

A LITTLE OF EVERYTHING

Suppose the world should, for a little time, cease exploiting material and look to motives of action and effects upon character.

A man in Maryland boasts of having voted seventy-five times in his life. If he got his money every time, he must be pretty well fixed.

Homer Davenport, the cartoonist, has joined young Mr. Rockefeller's Bible class. It is to be hoped that devout scriptural study is his only object.

That new, wonderful telegraphic apparatus, that is said to be capable of transmitting 800 words a minute, could almost keep up with a sewing circle.

Some people put off until tomorrow, while a drop of oil put on the door hinge would stop that croaking that you have been kicking about for a month.

That Philadelphia judge may regret his learned decision on the kissing question if his wife institutes mandamus proceedings to make him tell how he happens to know so much about it.

Riveter Summerfeld fell 114 feet from the Williamsburg bridge into the river, swam around until picked up by a tug, came ashore and called for a "ball." There's the simple American life for you.

The Atlanta constitution has been trying to tell its readers what the "zemstro" is, and from the result of its labors we are forced to the conclusion that it would be considerably easier to tell what it isn't.

Somewhat it is so easy to help a lady to pass through a heavy swinging door, to alight from a street car and to be so polite to every strange woman, while mother, sister or wife are allowed to split the kindling and bring in the wood.

One car of giant powder, costing $35,000 will be ordered by the Champlin management, near Gold Hill, for leasening the earth ahead of the dredger, so the big buckets can operate more easily and rapidly in scooping up the dirt. If the experiment proves a success, this treatment will be continued.

Daniel Murray, long an assistant in the library of congress, in preparing a historical review of the exploits of negroes and persons of mixed blood in literature and other fields. Mr. Murray said in a recent interview: "To the great mass of readers it will be news that Robert Browning was an octoaxon. The same may be said of Alexander Hamilton, Alexander Pushkin, Luis's greatest poet, was a quadroon."

A woman in a Hamburg, Germany, restaurant found a pearl in the oysters served her, for which she was afterwards offered $1500. The restaurateur has announced suit against her to recover the jewel, claiming that bones of fowls and shells of bivalves are the property of the house by traditional custom. The opposite contention will probably be that the covering of the bones and the contents of the shell belong to the customer. The customer might come back also for damages to her teeth as a result of biting the pearl left in the oyster by reason of neglect of the caterer.

The other day the thirtieth anniversary of an important event was quietly observed in New York City, by the presentation of a watch, suitably inscribed, to the first woman who adopted type-writing as a profession. There is much that might have been put into that inscription. The type-writer is common enough today, but in thirty years it has wrought one of the greatest advances in commercial history. It has done more than facilitate business correspondence, continues the Atlanta Journal. It has admitted women to an important part in business life. A soulless little machine has done more toward gaining "women's rights" than had the arguments and agitation of centuries.

Completion of the boring of the great Simplon tunnel under the Alps, announced a few years ago, marks one of the engineering feats of the age. Many difficulties were encountered and overcome. The length of the tunnel from Briga, in Switzerland, to Iselle, on the Italian side of the mountain is about twelve miles. The work was begun over six years ago, and according to contract the tunnel must be ready for traffic on May 15th next. The Swiss and Italian government jointly financed the undertaking, share and share alike, at the cost of $15,000,000. Unexpected obstacles were encountered, the most serious being hot springs, which threatened to wreck the whole enterprise, and a temperature which at one time rose to 131 degrees Fahrenheit, making a continuance of the work impossible until the engineers found means of cooling the atmosphere.

Klamath County News.

Klamath Falls Re-elected.
The city election on Monday passed off quietly. J. W. Siemens for treasurer and C. C. Brower for recorder had no opposition. There were six names put up to be voted on for trustees and the five receiving the highest number of votes were elected. The vote was as follows: Alex. Martin, Jr., 201; B. St. Geo. Bishop, 153; L. F. Williams, 294; Frank Ward, 297; Fred Schalloek, 203; W. T. Elliott, 55.

The sheriff's office is having the busiest time of its life, the sheriff and two deputies are kept busy all day and until late at night making out receipts for taxes, but are unable to keep up with the rush. On Monday and Tuesday of this week taxes were received to the amount of $10,550.40, and letters are in the possession of the sheriff estimated to contain about $15,000 more, receipts for which have not been made yet.

O. B. Gates, manager of the Midway Telephone & Telegraph Company, stated to the Republican yesterday that his company had made arrangements with Mr. Hessig for the operation of his line in connection with the Midway system. Wires were strung and connection made yesterday with the central office and now the patrons of the office can talk with Fort Klamath, Klamath Agency, Picard, Topsy, Hot Springs and Ager. This now gives the people of Klamath county telephone connection with every important section of the county and adjoining points in California.

Captain G. W. Woodbury, of the Klamath Lake Navigation Company, who returned from Portland a few days ago, stated to a representative of the Republican that his company would build a freight and passenger steamboat for the lower lake this spring. He said: "We have ordered the boiler and the engine will be built in Portland and is now nearly finished. The plans have not yet been completed yet, but I expect to have them in a few days. The boat will have a 17-foot beam and be 80 feet long. The second deck will be equipped with passenger cabins. The boat will be of light draft as possible, so as to reach any point on the lower lake, and will be ready by the first of June at the inst. We expected to have it completed in May but may not be able to do so. The frame work is now being made and will be shipped in, but all of the rest of the work will be done here. It will either be built at our dock in this city or else at the lower end of the lake.

Mrs. M. J. Beebe on Monday filed injunction proceedings against the Klamath Canal Company, asking for an order restraining them from proceeding with the work on Eleventh street in connection with their sluicing and pipe line project. The papers were served on Tuesday and the company filed its answer yesterday, denying any injury to the plaintiff. Judge Frazer by consent of the parties was requested by wire by Judge Benson to be here to try the case on Saturday. Judge Benson left this morning for Pokeyama to meet Judge Frazer and bring him in. The case is of peculiar interest to the citizens of the town, owing to the granting of a license by the town board last December to carry on the work on its streets, after considerable opposition by some of the citizens. The main point involved is whether the town board has sufficient control of the streets of the town to grant a pipe line franchise. It will also be an unusual case in that it will in all probability be started and ended in one week and the judge trying the case having been called all the way from Portland.

Roads Open.
Santa Barbara, March 18.—The storm's fury has at last broken here, and railroads south of this city are open. Several trains have got through from Los Angeles, the first two to arrive being those that left that city on Sunday and Tuesday.

and mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wendt, W. R. Brown and J. G. Pierce have purchased the sailing yacht, "Marguerite," from Capt. Burt Wilson. The yacht was brought down from the Upper lake last week and will be sailed by the gentleman named on Lake Ewauna, that is when they get their sea legs on. These gentlemen are good canal navigators, but it remains to be seen whether they will be able to manage the flekkie "Marguerite" on the broad bosom of the lake in a forty knot breeze.

At 8 o'clock last night the water from Link river was turned into the headgate of the Klamath canal and went coursing on its way through the tunnel, under the Ankey ditch, on Eleventh street, under Main street and out on the flats bordering Lake Ewauna. At 10:30 this morning Sheriff Obenchain served a court order on the company directing them to shut off the water. As the secretary of war had notified the company that the taking of water out of Link river by the canal company would be illegal the company will now undoubtedly also have the attention of the U. S. district attorney.

GENERAL BARBER DEAD.
Was the First Military Governor of Hawaii.
New York, March 18.—Brigadier General Thomas H. Barber, first military governor of Hawaii, who served many years in the regular army, is dead at his home here from heart disease. He was graduated from West Point in 1867.

In 1881 he became aide de camp to Major General Hancock. He resigned from the service in 1885. When the war with Spain began, General Barber was placed in command of the First New York Volunteers and ordered to the Philippines. While in camp at San Francisco he was appointed military governor of Hawaii, but protested that he desired active service, and after a few weeks in Honolulu he was ordered to proceed to the Philippines, where he served some time with General MacArthur.

THE BEST TONIC
When the system gets debilitated and in a run-down condition it needs a tonic and there has never been one discovered that is the equal of S. S. S. It is especially adapted for a systemic remedy, because it contains no strong minerals to derange the stomach and digestion, and affect the liver and bowels. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks selected for their purifying and healing qualities, and possesses just the properties that are needed to restore to the body strong robust health. When the blood becomes impure and clogged with waste matters and poisons the body does not receive sufficient nourishment and suffers from debility, weakness, sleeplessness, nervousness, loss of appetite, bad digestion and many other disagreeable symptoms of a disordered blood circulation, and if it is not corrected some form of malignant fever or other dangerous disorder will follow. S. S. S. builds up the broken down constitution, clears the blood of all poisons and impurities and makes it strong and healthy. The nerves are restored to a calm restful state, refreshing sleep is had again, the appetite returns and the whole system is toned up by this great remedy. S. S. S. is a blood purifier and tonic and acts promptly in this run-down depleted condition of the system. Book on the blood and medical advice furnished by our physicians, without charge,
