CITY HAPPENINGS.

—A joint installation of officers of Banner Lodge 135 of the Fraternal Brotherhood of Medford and Mistletoe Lodge 140 of Ashland was held at Ashland Friday evening, January 13th, the officers and members of Banner Lodge attending in a body. Lodge was called to order by H. A. Frenna, president, and the Medford drill team had the honor of seating the officers. After opening ceremonies and initiation of candidates, followed the installation of officers conducted by the closed team of Mistletoe lodge. Lodge closed in due form, after which a bountiful supper was served and the remainder of the evening was spent in games and dancing. The Mistletoe lodge, of Ashland, initiated thirty-three candidates during the month of December, while Banner Lodge initiated nineteen.

—A complete line of clocks at Elwood's.

—Wm. Hockenyo, Roy Surran and

Misses Ella Gaunyaw and Maud McKeever, who attended the joint installation of the Fraternal Brotherhood at Ashland last Friday night, met with an accident on their way home, which might have resulted seriously. The night was extremely dark and there were no lights on the carriage. When the party reached the vicinity of the Anderson mines the team left the road on a side hill and the vehicle was overturned. All escaped injury except Miss McKeever and she was caught partly underneath the balance of the party and the top of the surroy. She sustained a badly sprained wrist and several bruises about the face and body. Fortunately the team didn't run. The vehicle was pretty badly demolished, but the young people were able to come home in it, after temporary repairs had been made.

—Marion Correll, palmist, clairvoyant and trance medium. Tells past, present and future. Don't fail to consult her. Get a picture of your future husband or wife. Room 5, over the postoffice. 3-1t.

—Married—On Thursday evening, January 12th, a few friends of the bride and groom gathered in the parlor of the home of J. S. Morgan on D street and witnessed the ceremony that united in the bonds of wedlock J. F. Cook and Miss May Bailey. The bride, a lovely young lady, raised in Jackson county, was becomingly attired in a pearl white lustrous cillian gown, trimmed with orange blossoms. J. R. Cook and Miss Martha Wilson served as attendants, while Rev. H. C. Brown performed the ceremony. Many friends of the young couple who have grown up in our midst will join with those who were witnesses of the ceremony, in wishing them a happy life. Mr. and Mrs. Cook will keep house with Mr. and Mrs. Morgan until spring, when Mr. Cook will build.

—For Sale—Furniture for three rooms for light housekeeping. Address, lock box 72, Medford, Oregon.

—The members of Olive Rebekah lodge held one of their delightful social functions Tuesday evening. A literary and musical program had been arranged, the rendition of which was highly appreciated by all. The program consisted of: Reading by Mae Phipps; vocal solo by Gertrude Wilson, quartet by Misses Eifer, Westdames W. Bodge and Clarence Hafer; instrumental solo by Mrs. Bodge; recitation by Jessie Eifer; guitar and banjo duet by H. Withington and W. J. Mahoney; instrumental solo by Hazel Davis; vocal solo by Clarence Meeker; vocal solo by Mrs. Hafer; vocal solo by H. Withington. An illustrated song contest was inaugurated, the contestants being required to draw an illustration conveying the idea of the title of a popular song. Miss Lulu Hartzell won first prize with a vivid and realistic picture of "In the Moonlight." Louis Warner illustrated "The Man Behind" in a way that left him in a class by himself for the consolation prize. The luncheon, was of course, all that could be desired. The committee in charge was composed of Meadames Pottenger, Van Dyke, Schermerhorn, Miss Prue and Katie Angle, Chas. King and H. N. Marcy.

—Mrs. E. E. Cor, teacher of music. Mason system. Children taught individually or in classes. Medford, Oregon.

—One of the most enjoyable surprise parties of the season was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Denton Friday evening, when about fifty of their friends called upon them. The evening was spent in social chat, music and games, after which refreshments were served and all too soon we were reminded that it was high time to bid these good people adieu and all reluctantly said good-night, wishing that it might be their pleasure to spend many more such delightful evenings with such hospitable people.

—Wanted—A position in a mercantile establishment by salesman of five years' experience. For further information call at Mail office. References given.

—The Western Baking company, through its traveling representative, J. D. Fletcher, has been presenting some of its products and patrons in Medford with acceptable souvenirs of the season, in the shape of good-sized boxes of the assorted products of the company—cakes of various kinds. Messrs. Larrabee, Reed and Fletcher, well known in this city, are among the principal stockholders of the concern.

—Have you thought that wedding ring? Elwood has a fine line.

—The White-Trowbridge real estate agency reports the following sales: J. C. Smith to Frank Upton, 200 acres, being part of the Watson lands near Central Point, for a consideration of $12,500. Eleven acres from Thos. Taylor & Sons in the orchard home tract, west of Medford, to W. A. Pointer, consideration $1250. Eight acres on Griffin creek from White & Trowbridge to Mr. Russell, $1050. Lots 9 and 10, block Park ad to Medford to W. A. Pointer, $2000. Lots 5, 6, 7 and 8, Park ad. to Medford from J. P. Orr to J. C. Smith, $1500. These sales total $18,000 for the week.

—Parties having Jersey cows for sale see or write R. H. Meyers, box 29, Medford, Oregon.

—E. C. Pomeroy and son, William, of Rogue river, were in the city Wednesday with a fine load of fat hogs as were ever weighed in the city, which were consigned to J. W. Wiley. Mr. Pomeroy informs us there is much talk of a county bridge being built across Rogue river at the old Jackson place. The Eagle Point and the northern section of the county heartily approve of this long-delayed and much-needed bridge, which would open up a large stretch of country and accommodate a big travel.

—Carrots for sale at $6 per ton at I. X. L. garden ranch, one mile south of Phoenix, Oregon. John E. Roberts. 2-4t.

—On Monday of this week T. B. Goodpasture sold twenty-eight acres of land near Phoenix, being the property he purchased from Ira Wakefield something over a year ago, to James Allen, who recently arrived here from northeastern Washington, for the sum of $6000. Although a small tract it lies in the richest part of the Bear creek bottom and usually pays a good interest on the sum paid for it.

—First-class interior decorating and paper hanging. Work guaranteed. Kerr & Shearer. 3-2m.

—Chrysanthemum Circle, No. 84, Women of Woodcraft, installed officers for the ensuing term Tuesday evening, Mrs. M. J. Fletcher being the installing officer. The following officers were installed: Ada Mills, P. G.; Maud Wilson, G.; Maud McKeever, Adv.; Ella Perry, attendant; Prue Angle, clerk; Kate Wait, magician; Clara Barksdull, I. and O. G.; Ina Morey, musician; Anna Eads, C. of G.; Ella Perry, M.

—I have for sale 1000 Newton and Spitzberg apple trees, about one half of each. The trees are from four to six feet and should sell readily. W. T. YORK. 2-t.

—E. J. Carpenter's "Little Outcast" played to a small house at Wilson's opera house Saturday night. It was not the fault of the play or the company, however. Both were good, the company as a whole being exceptionally well balanced; but the dull season of the year is at hand, and people are resting up after the holidays.

—Beecon & Huger, Talent Nursery men, are prepared to fill orders for fruit trees in any quantity, for commercial orchards. 1-t.

—Miss Zela White was surprised Friday evening last by a number of her young friends. The young lady was completely surprised, when on coming home from an afternoon's visit she found the house filled with a merry company. Games, music, etc., were enjoyed by the young folks and palatable refreshments were served.

—Blue prints of township maps, showing all vacant land, fifty cents each. For reliable information concerning Government land write to Frank E. Alley, Abstractor, Roseburg, Oregon.

—G. Grimes this week received the intelligence of the death of his sister, Mrs. Mary Mix, which occurred at Moscow, Idaho. Mrs. Mix was the mother of twelve children and was the only surviving sister of Mr. Grimes. Her husband, who survives her, was a cad-in in the union army during the civil war and did notable service.

—Sewing machine, for sale at residence of F. W. Gaines, two blocks west and one-half south of school house. Lucky person gets it for $30. 2-3t.

—W. N. Snowden, of Los Angeles, Calif., of the firm of Snowden & Slingert, dealers in horses, is in Medford for the purpose of buying horses. The firm bought a lot of horses in the valley last year and are now after more. Mr. Snowden is accompanied by Dave King, of Ashland.

—See Dr. Goble when you need your eyes examined and glasses fitted. His office is at Butler's jewelry store. Office days, Friday and Saturday of each week.

—"Over Niagara Falls" was presented at Wilson's opera house Wednesday evening. The play was here a year ago and gave good satisfaction. As a scenic production it is a very good, and considering the small size of the stage, well pat o.
