CITY HAPPENINGS.

J. A. Slade, who arrived from Alberta, B. C., some weeks ago, has purchased an interest with J. A. Elm-hirst in the Nash Livery Stables and hereafter these two gentlemen will "work double" in the conduct of the business. Under the management of Mr. Elm-hirst and his former partner, A. W. Walker, the Nash stables have acquired an enviable reputation for the quality of the rigs turned out and the courteous treatment accorded to all, and the new firm assures the public that the future policy of the concern will be the same. Both are energetic business men and vital gentlemen with whom it is a pleasure to do business.

For Sale—Choke apple, pear and alfalfa land, with or without irrigating water, near station, five to forty acre tracts; 10 years' time; 7 per cent. Also will exchange you choice of several tracts for improved property in Ashland, Medford or Grants Pass. Ben A. Lowell, Woodville, Oregon.

The Globe saloon on D street was entered Sunday morning by burglars and the contents of the register—a few dollars in change—and what money was in the slot machines, the amount of which is not definitely known, was taken. Also the owners believe that the robbers fortified themselves for a dry Sunday, by stealing a number of bottles of liquor. Entrance was gained through the back door. An empty barrel in the backyard was placed against the door, enabling the burglar to open the transom and reach the door on the inside and unlock it. This is the second burglary in this saloon within three years, but the first attempt resulted in the capture of the robbers.

The large plate glass windows which we have recently put in our store front enables us to make a fitting display of some of the excellent goods we carry in stock. See our window display Saturday, April 21st. Medford Furniture Co.

The habit which some of our boys and young men have of playing ball on the streets and in public places where people are continually passing, is a very dangerous sport, and there should be an ordinance passed by the city council prohibiting it. It was only last week that Miss Grace Law-ton, while walking on West Seventh street, was struck on the side of her head with a ball and was knocked down, and was unconscious for some little time. Another lady walking on the streets with two children was struck on the head. The boys do not injure these people intentionally, but this fact does not relieve the suffering.

Lots for sale in Kendall's addition, north end of town. Easy terms; any kind of terms—50 cents or $1 per week. C. W. Palm. 15-1m Postmaster Woodford is determined to give the public the best accommodations possible, and to this end is having forty-eight new lock boxes installed. This will improve the service a great deal, as with the growth of Medford the demand for boxes has exceeded the supply right along. With the new lock boxes Medford will have as neat and convenient a postoffice as any in Southern Oregon, as it already has one of the most painstaking and accommodating postmasters.

Keep your eye on the Medford Furniture Co.'s display window Saturday, April 21st.

A. W. Walker has purchased an interest in the Hale Piano House, and from the start he made will be a success in that line. The ink wasn't dry on the partnership agreement before he sold an organ, and has been making things hum ever since. Mr. Walker was formerly proprietor of the Nash stables and while there made a host of warm friends, who wish him the best of fortune in his new line.

Miss Kuss, florist, has for sale garden and flower plants in the following varieties: Early and late cabbage, cauliflower, tomato, egg plants, parsley, large sweet and hot peppers, celery, large ferns, lace ferns, aster, giant candytuft, verbenas, pansies, bedding geraniums, rose bushes, double petunias, carnations, chrysanthemums. 16-1t

Died—In Medford, April 12, 1906, Gertrude, infant daughter of E. W. and Myrtle Scott; aged one year, ten months and seven days, of bronchitis. The funeral took place at the residence of the parents on Friday, April 13th, at 2 o'clock p. m., Rev. C. H. Hoxie officiating. The sympathy of the friends of the family is with the bereaved parents in their affliction.

School Notes.

A number of patrons and friends have visited the school of late. We are always glad to see them and more would be welcome.

Following is the form we prefer for excuses: "— was detained at home Tuesday p. m. on account of illness (or necessary work.)"

A mass meeting is to be called soon to decide in regard to the new building. Have your mind made up to vote for the best place.

About forty pupils, upon written requests of their parents, were excused at 3:00 p. m., to attend the Warde matinee Monday. A larger number attended in the evening. All were delighted at the splendid interpretation of Shakespeare by this famous actor.

A large audience greeted the Dixie Jubilee Singers Tuesday evening. It was indeed a delightful musical treat to hear the melodious voices of such a company of singers. For purity, richness and finish their progress cannot be excelled by any other like organization.

Arbor Day was fittingly observed by the city schools. An hour in the morning was spent in cleaning up the school ground. From two to three o'clock appropriate programs were rendered in each department. At 3:00 each grade marched to a place previously prepared for a tree. At the top of the bell all began planting and dedicating their trees. It was an impressive sight. Fifteen new trees now adorn the school grounds. Mr. Hull secured a view of the exercises with the school building in the background.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Whereas, it has pleased the Supreme Ruler to remove from our midst our esteemed Neighbor Woodman, Charles G. Johnson, be it

RESOLVED: That Medford Camp No. 90, W. O. W., in particular and Woodcraft in general has suffered a severe and irreparable loss and its members deeply deplore the taking away of a true and tried friend, and be it further

RESOLVED: That this Camp, acting on behalf of the entire membership of our esteemed order, extend its fraternal hand of condolence to the bereaved wife and family of our late lamented Neighbor in sincerest sympathy.

Signed by committee:
FRANK W. WAIT,
W. H. MEEKER,
BEN. J. TROWBRIDGE,
Medford, Oregon, April 12, 1906.

A Deed of Appreciation.

The members of the Baptist church treated their pastor in their usual generous manner at the morning service Sunday by requesting that he attend the Pacific Coast Baptist Conference, which convened at Portland on Monday, and accompanying the request with the necessary funds for expenses on the trip. This meeting will be the largest ever held by the Baptists on the coast, and the action of his congregation was doubly appreciative in Mr. Carsten's eyes from the fact that it was entirely unexpected by him and that he was debating with himself whether to take the time from his work here to attend or not. He left on Monday evening's train for Portland.

School Report.

Following is the report of the Forest creek school for the month ending April 13th:
