CITY HAPPENINGS.

—Thursday evening a number of the young friends of Miss Enid Hamilton were invited to the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hamilton to assist in the celebration of the young lady's fourteenth birthday. The evening was very pleasantly passed by the young folks in games of various kinds, also refreshments were served. Among the unique features were two trees hanging thick with walnuts—one for the girls and one for the boys. Each guest plucked a walnut and upon the shell being opened a piece of paper was found inside upon which was written a prophecy of the future. Cards were distributed bearing the name of an author and the participants were required to match them with certain definitions indicated by the names, such as the "youngest," the "healthiest," etc. Gertrude Fay won the prize in this contest. In a drawing contest Seeley Hall won the prize. At the hour of departure carriages were provided and the young folks were conveyed home in state. Those present were: Misses Mary Deuel, Helen Coss, Ruth Lumsden, Luella Applebaker, Gertrude Fay, Fay Sears, Eula Jacobs, Margaret McCoy, Zela White, Maud Jones, Fern Hutchinson, Venita and Enid Hamilton; Masters Halbert Deuel, Eddie Wilkinson, Harry Childs, Merle Kellough, Vernon and William Vawter, Seeley Hall, Sterling Rothermal, Lloyd Wilson, Lloyd Elwood and Carey Bundy.

—Want to buy:—A good back team; weight from 1000 to 1200 pounds. A. W. Walker, Nash livery stable, Medford.

—On Monday evening of this week about thirty members of Olive Rebekah lodge, of this city, paid a fraternal visit to Ruth Rebekah lodge, No. 4, at Jacksonville. A special train ran between Medford and Jacksonville for the occasion. Those who attended from Medford were: Misses Katie and Prue Angle, Lou Hartzell, Fannie Haskins, Jessie Gregory, Gertrude Wilson, Helen Wait, Edyth and Dalia King, Bertie Hall, Mammie Ragsdale, Maud Wilson, Edna and Jessie Elfert, Mrs. G. L. Schermerhorn, Mrs. Virgie Lamb, Mrs. Wing, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mackey, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Boyden, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Woolf, J. W. Lawton, E. C. Gaddis, Chas. King, Blake Adams, John Day, M. F.

—On Monday evening of this week, Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Deuel gave a button party at their pleasant home, on North D street, in honor of their daughter, Mary's, twelfth birthday. There were nearly thirty young people present and a very delightful amusement, full to overflowing with amusement, was enjoyed. There was a button bargain counter at which was kept for sale odd curios, such as chips from the blade of George Washington's hatchet; moss from the roof of Lincoln's home and numerous others of like nature; there was fortune telling and Sam Richardson was the gypsy; each guest was given four buttons to sew to a piece of cloth and the one who finished the work first received a prize. Margaret McCoy won the first prize. There was also a button guessing contest, in which Charles Boyden won first prize. Refreshments were served and afterwards those who wished to were given an opportunity to dance. Those present were: Enid

Duncan. There were fully one hundred present and after an initiation and the routine business, a social good time was enjoyed—and then refreshments—which last was the principal feature of the evening's enjoyment—and served with the bounty and taste for which Jacksonville ladies have always been noted.

—When you want bargains like these, that are reliable: 200 acres; 100 acres in cultivation, 30 acres in alfalfa, 25 acres in corn, balance in wheat, barley and oats. All fenced and cross-fenced. One Hereford bull, hogs, all kinds of farming implements; 22 miles from Medford. Good roads and not sticky. Price $1000. Crop goes at above price and worth $1500. 80 acres, 20 acres of wheat, 8 acres in bearing orchard, mostly apples, 7 1/2 miles from Medford; price, cash, $800, why see, White & Trowbridge, West Side.

—Wallace Woods just naturally can't keep out of the lumber business. He swore off two years ago, when he sold his yard to J. H. Chambers, but he continued to work for the purchaser. He swore off again when the I. L. & B. Co. bought the Chambers yard, but he went to work for the company. He swore off yet again when he quit the I. L. & B. Co. employ, but now he has started a yard of his own. He is building on South G street, near the Gray planing mill, a big storage shed, 60x100 feet and capable of holding an immense amount of lumber. He has purchased the block upon which his yard will be, with the exception of a small portion, and will handle all kinds of dressed and rough lumber, sash, doors, etc. The shed when completed will be very conveniently arranged with storage room for all kinds of dressed lumber. The office will be in the east end of the building and will be conveniently fitted up.

—E. E. Bowen, lawyer, Miles' block, Medford, Oregon. General law business transacted. 24-4f.

—On Monday evening of this week, Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Deuel gave a button party at their pleasant home, on North D street, in honor of their daughter, Mary's, twelfth birthday. and Venita Hamilton, Hazel Davis, Fern Hutchinson, Irene Short, Freda Hockenjos, Jeannette Butler, Ethel and Hazel Cox, Zela White, Margaret McCoy, Vera Roundtree, Katherine and Mary Deuel, Charles and Frank Ray, Carey Bundy, Vernon and William Vawter, John Goodwyn, Seldon Hill, George Barnum, Charles Boyden, Fred, Luther and Halbert Deuel.

—Mrs. E. E. Gore, teacher of music, Mason system. Children taught individually or in classes. Medford, Oregon.

—Ad. Helms and E. S. Wolfer have been doing some swapping this week and the result of it all is that Mr. Wolfer now is the owner of 100 acres of as fine land as lies out of doors and Mr. Helms is the proprietor of the tinshop and plumbing business formerly conducted by Mr. Wolfer. The land in question is a part of the Hanson place in Table Rock precinct, lying near and adjoining W. R. Byrum's farm. It is a fine piece of land, under the ditch and is in every way a desirable piece of property. The business which Mr. Helms acquires is a paying one and the new owner has the requisite business ability to keep it in that condition. Associated with Mr. Helms is H. E. Gale, a practical tinner and plumber, of Ashland, and he will have charge of the business. Mr. Wolfer has associated with him in the ownership of the land above-mentioned J. G. Morrison, an horticulturist, who this year has charge of the Barr orchards.

—Dr. Goble's office is in Butler's jewelry store, where he may be found every Saturday.

—A new suit was filed with County Clerk Orth Wednesday, wherein A. R. Grieves has sued the Southern Pacific Railroad Company for $20,000, for damages received by said Grieves while in the employ of the said company as passenger brakeman. Some months ago Grieves, while in the employ of the company, and at a point near the Shasta Springs, in California, fell off the rear end of a passenger coach, sustaining injuries to his back and other parts of his body. The allegation is made in the complaint that the end gate across the rear platform was insecurely fastened, or was defective, and the motion of the train threw Grieves against it and it gave away, allowing him to fall to the ground. W. Estell Phipps, of this city, is attorney for the plaintiff, and associated with him is Attorney Chas. Prim, of Jacksonville.

—If the Nebraska people are all gone, please call down at the Medford Pharmacy and look at the little sign in window. 25-4f.

—In the circuit court for Josephine county last week, H. W. Jackson secured a verdict for $1000 and costs against Chas. Baker. The action was brought on account of certain transactions in relation to the sale of the Monumental mine. At the time the mine was sold by Jackson, Baker et al., to T. Wala Dra-or and his associates, a homestead held by Baker contiguous to the mine was included and Baker was paid $1000 for his improvements thereon. Subsequently it was developed that the land upon which the improvements were had no connection with that described in Baker's homestead filing. A demand upon Baker for the $1000 failed to result in any settlement and suit was brought with the above result.

—A good windmill for sale, cheap. E. Russ. 25-4f.

—Many of the older residents of this city will remember E. G. Hurt and his family, who left here some eight years ago, first going to Jacksonville, where Mr. Hurt was employed as engineer in the first quartz mill erected at the Opp mine (then the Beckman & Huffner mine) and afterwards to the coast near the mouth of Rogue river. The old acquaintances of the family will learn with regret that great sorrow has come to them. Last fall Mrs. Hurt and her son and daughter went to Chico, Calif., in order that the children might go to school. In May the daughter, aged seventeen, died from ptomaine poisoning and on June 11th the mother passed away from an attack of typhoid fever.

—Nearly new wood sawing outfit for sale. Price $500. Apply to J. A. Lyons, East Medford. 24-4f.

—Last week we unintentionally omitted to mention in the item concerning the First National Bank, that the elegant office fixtures and appointments were manufactured by Weeks Bros. & Co. This firm has done so much good work throughout Southern Oregon that the older residents don't need to be told about it, but some of the more recent arrivals may be interested to know that we have in the valley an institution capable of turning out the finest class of cabinet work. Mr. A. Johnson, the chief mechanic, is a first-class workman, as the goods show for themselves.

—Mrs. M. J. Beebe will rent her rooming house; also dining room and kitchen. For particulars address, B 130, Klamath Falls, Oregon.

—At the annual school meeting Monday L. G. Porter was elected director, to succeed S. L. Bennett. Carl T. Jones was re-elected clerk. No further business was transacted, owing probably to the small attendance. Too little interest is taken by the majority of our citizens in school meetings until something is done of which they don't approve, which action could have been prevented had they attended the meeting.

—Get prices for family washing at the Medford laundry. 25-4f.

—Father Lane, of Jacksonville, has been transferred to the Albany parish, and will leave early next week for his new field of work. He will hold services at the Catholic church in Medford Monday morning at 8 a. m., for the purpose of bidding farewell to his congregation. Father Lane has made many friends throughout Southern Oregon during his stay here and his departure will be greatly regretted.

—Blue prints of township maps, showing all vacant land, fifty cents each. For reliable information concerning Government land write to Frank E. Alley, Abstractor, Roseburg, Oregon.

—The bills for the authorized circulation of the First National Bank, of Medford, arrived Monday and are now ready for circulation. President Crowell and Cashier Alford have been busy signing them up this week. They are in denomination of $10 and $20, and D. T. Lawton is the proud possessor of the first $10 bill issued by the bank. Everything is now at hand needed to conduct banking business.

—All washing called for and delivered in the city limits by the Medford laundry. 25-4f.

—A clock, the case of which is made from stones of various colors, artistically arranged, is on exhibition in the Medford building, but nobody knows who made it. At the time it was brought in Mr. Holmes was extremely busy and failed to get the owner's name. If this happens to meet the eye of the maker he would confer a favor by forwarding his name to Mr. Holmes, so that his handiwork may be properly labeled.

—If you want Sweet Cream you can get it at the Creamery. 25 cents per quart and 15 cents per pint.

—Farmers who are contemplating the planting of vetch as a forage plant should take a look at the specimen exhibited by Wm. Clark. Mr. Clark has a quarter of an acre planted to vetch, which has made an enormous growth. The plant seems to be well adapted to this climate and the soil of the valley, and while it probably will not take the place of alfalfa, it can be grown in many places where alfalfa will not flourish.

—A big snap in millinery. Prices out square in to of everything in the millinery store. Miss Maud E. Wilson & Co., at the Gilbert & Sackett Bazaar. 21-5f.

—Posters are out for a Fourth of July celebration at Eagle Point, to wind up with a grand ball and supper, the proceeds of which will be used for the benefit of the newly organized band. The people of Eagle Point know how to enjoy themselves and to make the stranger within their gates feel at home.

—It is too hot to do your own washing. Have the Medford laundry do it. 25-4f.

—The Mail suggested a week or so ago that it wouldn't be a bad idea for property owners to remove the grass along the sidewalks in front of their property, thus helping the general appearance of the city streets. The suggestion has been followed in many cases, but there is still room for improvement.

—Guaranteed Forest Reserve scrip for sale, in large or small quantities, by Frank E. Alley, upstairs over Land Office, Roseburg, Oregon. Will place same for non-resident purchasers.

—A couple of weeks ago these columns told that Capt. Carroll had purchased the Rev. Hoxie farm, south of Medford, from Chas. Cox. Since then the deal has fallen through and it is all off. A payment of $40 had been made and this Mr. Carroll has forfeited.

—For sale:—A fine Cocker Spaniel, male pup, six months old. Inquire at this office.

—Lofland Bros., of Big Butte, have sent to the Medford exhibit building a portion of a petrified log found in that section. The piece is about twelve inches in diameter and when it is broken off the grain of the wood can be distinctly seen, and from its appearance the original tree had been an oak.

—Crystal & Talent, the up-to-date grocers, opened their store, on C street, of this week. They will call at your house every morning to take your orders. Save them for us. 25-4f.

—Dr. Hesse, the veterinary surgeon, has decided to go to Eugene for the practice of his profession. Doctor Hesse is a gentleman thoroughly qualified in every respect as a veterinary and during his stay here he has made many good friends, who will regret his departure.

—Beeson & Huger, Talent Nursery men, are prepared to fill orders for fruit trees in any quantity, for commercial orchards.

—Rev. C. L. McCauffman will preach in the M. E. church, South, next Sunday, in place of Rev. H. C. Brown, the resident pastor. Mr. McCauffman is a splendid speaker and those who do not hear him will miss a rare treat.

—Rooms can be reserved for Lewis and Clark fair, Portland, by applying to Carrie E. George. 75 cents per day and up.

—The blocks of white and sugar pine with the name of the Iowa Lumber & Box Co., printed thereon, which were distributed among the Nebraska lumbermen Tuesday, made very unique and appropriate souvenirs.

—You can have anything from the finest lace to the thickest carpet washed at the Medford laundry. 25-4f.

—Mr. Hartzell, of Medford Pharmacy, was severely bitten on the hand by Bert Whitman's dog. Dr. Morrison's quick treatment saved the inoculation of the tetanus poison by his Ec-Lectic treatment.

—Carload of cement and plaster Paris, just received. Am selling at lowest price. J. F. White. 21-4f.

—Among the class of 1905 of the Scottish Rite (32 degree) Masons upon whom the degree was recently conferred at Portland was J. D. Heard, of Medford. Col. R. A. Miller, of formerly of Jacksonville, is president of the class.

—Volney Dixon, agent for the Page patent woven wire fence, was over in Sams Valley last week and placed good sized orders for his fencing with Phil Loosely and W. W. Edington—with prospects for still larger orders.

—Wanted—A good milch cow—Jersey or Holstein preferred. Must be fresh and young. A. C. Allen. 25-4f.

—This week E. H. Dunham of Talent, sold a ten-acre tract near that town to C. D. Brooks, lately of Clinton, Missouri, for a consideration of $2800. The sale was made through the agency of the Rogue River Land Co.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Stoner, are now occupying the Enyart residence on West 6th street.

—It wouldn't be a bad idea for the health officer to investigate some of the back yards in the business part of the city. There are a few of them that need cleaning up pretty badly.

—J. E. Miller this week sold to W. J. West, lots 9 and 10, block 21, on North D street, for a consideration of $1050. The sale was made through the agency of W. T. York.

—The moving picture show at Wilson's opera house Friday and Saturday nights was fairly well attended and is reported to have been a very good performance of the kind.

—Miss Eisenhart, trained nurse, has moved her hospital from the Barnum building to the Scott residence, on North B street, formerly occupied by Prof. Narrogan.

—Glass Bros., of Beagle, are putting up a large barn on their place to house their immense crop of hay.

—A. W. Walker, the liverman, has moved to the Barnum residence, on North C street.
