A Hoodoo Car.

The Redding Free Press says: The dining car "San Pedro" seems to take special delight in getting off the track at Delta. Twice within two weeks has this car left the track at a point just above the Delta depot, and twice has the southbound train been delayed for two hours because of this car's restlessness. The southbound express due in Redding at 10:30 did not arrive until 12:30 Friday. The delay was due to the jumping from the rails of the diner "San Pedro." The car left the rails at the identical spot that it flew the track on August 19th, and at the same time of day. No one was injured this time, however.

A Freak Tree.

G. T. Ray, who lives two and a half miles northwest of Eugene, has a freak apple tree. It might be classed as a perpetual fruit raiser. Mr. Ray brought to the Register office yesterday apples matured, apples of half size and apples just formed from the bloom and fresh blossoms, all from the same tree. Thus the tree shows fruit in all stages of development. The tree from which these samples were taken is of the Gravenstein variety.—Eugene Register.

Reduced Rate to Visiting Easterners.

The Southern Pacific Co. will make a rate of one fare for the round trip from Portland to all points in Oregon, Ashland and north for visitors from the east to the Exposition at Portland, to enable them to look over Western Oregon with the view of settling or investing. These tickets will be good for 15 days limit with stop over at all intermediate points, and will be sold to holders of the Exposition round trip tickets from points east of the Rocky mountains.

This will afford the various counties and communities that will maintain exhibits and advertise in other ways at the Exposition, every inducement to have Eastern people visit their section.

Ashland "Blind Piggers" Put Up $750.

Ashland Blind Piggers Put up $750.

From the Ashland Tribune: The "blind pig" cases, which have occupied the attention of the public during the past few days, have been finally disposed of and the city has scored a signal victory.

Yesterday morning a conference was held between the city attorney and the mayor and the defendants in the cases and a compromise was affected whereby the city receives $750 and the defendants promise to give no further offense.

The defendant firms of Sonnichsen and Murphy and Millon and Gillette pay $300 each and J. T. Roberts pays $150.

The amount of $100 was advanced by each firm and bankable notes for the balance payable after ninety days were taken in each case.

The Tribune tells of the following trump card which was played by the prosecution during the trial:

"The defense called Sonnichsen to the stand and he testified that he was not a partner of Murphy, but that the business below belonged to him and that the confectionery department is the property of Murphy. At this juncture the prosecution flashed their 'trump card' in the shape of a government license issued to the firm of Murphy and Sonnichsen and thereby the defendant Sonnichsen in the opinion of the prosecuting attorney, was made liable to a charge of perjury."

Sonnichsen spent one night in the city jail, as a charge of perjury was to be entered against him, but after the compromise had been effected he was released.

Southern Pacific Reduced Rates.

On account of the Lewis and Clark Fair at Portland the Southern Pacific Company will sell tickets to Portland and return, daily, from May 25th to October 15th, 1905, as follows:

Individual tickets, limited to 30 days, for one and a third fare—$13.20. Party tickets, ten or more, (must travel together both ways) one fair for the round trip—$9.30; limited to ten days.

Parties of 100 or more, moving on same date; individual tickets at one fare for round trip—$9.30; limited to ten days.

GRAUSTARK

We have a good one for our readers now—GRAUSTARK, THE STORY OF A LOVE BEHIND A THRONE, BY GEORGE BARR MCCUTCHEON.

Marie Bankhead Owen, reviewing the story in the Bookworm, says: A practical bookman has just said, "no book since Tribby has taken so great a hold on the popular fancy as Graustark."

Being a story of love behind a throne, it teems with scenes of adventure and impassioned romance.

The author, George Barr McCutcheon, himself an American, has given the reader a noble example of an ideal American as hero.

The plot is thrilling and well sustained, the story being told in vivid, terse English.

The motive of the story is the love of a man and a woman, and what that love emboldens them to venture, to dare, to renounce, to endure!

It is beyond the province of the reviewer to reduce the plot of a masterpiece of fiction to a compressed summary of the story. A zealous story reader delights in the discovery of what happened next as well as to revel in the style and the literary atmosphere.

I would as soon be given a glass of skimmed milk or a squeezed lemon as a book of fiction accompanied with a synopsis of its contents. Graustark I leave therefore to the pleasure of the prospective reader.

The story will begin in a few days, and we believe you will thoroughly enjoy it. Of one thing we are sure—a more thrilling romance you have never read.

Honor Your Dear Old Mother.

BY J. G. MARTIN.

Time has scattered the snowy flakes on her brow, plowed deep furrows on her cheek, but is she not sweet and beautiful still? The lips which have kissed many a hot tear from your childish cheek, are the sweetest lips in all the world. The eye is dim, yet it glows with the rapid radiance of a holy love which can never fade.

Oh, yes, she is a dear old mother. Her hands of time are nearly run out, but feeble as she is she will go further and reach down lower than any one else for you on this earth. You cannot walk into night's darkness where she cannot see you; you cannot enter a dark, dismal prison, whose bars shall keep her out; you can never mount a scaffolding so high that she will not climb to kiss and bless you in evidence of her deathless love. When the world will despise and forsake you, when it leaves you in the ditch by the wayside, to die unnoticed, that dear old mother will gather you in her feeble arms, carry you home and tell you of all your goodness until you almost forget that your soul is stained by vice.

Then, boys and girls, love her tenderly, cheer her declining years with holy devotion.

Secure Rooms Now.

To the people of Medford and vicinity: If you should want rooms during the Lewis and Clark fair call on Mrs. L. T. Pierce, formerly of Medford. Terms, $1.00 and $1.50 per day; residence 501 East Oak street, corner 10th, Portland Oregon. 20-1f

In Recorder Toft's Court.

City Recorder Toft has been kept busy this week, listening to charges preferred by Chief of Police Angle. Two of our prominent saloon men were arrested Monday, charged with conducting gambling games and they were given the minimum fine of $20 each, which was paid.

D. B. Morrison, H. Williams and Jas. Maier were arrested, charged with being drunk and disorderly. They were fined $10 each. Williams paid his fine, but the other two are now "laying out" their fines in the city bastille. This "laying out" fine is not so much of a snap as one might suppose. Instead of lying idle in the city jail, Chief of Police Angle puts them to work on the streets and the fines are thus worked out.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH. Next Sunday at 11 a. m., a sermon to the children. Union service at 8 p. m. in the Presbyterian church. Sunday school at 10 a. m.

W. F. SHIELDS, Pastor.

GERMAN LUTHERAN CHURCH.

Sunday at 11 a. m., the pastor will preach from Luke 15:1-10, "Jesus the Savior of the Sinner." 1st—His finding of the sinner. 2d—His finding of the sinner.

F. SACK, Pastor.
