

ANOTHER WAR IS IMMINENT

FRANCE IS NOW CONVINCED THAT GERMANY INTENDS TO PROVOKE A CRASH.

Great Britain Believes Aggression is Aimed at Her as Much as Against the French Republic.

New York, June 17.—A special to the Sun from London says: It can no longer be denied that we are in the presence of an international crisis of the first magnitude. Paris wires that the French government is almost convinced it is Germany's deliberate intention to provoke war. Orders were given by the minister of war on Wednesday to make every preparation to resist attack, all the officers and men on leave were ordered to rejoin their colors instantly, and special trains in all parts of the country have been facilitating the execution of the instructions.

Prime Minister Rouvier has adopted a most conciliatory attitude toward Germany, but every concession he makes inspires fresh demands until now the emperor asks in effect the cancellation of the Anglo-French entente.

The British government is fully aware that Germany's aggression is aimed quite as much at Great Britain as against France. Lord Lansdowne is all for peace, but the remainder of the cabinet are determined to resist with all the resources of the empire any serious encroachments on British interests.

Lansdowne has counseled France while avoiding all provocation, to preserve a firm attitude in the face of German aggression. Britain has also taken important independent action which is not yet disclosed. It will become known when the China squadron and other ships of the British navy, which are hastening homeward at top speed, approach their destination. It will be found as significant as the mobilization of the flying squadron, which was Great Britain's response to the Kaiser's famous Kruger letter.

There is reason also to believe that if France yields to German pressure in the matter of the international conference in regard to Morocco, Great Britain will veto it even if she stands alone. The British government and people were never more anxious for peace than now, but if the Kaiser should attempt to deal with this country as he is dealing with France, war would be a question only of hours.

Acute Rheumatism.
Deep tearing or wrenching pains, occasioned by getting wet through, worse when at rest, or on first moving the limbs or in cold or damp weather, is cured quickly by Ballard's Snow Liniment. Oscar Olsson, Gibson City, Illinois, writes, February 16, 1902, a year ago I was troubled with a pain in my back. It soon got so bad that I could not bend over. One bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me. 25 cents, 50 cents, $1.00. Sold by Chas. Strang.

Forced Japanese to Retire.
St. Petersburg, June 17.—General Linevitch in a dispatch to the emperor dated June 15 reports that a Russian turning movement forced the Japanese to retire from the Iulantsi June 11 after burning their supplies. Another Russian force June 12 advanced from the valley of the Tzta river to the village of Vanlongow, pushing back the Japanese posts. The same day the Russian cavalry occupying Nanshantchenz retired slightly northward.

CRUISER BEGS COAL SUPPLY.
Russian Warship Stops at Saigon on Her Way to Home Port.
Saigon, Cochinchina, June 17.—The Russian auxiliary cruiser Kouban, formerly the Hamburg-American line steamer Augusta Victoria, has arrived off this port and asked to be supplied with coal sufficient to reach the nearest Russian port. Her request is being considered.

"DO IT TO-DAY!"

"And to think that ten months ago I looked like this! I owe it to German Syrup."
The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Hinkle's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—and it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

The Kouban is fitted with a wireless telegraph apparatus and carries sixteen guns of small calibre. The Kouban did not participate in the battle of the Sea of Japan, having been dispatched from the Russian fleet to reconnoiter the east coast of Japan as far as Yokohama. On returning she learned of the disaster to Vice Admiral Rojestvensky and steamed to Cape St. James, near here.

Cuban Diarrhoea.
U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs, of Houston Texas: "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by Chas. Strang.

NEW JUDGE FOR OREGON.
Will be Appointed to Succeed Judge Bellinger, Deceased.

Portland, June 17.—Senator Fulton has announced that President Roosevelt would appoint W. W. Cotton of this city United States District Judge to succeed the late Charles B. Bellinger. It was before Judge Bellinger that the land fraud cases, in which Senator Mitchell is one of the defendants, were to be tried. His death made necessary the selection of a judge to try the cases and Judge De Haven of California was chosen.

As the new appointment will not take effect until September, it is believed that Judge De Haven will continue to hear the cases.

W. W. Cotton is the head of the legal department of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company. He is a lawyer of great ability and was associated with the late Judge Bellinger in codifying the laws of Oregon.

A dispatch from Sosnowice, Poland, reports that deaths from cholera are occurring daily there, and three suspected cases are reported at Tula. WARSHIPS VISIT PORTLAND.
Webfoot Metropolis Honored by Visit of Uncle Sam's Fighting Machines.
Portland, June 17.—The United States cruisers Chicago and Boston are anchored in the Willamette in front of the city. These vessels, with the torpedo boat Perry and the revenue cutter McCulloch, form an imposing fleet of warships which are swinging at their anchorage within sight of the Lewis and Clark centennial exposition grounds.

Next week the fleet will be added to by the presence of the Italian warship Umbria, which will arrive from the north to visit the exposition. Rear Admiral Goodrich and the executive staffs of the visiting cruisers were welcomed to the city by a party of business men headed by President Goodrich of the exposition.

The Chicago and Boston will remain here one week. A "naval day" will be celebrated at the exposition to give the men on board the visiting warships an opportunity to visit the exposition.

MANSLAUGHTER

MEN RESPONSIBLE FOR DEATHS DRUNG TEAMSTERS' STRIKE WILL BE INDICTED.

Chicago, June 17.—The grand jury room, where witnesses are being examined as to the payment of money for the settlement of strikes and regarding assaults upon non-union drivers, is still the center of interest in the teamsters' strike. The employers' association is resting and the teamsters' joint council has decided to meet only every other day. Nothing was heard about peace yesterday and there was no evidence of a strike on the streets. Deliveries of goods in all lines are almost normal.

While the statute of limitations may bar indictments for conspiracy to set strikes by the use of money, it is said to be certain that quite a number of indictments for manslaughter would be returned against persons claimed to be responsible for the deaths resulting from riots due to the teamsters' strike.

A number of business men and two women answered subpoenas to appear before the grand jury yesterday. The women were said to have lived at a hotel frequented by labor leaders.

SECRETARY HAY TAKES A REST.

Plans to Stay With Daughter at the Laurels for a Time.

New York, June 17.—Secretary of State John Hay has left the hotel in this city where he stopped last night and went to "The Laurels," the home of his daughter in Mineola. When asked as to his plans for the immediate future he said:

"I intend to remain with Mr. and Mrs. Whitney for a time. I can't say just how long. It is probable that I will run down to Washington for a few days soon and look over matters that need my attention in the state department. I don't intend to exert myself too much at first, for you know I am under orders from my physician to take the 'rest cure.'"

NO SECRET ABOUT IT.

It is no secret, that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. 25c at Chas. Strang's drug store.

COMMISSIONER ORDERS CHANGE.

Instructions for Medical Examination Shall Emanate From Bureau

Washington, June 17.—Commissioner of Pensions Warner has decided that after July 1 all orders for the medical examination of pension claims shall emanate from the medical branch of the bureau, under direction of the medical referee. The proposed change will dispense with the use of more than 200 rosters of examining surgeons.

The commissioner also contemplates changing the present method of keeping the records of claimants for pension on large, cumbersome books to the card system.

REMARKABLE TRIAL ENDED.

Negro Acquitted After Death Warrant Had Been Issued Ten Times.

Reading, Pa., June 17.—Samuel Greason, colored, has been acquitted of the murder of John Edwards. Mrs. Kate Edwards, wife of the murdered man, whose testimony over three years ago convicted Greason, yesterday completely exonerated him. Edwards was murdered nearly four years ago and Greason was arrested several months later. His death warrant had been issued ten times and his case has developed into one of the most remarkable murder trials in this state.

Mrs. Edwards, the mother of Greason's child, is under sentence of death, and it is understood that the governor will fix the date of her execution within a short time. It was postponed several months ago so that she could be used as a witness at the trial of Greason.

HANDS TIED BY COURT

MISSOURI COMMISSIONERS RESTRAINED FROM ENFORCING SCHEDULE.

Kansas City, Mo., June 17.—Judge Smith McPherson of Red Oak, Iowa, in the United States district court here has issued a temporary injunction restraining the state railway and warehouse commissioners and the attorney general of the state from enforcing the maximum freight law which has just gone into effect, and against three Kansas City shippers, preventing the latter from claiming penalties under the law.

The injunction was granted at the request of eighteen railways doing business in Missouri, who brought suit against the state officials on the ground that the rates provided in the new law are prohibitive and would amount to the confiscation of their property. The suit against the three Kansas City shippers is intended to cover the shippers of the state as a class, and the order of the state against them will restrain them from bringing action against the railways under the law. The order of the court is made returnable on June 26, when the railroads will seek to have it made permanent. At that time District Judge John F. Phillips will hear the case with Judge McPherson.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task, to undertake the cure of such a hard case of kidney disease, as that of O. P. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., by Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache, and depression in Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by Chas. Strang, Druggist; price 50c."

Contented in Spain.

There is one charming feature of Spain—a fine capacity to imagine yourself the center of the earth for the time being and yet not be offensive. You meet a man on a donkey in the interior and get to talking with him, and soon you learn that he has the finest donkey of the province, and so far from envying any man he is who is satisfied that he is exciting the admiration. If not the envy, of his neighbors. If I met that same sort of outfit in the mountains of Colorado or Nevada, the cavalier would be sure to hold his burro in contempt and would talk of the fine horse he meant to have when his mine had been developed. We Americans preach contentment, but we despise the people who are contented. The true Spaniard is thoroughly contented.—National Magazine.

Do Not Sleep on the Left Side.

There is little doubt that an immense number of persons habitually sleep on the left side, and those who do so can never, it is said, be strictly healthy. It is the most prolific cause of nightmare and also of the unpleasant taste in the mouth on arising in the morning. All food enters and leaves the stomach on the right side, and hence sleeping on the left side soon after eating involves a sort of pumping operation which is anything but conducive to sound repose. The action of the heart is also seriously interfered with and the lungs unduly compressed; hence it is best to cultivate the habit of always sleeping on the right side.

"The Lost Chord."

Sir Arthur Sullivan was at one time greatly worried about what appeared to him to be a bad incoherence in "The Lost Chord." Sir John Robinson tells the story: "The words are, 'I struck one chord of music like the sound of a great amen.' Now, amen is a word of two syllables, so that there must have been two chords. He did not notice this, he said, until after the song had been sung in public, and he was terribly afraid he would get laughed at for it. Strange to say, nobody ever seemed to have found it out."

Not a Lingering Fault.

"Dear Georgy has only one fault," said the bride of three short weeks. "He is such an awful flatterer." "That fault," rejoined her elder sister, who had been up against the matrimonial game for three long years, "will gradually disappear as the honeymoon wanes." "Oh, dear," sighed the bride, "I was in hopes it would last forever."—Chicago News.

The Value of a Dollar.

There are three ways to learn the value of a dollar. The first is to spend it and see what you get for it. The second is to earn it and see what you give for it. The third is to save it and yearn for all the things it might buy if you were weak enough to spend it.—Troy (Kan.) Chief.

JAPAN'S REPLY IS MADE PUBLIC

DESIRES PEACE IN THE INTEREST OF THE WORLD AS WELL AS IN THE INTEREST OF JAPAN

Expected That Three Plenipotentiaries Will be Chosen by Each Side—Itō and Nelidoff the Leaders.

Washington, June 17.—The following is the text of the Japanese reply to President Roosevelt's identical note to Japan and Russia on the subject of negotiations for peace:

"The imperial government has given to the suggestions of the president of the United States embodied in the note handed to the minister of foreign affairs by the United States minister on the 9th inst, very serious consideration to which, because of its source and its import, it is justly entitled. Desiring, in the interest of the world, as well as in the interest of Japan, the re-establishment of peace with Russia on terms and conditions that will fully guarantee its stability, the imperial government will, in response to the suggestion of the president, appoint plenipotentiaries of Japan to meet the plenipotentiaries of Russia at such time and place as may be found to be mutually agreeable and convenient for the purpose of negotiating and concluding terms of peace directly and exclusively between the two belligerent powers."

Washington, June 17.—Following the selection of Washington as the seat of the conference which it is hoped may eventually in a permanent peace in the Far East, there is a lull in the negotiations.

It was indicated that the selection of the plenipotentiaries will be the next step.

It is now expected that the announcement of the selection of the plenipotentiaries will be promulgated in Washington after the two governments shall have communicated their selections to President Roosevelt.

It is probable that the formal announcement of the selection will be made here practically coincident with the president's communications to Russia and Japan.

It is learned authoritatively that M. Nelidoff, the Russian ambassador to Paris, will become of the plenipotentiaries for the St. Petersburg government, and that Marquis Itō will probably be the principal representative of Japan. Itō's selection is certain provided his health will permit him to participate in the treaty negotiations.

So far as can be ascertained here the number of the plenipotentiaries to be named by each government has not been determined, but it is expected now that the number will not exceed three each.

It is not unlikely that the names of the plenipotentiaries and the time agreed upon for the assembling of the conference will be made next week.

Appropriations.

"Our language is a strange thing. When the Methodist board of missions appropriates hundreds of thousands of dollars for work among the heathen there is rejoicing among church people. When congress appropriates a good sum for river and harbor improvements we all agree that it is quite a good thing. But when a clerk appropriates a few hundred dollars of his employer's money he is sent to the penitentiary. The first sorts of appropriations are quite appropriate, but the last sort is altogether inappropriate.—Savannah News.

Curran's Return.

Curran's return was tickled by the orator's retort approval of the jury system. The friend was bragging of his attachment to it and said, "With trial by jury I have lived and, by the blessing of God, with trial by jury I will die!"

"Oh," said Curran in amazement, "then you've made up your mind to be hanged, Dick!"

Amended.

When a Scotch schoolmaster entered the temple of learning one morning he read on the blackboard, "Our teacher is a donkey."

The pupils expected there would be a cyclone, but the philosophic pedagogue contented himself with adding the word "driver" and opened the school as usual.

No Genius Wanted.

"Really, I think your son is a genius."

"Oh, don't say that! We have been hoping all along that he may grow up to be a good, sensible man and finally succeed his father in business."—Chicago Record-Herald.
