

The Wortman & Gore Market

Is Making a Speciality of Pickled Pork and Corned Beef
OF ALL KINDS. TRY SOME OF IT

We are also in the market at all times for First Class BEEF and HOGS in any quantity

WORTMAN & GORE

W. C. T. U. Items.

On December 1st, the house was filled with earnest workers, at the home of Mrs. Day. Scripture reading by president; prayer by Mrs. Russ; song, "Joy to the World;" minutes of last meeting read and approved. It took several minutes for the committees to report. A letter was read from Mrs. Additon. It being "Mothers' Day," all came prepared. An article, "Blood Money," read by Mrs. Russ, brought tears to the eyes of many. Rev. Shields gave a talk on the Temperance cause in a general way. Rev. Blackwell read a leaflet, "Why Open Saloons—Are a Detriment to Society." After refreshments were served the Union adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. Adkins, December 8th. Something of importance will be before the Union. Come one, come all.

Entertainment at Central Point.

Saturday evening, December 17th, an entertainment will be given at Central Point, under the auspices of the Central Point public school, the proceeds to go toward fitting up an opera house in that town. The main feature of the entertainment will be a comedy-drama in four acts, entitled, "A Wife's Devotion," in which the services of the best local talent obtainable has been enlisted and a first-class performance is assured. Besides there will be vaudeville sketches, vocal and instrumental music, etc.

Wedding Announcement.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Toft announce the marriage of their daughter, Florence L., to L. H. Davis, which will take place at Los Angeles, Calif., during the coming week. Miss Toft will leave for Los Angeles Sunday morning.

Notices.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to Dr. W. B. Officer will please call and settle their accounts, either by note or cash, on or before December 20th, otherwise the accounts will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection.
W. B. OFFICER,
Eagle Point, December 9, 1904.

Estray Notice.

From D. W. Myer's ranch, above, Wellen, on Antelope creek, 2-year-old colt, dark bay, little white speckles on breast, had small bell around neck. Finder return to Mrs. V. M. Chessmore, East Medford, and be suitably rewarded.

—Wheeler & Wilson—D-9 rotary hook sewing machines. Very latest in attachments; in all styles of cabinet work. One-third faster than old style shuttle machines. Call and see them. B. S. Griffin & Co., Westside.

—For sale—Double Mitchell hack, nearly new, with pole and shafts. Cheap. G. B. Wild, one mile north of Phoenix. 27-tf.

—Mrs. E. E. Gore, teacher of music. Mason system. Children taught individually or in classes. Medford, Oregon.

—Scott & Cockerline Bros., proprietors of the Nash livery stable, have two good teams for sale.

—H. F. Bailey, formerly of Gold Hill, is now conducting a meat market in Seattle.

—Beeson & Huger, Talent Nursery men, are prepared to fill orders for fruit trees in any quantity, for commercial orchards.

—Needles, oil and repairs for all sewing machines. Repairing done and guaranteed. B. S. Griffin & Co., Westside.

—Cigar clippings—at Wilson's Rialto store. Fresh, clean stock just received.

—Blue prints of township maps, showing all vacant land, fifty cents each. For reliable information concerning Government land write to Frank E. Alley, Abstractor, Roseburg, Oregon.

School Notes.

Miss Terrell, who had just started in the 9th grade, is now a pupil of the State Normal at Ashland.

Miss Kame has finished her school and taken up work with the 5th grade again.

Belle Bennett entered school Monday and is in the business course.

The directors have rented the basement of the Christian church and will use it for a school room. They have purchased a part of the furniture of the Business College for use in the high school and it adds to the convenience of teachers and pupils.

Miss Maud O'Brien has closed her school on Thompson creek and is busy at her work in the 11th grade.

Chairman Bennett took in all the departments Monday.

Miss Lottie Kirkland, of Central Point has taken up the business course with us.

Ardon Terrill, of Butte creek, has taken up work with the 8th grade.

Hon. Carl T. Jones is a welcome visitor once a month.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our thanks to our friends whose assistance and sympathy were so freely given during the illness and death of our daughter, Mrs. Maggie Kreigh.

MR. and MRS. FRED TICE.

Revival Services.

On the evening of January 1, 1905, a series of revival meetings will be commenced in the Christian church. Evangelist Swanson, of Nebraska, will conduct the services. Mr. Swanson is now holding service in Ashland and the reports which come from there are very flattering to him as a speaker and an earnest Christian worker.

PURELY PERSONAL.

J. C. Cook was at Ashland Sunday and Monday.

Andrew Grissom was in from Clifton Monday.

Miss Lizzie Hoover was in Grants Pass this week.

A. F. Hunt, of Ashland, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. F. King visited Ashland friends this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lewis left for Portland Monday evening.

R. G. Brown was in from Eagle Point Tuesday on business.

Martin McDonough, of Central Point, was in the city Tuesday.

N. Cooke, of Central Point, was a Medford visitor Monday.

W. W. Carmichael, of Klamath Falls, spent Sunday in Medford.

Miss Maud McKeever visited Ashland friends Saturday and Sunday.

F. E. Bybee, the well-known stockman, was a Medford visitor Tuesday.

R. H. Whitehead returned Tuesday from his visit to San Francisco.

H. F. Meader, the orchardist, was in Grants Pass Tuesday, upon business.

Miss Emma Armstrong, of Jacksonville, was in Medford one day this week.

W. S. Eachus, of Central Point, was in Medford Wednesday upon business.

J. H. Ray returned this week from a several weeks' stay at the mine, on Palmer creek.

A. L. Rose and daughter, of Phoenix, were pleasant callers at The Mail office Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Nicholson, of Jacksonville, were visiting Medford friends Tuesday.

J. C. Lewis, of Portland, visited his brother, C. H. Lewis, a few days last week and this.

Mrs. C. W. Mason, of Ashland, is in Medford upon a visit to Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hodge.

Cashier J. H. Hammersly, of the Gold Hill bank, was in the city Monday, upon business.

Miss Veranna Wolf, of Weed, Calif., is in Medford upon a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer.

Grant Shell, who has been in California during the summer, returned to the valley this week.

Henry Haefft, one of the prosperous young farmers of Lake Creek, was in the city last week upon business.

Mr. and Mrs. Nate Bates—and the baby, of Grants Pass, visited over Sunday with relatives and friends in Medford.

Ross Kerr, of Columbus, Ohio, is in Medford upon a visit to his uncle, L. B. Warner. He may decide to remain here.

Art. Earhart came down from Ashland Sunday for a few hours' visit with friends. He is employed in a meat market in that city.

Rev. Carstens was called to Golden-dale, Wash., last Sunday to preach the funeral sermon of an old-time school and church friend.

H. A. Meyers, and his nephew, Eddie Meyers, of Lake Creek, were in Medford Tuesday, having brought in several head of fat cattle which they sold to T. E. Pottenger.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Cameron returned Sunday from Portland. When they left the city their friend, Miss McVickers, was very much improved—in fact entirely out of danger.

Lynn Purdin, who is traveling with the Georgia Harper company, spent Sunday with home folks in Medford. The company opens here Monday night for a week's engagement.

H. Groening, of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Chas. Brownell, of Michigan, arrived in the valley Tuesday and will look over the country for a few days with a view to locating.

J. J. Brophy returned last week from Fort Klamath, where he has been looking after his herd of Holstein-Friesian cattle. He has advance orders for calves from this herd at good prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. Bruce, of Elk Point, South Dakota, stopped off in Medford Monday for a few hours' stay in our city. Mr. Bruce is publisher of the Union County Courier, published at Elk Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scott and daughter, Mrs. Mann, and son, Ira, of Helix, Oregon, were in Medford over Sunday upon a visit to Townsman J. A. Scott and family. They left Tuesday for Long Beach, Calif., where they will spend the winter.

Miss Ella Gaunyaw returned last week from Yreka, Calif., and will spend the winter in Medford with her parents. The young lady is a stenographer and has been employed or several months in one of the prominent law offices in Yreka.

Miss Mildred Wilson and Miss Mabel Vanderkarr, of Myrtle Point, were in Medford this week upon a visit to Miss Jessie Gregory. The young ladies left Monday evening for

CAPS HATS CAPS

Do You Wear a Cap?

THE TOGGERY

Has just received a new assortment of caps. The styles are entirely new. Our 50 ct. line of caps is a winner. Just what you have been looking for.

We also have received a big shipment of the JOHN B. STETSON HATS.

Watch for our Christmas ads.

. . . . Have you seen Ella?

HATTERS AND MEN'S OUTFITTERS,
THE TOGGERY,
Medford - - - Oregon

LOOK!

All that remains of my winter's stock of

Millinery

Will be Sold

At Cost

Mrs. C. L. Corwin

"LOOK"

FRANK B. HARRINGTON JR.
The Cigar Man.

Phipps Building. - - - Seventh St

Advertised Letter List.

Following is a list of letters remaining un-called for at the Medford postoffice on December 7, 1904.

Bowles, J. M.	Gott, Miss Mable
Gibbs, Mr. D. K.	Bush, G. O.
Eastman, Mr. C. A.	Davis, J. M.
Eyr, Mr. John S.	Margruder, Thos.
Roberts, Mr. George	Reynolds, Mr. Frank 2
Rice, Mr. P. A.	Shaffer, Mr. Ed.
Grroll, Eddie T.	Allen, A. E.
Astor, Mr. Geo. J.	Eoswell, Mrs. Minnie
Barnum, L. L.	Covington, Mr. M. E.
Hamlin, Ed.	Hall, Miss Nora
Oliver, Mrs. S. P.	Barr, Capt. J. H.
Officer in charge Salvation Army.

A charge of one cent will be made upon delivery of each of the above letters. Persons calling for any of the above letters will please say "Advertised."

A. M. WOODFORD, Postmaster

—Prof. A. Angerman, an experienced piano tuner, is at Cross Piano House. Those wanting tuning please save their orders.

HOLIDAY GOODS

The finest stock of holiday goods ever in Medford. Call and see them
Diamonds, Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Optical Goods, Silver and Silver Plated Ware, Musical Instruments, Cut Glass, Statuary, Notions, Etc.
ELLWOOD,
The Leading Jeweler and Optician

Do You Know That The Dressiest Overcoats For Men and Young Men

that were ever shown in this City are to be seen here in great variety of smart styles and handsome fabrics? It's a collection of high-class garments that possess all the tone and character demanded by the men who know and insist on getting the best; and, that's just what you'll get in the

Michaels-Stern Fine Overcoats

which are correct in style, artistically tailored and fit accurately in every size. But with all the surpassing merit, our prices are exceptionally low as you will agree if you will come here and examine our

Fashionable Overcoats at $10 to $30

Whatever your price limit may be, you are sure to find an Overcoat here that will please you in style, fabric and fit, and as there is such a broad variety of styles, fabrics and patterns to choose from, you certainly will make no mistake in coming here for your Winter Overcoat. We guarantee every garment to be precisely as represented by us and stand ready to "make good" at any time if you are not thoroughly satisfied. Whether you fancy a medium length or an extremely long Overcoat, single or double-breasted, with or without belt back, $10 to $25 we've got just what you want at

Men's Smart Business Suits

No matter how particular you are regarding your clothes fitting, "just so," you will find it an extremely easy matter to be fitted correctly here, as we have an immense collection of styles and fabrics in every size to fit men of all builds. The styles possess an individuality and character that you seldom see outside of fine to-order-made suits; the fabrics are all excellent quality, in the newest patterns and detail that the most exacting man can wish for is to be found in our high-class suits for men $10 to $25 for men and young men at

F. K. DEUEL & CO.,

MEDFORD,

OREGON