CITY HAPPENINGS.

—Camp "Nick," on Butte creek, has been broken up and the habitues thereof have gone hence to their respective roof tops. That has been, unquestionably, one of the happiest and most congenial camps of outers ever established. It is situated on the banks of Butte creek, upon land reserved by H. G. Nicholson from his homestead, is easy of access, there is plenty of shade and the altitude is sufficiently great to warrant an almost continuous cool, bracing atmosphere during the summer months. That its many advantages have been fully appreciated can best be told by those who have been the dwellers thereof for the past four or five weeks. Those who were the last to leave camp and who arrived in Medford Sunday night were Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Nicholson, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Bundy, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. York and children, Lorraine and Mildred Bliton, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hollis and Mr. Winchers, Gladys and Ethel Curry, Carey and Hildreth Bundy.

—If you want to give your friends in the East some idea of what scenes in Southern Oregon are like, you send them a collection of the stereo views taken by N. S. Bennett. These views comprise a wide range of subjects and thoroughly cover the scenery of Southern Oregon. They can be had either at the Medford Book Store or at H. B. Nye's.

—County Surveyor Jones came in Saturday from the Trail creek country, where he had been engaged in surveying an irrigating ditch for Mr. Allen, from the Rogue river to near the old Trail house. He also surveyed a wagon road from Trail creek, seven miles above its mouth, to the Briacoe saw mill, a distance of three miles. This survey was made to legalize a road which has long been in existence there, parts of which were being appropriated by individuals.

—H. Tripp, of Medford, is agent for Dr. Fuller's Heart and Nerve Tablets. 33-11.

—A party of Medford gentlemen visited Jacksonville Tuesday evening, the occasion being a meeting of the Royal Arch Masons, in that city. There was degree work for the evening, after which refreshments were served. Those in attendance from here were W. F. Isaacs, C. I. Hutchison, H. U. Lumaden, W. H. McGowan, Fred Weeks, E. D. Elwood, E. W. Starr, J. E. Enyart and M. Purdin.

—Blue prints of township maps, showing all vacant land, fifty cents each. For reliable information concerning Government land write to Frank E. Alley, Abstractor, Roseburg, Oregon.

—Tuesday evening C. W. Palm and J. E. Enyart had a pugilistic encounter upon the street near the Rialto cigar store, the out-growth of a feud of long standing. After mixing up a little, without particular damage to either, the belligerents were separated and agreed to bury the hatchet—for the time being. Wednesday afternoon they appeared before Recorder Toft, plead guilty and were assessed $10 each as a contribution to the city exchequer.

—Remember the goods are right and the price is right of your home-made creamery butter. Ask your grocer for it.

—W. H. Simmons and J. S. Hammer are working on a good looking prospect in the Wagner creek country. They had just reached the ledge a month or more ago when the shaft caved in on Mr. Simmons, crippling him up pretty badly. Since then they have been working to clear out the hole. This was finished last week, and now they have a good sized ledge of good value of ore and well defined.

—Mrs. E. E. Gore, teacher of music Mason system. Children taught individually or in classes. Medford, Oregon.

—J. P. True, of Griffin creek, has purchased two lots in West Medford from G. W. Hover, of Portland, for a consideration of $800. Mr. True will commence the erection of a neat cottage on the property at once. Charles Darby has the contract. The sale was made through the agency of M. Bellinger. This property is situated just east from W. T. York's home.

—Guaranteed Forest Reserve scrip for sale, in large or small quantities, by Frank E. Alley, upstairs over Land Office, Roseburg, Oregon. Will place same for non-resident purchasers.

—Mrs. Sherry A. Rodenburger, of Willow Springs, has sold fifty acres, being her part of the Dean donation claim, to Martin Hveem, recently of California, for a consideration of $2200. Mr. Hveem will take possession September 1st. The deal was made through the agency of M. Bellinger.

—Lost—Between Medford and the Hybee bridge, on Tuesday, August 9th, a lady's tan colored jacket. Finder please leave same at Mail office and receive reward. 34-31.

—Ashland Tribune:—"T. K. Bolton, a prominent druggist, was up before Judge Berry this morning, on the charge of breaking the liquor ordinance. Mr. Bolton plead guilty and paid his fine of $100 and costs without a murmur."

—B. N. Butler has just received a fine line of Waltham and Elgin watches and Seth Thomas clocks. If you want a reliable timepiece call on Butler. 33-11

—Champlin & Co., of Foothills creek, recently received three mammoth sticks of Oregon fir for their dredge. The sticks weigh 5½ tons each, are 24x28 inches and 60 feet long, and contain 3850 feet of lumber. They cost $30 per 1000 feet f. o. b., Portland.

—Shearer & Smylie. General draying. Household moving. All kinds of wood for sale.

—"Monk" Robinson was released from the county jail Wednesday, after serving a three months' term for exposing himself "in public nature" on the banks of Bear creek.

—Scott & Cockerline Bros., proprietors of the Nash livery stable, have two good teams for sale.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Austin, of Talent, were in the city Thursday upon business. Mr. Austin has but recently sold his farm of 87½ acres, on Anderson creek, to James Reames, a recent arrival from Nevada. Mr. Austin has purchased residence property in Ashland and expects to reside there—for a while at least. Mr. Austin contributed $1 to the Ashland road fund—by paying a two years' subscription to THE MAIL.

—A warrant was sworn out on Monday of this week by Albert Brown, charging Ray Toft with assault. A hearing was had before a jury in Justice Dox's court at Jacksonville Tuesday, resulting in the acquittal of Toft. Attorney Hoge appeared for Toft and District Attorney Reames for Brown. It appears that more or less of a friction between these parties for some time and this is the culmination. Brown, it is said, was a frequent trespasser upon Toft's premises, east of Medford, and refused to desist from so trespassing—and Toft just naturally landed him a few samples on his pugilistic capabilities.

—Aaron Wyland, who recently sold his ranch of 243 acres to James Kershaw, of the John Day country, for $3000, has moved to Medford, where he will buy property and make this place his future home.

—Frank Johnson, living near the ferry, on Rogue river, lost his home, by fire, early Monday morning. The family lost everything, some of them escaping with scarcely enough clothing to cover their person. The origin of the fire is unknown.

—Wilson and Madison, who broke jail from Jacksonville, are still at large. The Mail was misinformed in stating last week that they had been captured at Albany.

—The Epworth League and Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will serve dinner—for 25 cents—on circus day, in the Palm building, next door to the Eads second hand store.

—Fred Colvig, of Grants Pass, has purchased the drug store of E. P. Eastbrook, at Gold Hill.

—Arrangements are being made for a baseball game to take place Sunday between Medford and Ashland teams.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Billee, of Shake, Oregon, were in Medford Thursday upon land business before Commissioner Bliton.

—Wanted to Buy—Good residence lot in Medford; must be in good location; price must be reasonable, for spot cash. Apply at this office.

—Postmaster Woodford returned Thursday from his visit to Coquille City. Mrs. Woodford did not return.

—Mrs. G. W. Priddy is visiting Ashland friends.
