrs. Zora Wiley, of Ashland, came down Tuesday evening of last week for a two weeks' visit with home folks and friends in this city. Ed. Wilkinson, Tom Reed, George Merriman, Al Eisenhart, Frank Wilson, and Chas. Gay attended the ball game in Ashland Saturday. Gray, of McMinnville, Oregon, was in this city Friday and Saturday, looking about the town for a favorable location in which to open a feed store. Mr. Gray was engaged in that business in McMinnville for a number of years, having recently sold out at a good figure. He will no doubt make Medford his future home. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Kinney, of Yreka, Calif., came into town Monday morning in an automobile in which they very quickly and easily crossed the Siskiyou mountains. Mr. Kinney is proprietor of an automobile stable in Yreka and expects to open another stable in Ashland in the near future. While in this city Mr. and Mrs. Kinney were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hart. Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Benn and daughter came up from Grants Pass Friday, morning in which place they have been residing since last July. They come with the intention of making their home in Medford and express themselves as being highly pleased with the appearance of things in this town. Mr. Benn came from Boise City, Idaho, to Southern Oregon. Guy Anderson, a young man employed by the Southern Pacific Co., at their office in Portland, accompanied by his uncle, Mr. Swallow, who together have been making a tour of Southern Oregon during the past week, left for their homes in Portland Monday morning. Chas. Haff and nephew, Henry Haff, of Lake creek, arrived in Medford Thursday evening. The nature of their errand was to take back to their home in Lake creek, Chas. Haff, Jr., who was brought to Medford in March for treatment for bone disease, of which he has been suffering since last September. Under the skillful treatment of Dr. Cameron the young man is able to be around again and is very happy indeed to get back to his home and friends.

George Beall, of Big Butte, one of the Mail's staunchest friends and supporters, was in Medford on a business trip Tuesday.

David Robinson, of Oregon City, is in Medford, a guest of W. R. Garrett and family. Mr. Robinson will remain in Southern Oregon for two or three weeks longer.

J. H. Ward, formerly of Medford, but who has, with his family, resided at Arcata, Calif., for the past few years, is in this city again. Mr. Ward suffered the great misfortune of losing his wife last fall and his old-time Medford friends are all extending to him their sincere sympathy. Mr. Ward was accompanied by J. V. Keizer.

Supt. Daily took Saturday evening's train for Portland, to be present at the three days' session of the State Teachers' Association and the one day's session of the Association for School Superintendents of the various counties of the state. The Teachers' Association meets Wednesday and with the Association for School Superintendents will make a total of four days' session.

Miss Marie King took Sunday morning's train for San Francisco, where she will enter Irving Sanitarium to take a special course for the profession of a trained nurse. It is a cherished ambition with Miss King to become a proficient nurse and her many friends in this city where during her short residence she has been a general favorite, wish her large success in her chosen line of work.

Rev. Mrs. Love, who with her family have resided in this city for the past few months, took Tuesday evening's train for Portland, where she will join Mr. Love, who has made all possible arrangements for her comfort on her arrival. Mr. and Mrs. Love were unfortunate in losing their household and personal effects in the recent fire which destroyed the house owned by Gus Samuels.

Dr. J. G. Goble returned Friday morning from a two weeks' stay at Etna, Washington, whither he was called by telegram saying his little son, who resides with his aunt, Mrs. Reaves, in that city, was dangerously ill. The doctor was in McCloud, Cal., when the message came, and took the first train for the north without stopping at Medford. He found his son very sick but reports him out of danger at present. The doctor says the weather was very unpleasant up there, being chilly and wet throughout his stay and that he was very glad to get back home again where the warm sun shines.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Fries, who came up on Friday morning's train from Central Point, to visit friends here, left on Sunday evening's train for Portland. Lieut. Fries is detailed on river and harbor work at present and with headquarters at the U. S. custom house at Portland. He has charge of the work on the canal just above the Dalles, which will unite the upper and lower Columbia rivers and will be of wonderful assistance in giving cheap transportation to market of a large portion of Eastern Oregon and Washington products. It will take about $4,000,000 of government money and about six or seven years of work to complete this enterprise. A small apportionment, only, has been made so far.

Rev. and Mrs. Frederick W. Carstens left on Monday evening's train for the East, Mr. Carstens being a delegate and a representative of three Young Peoples' societies to the national B. Y. P. U. convention in Detroit, Michigan. The convention begins its session Thursday, July 7th, and it lasts over Sunday. Mr. Carstens makes three stops before reaching the convention, the first being at Goldendale, Wash., where he addressed the young people on Wednesday evening. His next stop is at Arlington, Oregon, where he gave an open air talk to his many friends in that little city. Thursday evening he lectures in Ogden, Utah, also filling a pulpit there the following day. Mr. Carstens reaches the convention the following Thursday. After the convention he will join Mrs. Carstens at Spring Garden, Ill., where they will spend the month of July.

Thos. J. Foster, Frank Rhodes and Mr. Gardner, three well-known men of Centralia, Wash., arrived in this city Wednesday morning. They went to Jacksonville the same afternoon and from there into the Applegate section on mining business.

Miss Armetta Burch took Saturday evening's train for Portland at which city she will spend several days visiting friends and in attendance at the State Teachers' Association. Miss Burch goes from Portland to Great Falls, Mont., where she will spend most of the summer and will probably visit the World's Fair before returning home.
