The settlement was discussed in detail, the president expressing his regret that the differences between the mon and employing company ap parently were not susceptible of ami-cable adjustment. He said, however that he had no authority which would warrant him to interfere in the trou bie, glad as he would be to see a set-lionant of the strike. Mr. Shaffee and Mr. Evans expressed apprecia-tion of President Rosevelt's interest, though they regretted that he was un-mbke to assist them. TRY TO REGAIN METER HILL.

Russians Will Make Last Stand Be tween Liaoti and Mantao. Tokio, Dec. 2.--it is reported here that the Russians have attempted to retake Meter Hill. They assombled a strong force and assaulted the posi-tion, but were repulsed with heavy loss. The Japanese, finding sallors among the Russian dead, believe that if men from the fleet are being employed in making sortles, the complement of the force must be failing short. The fact that the Russians are fortl-fying the positions available between Liaoti and Mantao mountains in-creases the belief that they will make their last stand there.
