BEQUESTS OF HEARTS.

The Dying Wish of Brace and is. Fate of Douglas. Bequests of hearts have been by no means uncommon. Richard Cocur a Lion bequeathed his heart to the can of Rouen eathedral, and in July, this remarkable relic was one again brought to light after the laps of six conturies. The heart, which is said to have been surprisingly large, was inclosed in boxes of lead and silver and withered, as it was described to the semblance of a fixed leaf.

to the semiblance of a rated left, Bruce's heart was by his dying wish intrusted to Douglas to fulfill a vov which he had been unable to execute in person of visiting the sequicher of Christ. Douglas, "tender and true," promised to fulfill his sovereign's last request and after Bruce's denth hav-

Proceeding to Spain, however, 1.5 fell in the thick of a digit with the large onsis the heart of Bruce from his breast, when he carried it into the rainiss of the infides crying "Onward as these the infidels, crying, "Onward as those wort wont; Douglas will follow thee?" Bruce's heart was afterward recovere-by Sir Si.son Lockhart, by whom I was brought to Scotland and burle along with the bones of Douglas in th abbey of Melrose. When the remains of Bruce were disinterred at Dunferm line in 1810 the breastbone was found sawed through so as to permit of the removal of the heart.

DIED WITH HIS CHUM.

A Deed of Herotam That Stirred an Eatire Army. In the reminiscences of General Sin Evelyn Wood, himself a brave English soldier, a touching instance of courage and self sacrifice is given. One Jun-day in 1885 a detachment of English marines was crossing the Woronzov road under fire from the Russian haterios. All of the mon reached shelter in the trenches except a seaman, John Blowlit. As he was running a terrific roar was heard. His mates knew th volce of a huge cannon, the terror the army, and yelled: "Look out! It is Whistling Dick!"

But at the moment Blewitt was struck by the enormous mass of irot on the knees and thrown to the ground He called to bis special chum:

"Oh, Welch, save me!"

Welch ran out of the trenches and, seizing the great shell, tried to roll it off his comrade.

It exploded with such terrific force that not an atom of the bodies of Blewitt and Welch was found. Even in that time when each hour had its ex-citement this deed of heroism stirred the whole English army. One of the officers searched out Welch's ofd mother in her poor home and undertook her support while she lived, and the story of his death helped his comrades to nobler conceptions of a soldier's duty.

The Lavish Jenkins

In October, 1886, a religiously mind-ed Buckinghamshire farmer named Jenkins brought his firstborn to the parish church to be christened, and this was to be the name: Abel Benja min Caleb Daniel Ezra Felix Gabrie Haggai Isanc Jacob Kish Levi Ma-noah Nehemiah Obdiah Poter Quartus Rechab Samuel Toblah Uzzlel Vaniah Word Xystus Zechariah. It will be observed that the names are all arranged in alphabetical order and are as far as possible selected from Scrip ture. It was only with the very great est difficulty that the clergyman dis sunded Mr. Jenkins from doing the lasting wrong to his child that he had unwittingly devised, but eventually it was decided to christen the boy simply Abel-Chambers' Journal.

Handy Feat.

Mr. Nolan's description of an acro batic performance was clear enough to any listener, although his excitement over it led his tongue, as usual, into unfrequented mazes of speech,

"Lo was a wonderful man, that man was," said Mr. Nolan to his audience. "You'd see him go up a ladder wid the ind of it up in the air and the bottom of it risting on a kind of a sofa piller, an' you'd say, 'There's a man going to his death.'

"But was he? Not a bit of it! Anny man that can get such a foothold on the air wid his hands and be as handy wid his feet as a monkey there's no fear for him?"---Xouth's Companion,

WILD DOGS OF ASIA

Pierce Animals That Pursue a Kill Dears and Tigers.

The quality of courage possessed by hunting dogs of Asia appears in a marked difference of habit from that noticeable in all other carnivorous beasts. As a rule, each ferocious ani-mal has its natural and favorite prey, which may vary in different localities, but is in each case the easiest and most profitable victim. Tigers, for instance, are cattle slayers or deer hillers, just as cattle or deer happen to be most abundant in their district.

Leopards prey on grats, sheep and, keep and the set them, on tame dogs; wolves on sheep and cattle, stoats or rabbits and hares, and weareas on rats and man.
