It's a good idea to be "non-partisan" in casting your vote, if you are a Republican, otherwise you should vote the straight Democratic ticket. Great scheme, that non-partisan plea. It's designed to "catch 'em comin' an' go!"

cultural College before he entered upon his campaign for governor," says George. Of course he should, just like George resigned his office as district attorney—just about a minute before he was inaugurated as governor. The only difference is that Mr. Withycombe will not have the appointment of his successor, and George, by holding on until the last minute, was able to give one of his friends a fat job in Multnomah county.

"Cheat! Liar! Fraud!!!" Democrats are supporting Roosevelt with the foregoing as their special terms of endorsement. Will Republicans be fooled again and place the appointing power in the hands of a Democratic governor?—Albany Herald.

Our Democratic friends declare that it is an "insult to the manhood of the voter to demand that he vote a straight ticket," referring, of course, to the Republican request of such nature, and in the next breath declare that the "Democratic ticket is a good one from top to bottom and should be supported in its entirety." It seems to depend a great deal with the Democracy on from which end of the question the view is taken.

the hearty support of every Republican in the county. The Democracy doesn't like the idea of the Republicans voting straight, and we can't blame them, for they must have Republican votes in order to win, but they can't advance any reason, other than that of personal friendship, against a Republican voting for his party nominee.

If there are any of the citizens of Medford who aspire to a seat in the city council let them wait in patience. The opportunity will come to all, sooner or later.

Republican voters, just take a good look at your ballot before you cast it on Monday next. Compare the Republican candidates with their opponents and then reply sincerely to the question: "Is there any reason, moral or political, why I should not vote for my party nominee?" Lay aside your personal prejudices and vote in the interest of the whole community, and there will be no tear of the result. The Republican ticket from governor to coroner is a good one and is worthy of your support, and you will beside have the consciousness of aiding in the election of a first-class set of officials.

Next Monday, June 4th, will be election day, when the voters of Oregon will be called upon to express their preference for the men they wish to see elected to office, and the Mail wishes to call the attention of the Republican voters to their party ticket. It is essentially a ticket nominated by the people. The candidates upon that ticket came out in the open and waged their fight for the nomination and won, and are entitled to the suffrages of all Republicans. The campaign was made cleanly throughout and the defeated aspirants are all lined up in support of their successful opponents. There was no "mass meeting," in effect a convention, to "suggest" a ticket for nomination, but everybody was free to go before the people as a candidate. As a consequence none but men fully qualified and whose records would bear inspection made the race, and the result is that the Republican ticket is composed of men well qualified for the office to which they aspire, and there is no reason why it should not receive

There is just cause for complaint on the part of the residents along the Southern Pacific line from Dunsmuir to Roseburg, a distance of 245 miles, because they were not only deprived of mail service, but of transportation facilities for over sixty hours last week, on account of a landslide near Shaeta Springs. There was no reason why the people living along the line of the road between these two towns, and the country contributory thereto should not have been supplied with a local service. The rolling stock and track from Dunsmuir north was in good condition. If a mail carrier on a route that barely pays expenses misses one call box on the line, he is called to account and fined unless he can show mighty good reasons for the omission, while a railroad can deprive a stretch of country 245 miles long and nearly as many broad of a local mail without so much as a reprimand. It doesn't look fair to most of the people.

The Republican Candidates.

The county ticket nominated by the Republicans at the primary election is one of the best ever put up by any political party in this county and should be elected from top to bottom. Below we give a few of the many reasons why each individual candidate should be supported.

Wm. I. Vawter, for joint representative, bases his claims for re-election upon his record in the legislature of 1905. Mr. Vawter's residence in Jackson county of nearly twenty years has caused him to be thoroughly interested in the progress of Southern Oregon, and has made him competent to look out for his constituents in legislative matters.

E. T. Staples, candidate for state senator, is one of those men who ask no odds from anyone. Whenever Staples makes up his mind to do anything he gives his entire mind and energy to the accomplishment of that object. He is active, energetic and brainy. Jackson county could have no better representative in the upper house than E. T. Staples.

Henry D. Kubli, for representative, is a "native son." He was born in Jackson county and has spent his lifetime here. He has always been one of the leaders in every movement tending toward the progress of Southern Oregon, and his ability to "do things" is unquestioned.

J. W. Perkins, candidate for representative, is one of the leading fruit-growers of the valley. He is progressive, energetic and capable. He and Kubli will make a strong team in the house.

D. H. Jackson, candidate for sheriff, is well-known throughout the county. Mr. Jackson has represented Jackson county in the legislature, and was also in charge of the Jackson county exhibit at the Lewis and Clark fair. He is fully competent to fill the office of sheriff.

Will R. Coleman, for county clerk, is another "native of the soil." He was born on the Coleman farm, near Phoenix, and has passed the greater part of his life in this county. He is now engaged in the general mercantile business in his native village, and served a term as postmaster. He has all the qualities that go toward making a first-class official.

Jas. M. Cronemiller, candidate for county treasurer, has resided in Jacksonville since his infancy. For many years he worked with his father as a blacksmith, but for the past ten years has been conducting one of the leading merchandize stores of Jacksonville. He has been repeatedly elected treasurer of Jacksonville. He has a record absolutely untarnished.

Joshua Patterson, for county commissioner, needs no encomiums from us. His record is known to the people, and as a result of that knowledge his election is assured. He is an enthusiastic advocate of good roads, and with that enthusiasm has a lot of practical knowledge which he loses no opportunity to apply.

R. T. Burnett, candidate for recorder, is a young Republican who, after serving his party faithfully, asks recognition. Dr. Burnett, since his coming to Jackson county in 1890, has always been eager and willing to lend his best efforts toward helping the cause of the Republican party. Besides he is qualified in every way to fill the office of county recorder and promises to devote his lifetime to the duties of the office.

A. E. Kellogg, candidate for coroner, has been a resident of Jackson county since 1891, and has been engaged in the furniture and undertaking business in Gold Hill. Mr. Kellogg has served both as secretary and chairman of the Republican central committee and also as deputy assessor. In his professional capacity as an undertaker and embalmer he ranks high in the county.

Garl T. Jones, for county surveyor, isn't going to have any trouble at all. There are no candidates nominated against him, but just the same he should be voted for, to show good will, if nothing else.

A vote for Henry Kubli is a vote for an active, energetic, aggressive Republican citizen. You won't have to send out a searching party to find where he is when he gets to the legislature. You'll find him on the firing line all the time "doing things." He isn't much on spread eagle oratory, but he can and will work.

VAN DYKE IS FOR JACKSON

The following letter from S. G. Van Dyke to Chairman McCown, of the Republican central committee, is published as a refutation of the rumor that Mr. Van Dyke and his friends were not supporting D. H. Jackson for sheriff:

PHOENIX, Oregon, May 28, 1906.
To M. F. McCown, Chairman Republican Central Committee, Medford, Oregon.

DEAR SIR:—I desire to authorize you to say that the rumor which has been circulated, leading my friends to believe that I am not supporting Mr. D. H. Jackson for sheriff, is untrue and without foundation. The people at the primary election nominated Mr. Jackson, and although I was defeated, I not only feel it my duty to support Mr. Jackson as the Republican nominee, but also wish all of my friends to know I am lending every aid that I can toward Mr. Jackson's election and I sincerely hope that my friends will join with me in supporting him. The same, as I feel satisfied, he and his friends would have done for me, had I been the fortunate nominee.

Sincerely yours,
S. G. VAN DYKE.

Will Court Hall's Reply to Dr. Clarence True Wilson's Article Regarding the Proposed Amendment to the Local Option Law Make Votes?

Mr. Court Hall, of this city, has published in the Southern Oregonian, as his own, a reply to Dr. Clarence True Wilson's article regarding the proposed amendment to the local option law. As a matter of fact this reply is copied from a circular letter which is sent out by the Brewers and Liquor Dealers' Association of Oregon. It is not his own reply. This reply, therefore, expresses not only what Court Hall may think of the local option law, but the objections of the liquor dealers generally.

There are three things to be said about this reply: First—It is not Court Hall's reply. He has practiced plagiarism. Second—It assumes that the liquor dealers' business is just as legitimate and right as any other business and so ought to be dealt with as any other business. They call themselves "liquor merchants"—and place themselves on the same plane with other merchants. As a matter of fact they have no right to conduct such a business. No man has the right to do wrong. The whole liquor business is wrong and though a man may be licensed to run a saloon he has no right to do it and the people ought to have the right to prohibit him from doing it. The proposed amendment, if carried, practically takes this right away from the people. Third—The reply doesn't take up and discuss a single important feature of the proposed amendment. It barely mentions that under the proposed amendment it will be necessary to have thirty per cent of the voters on a petition to call an election. It now requires ten per cent and that is more than is required for any other question. They raise the per cent from ten to thirty to make it practically impossible for an election to be called.

It discusses at great length "PRECINCT LOCAL OPTION." Much of the reply is based on a would-be argument that local option is not local option unless it is confined to a SINGLE PRECINCT.

When South Medford precinct went "DRY" under the local option law the saloon people made a great cry that North and South Medford ought to have been taken together. Before the election they talked that the whole county ought to be taken together. North and South Medford precincts ought to be taken together and so ought the whole county. There can be nothing "unfair" about county local option. Precinct local option is a pretext to throw the reader off the real change which the proposed amendment, if carried, would make. Court Hall's reply (?) does not point out the unfair part of counting all votes cast at the election as being for the saloon, unless the voter votes against the saloon; he (?) does not point out the fact that all the articles in the present local option law regarding penalties attached for the violation of it are changed and greatly in favor of the saloon men. Dr. Clarence True Wilson's article is published in the Medford Mail and covers all of these points. Read it. Read again the local option law and then the proposed amendment. Copies of both can be had at Dr. Corpron's office.

Will Court Hall's reply (?) make votes? When a saloon man comes out in an article supporting an amendment to a law governing his business, it is time for thoughtful persons to ask if the proposed amendment may not have in it something that will be decidedly injurious to their interests. Yes, Court Hall's reply (?) will make votes—but they will be marked "305 X No." They will be votes AGAINST the proposed amendment.

City Council Proceedings.
A special meeting of the city council was held Saturday evening for the purpose of listening to pro and con there should be, to the establishing of sewer district No. 5. There were no protests and now the recorder is receiving bids for the construction of the system.

The matter of a petition which had been circulated and signed by about 200 persons, asking that a special election be called, which election would authorize the sale or lease of the light and water plants, was brought up and discussed quite at length—and quite heatedly. The discussion was principally between Mayor Bradshaw and Councilman Osenbruge, in which there was a decided variance of opinion.

The matter was not brought before the board.
At this meeting Edgar Hafer's resignation as councilman was filed and accepted.

A special called meeting was held Monday at which the resignations of Mayor Bradshaw and Recorder Toft were read and accepted. The resignations are effective after June 12th.
Ben J. Trowbridge was appointed councilman from the second ward, in place of J. W. Cox, resigned; appointment accepted. Scott Davis was also appointed councilman from the third ward; appointment not accepted. The First National Bank was granted a permit to put a new front into their building—the Medford book store.

A Misstatement Corrected
A great deal of publicity has been given to the statement that K. T. Burnett, Republican candidate for recorder, would not, in the event of his election, give his personal attention to the office, but would delegate its duties to a deputy. This statement is emphatically denied by Mr. Burnett, and he assures the people that if they see fit to elect him, he will take personal charge of the office and that they will always find him there ready and willing to serve them. No better selection could be made for this important office than R. T. Burnett. He has all the necessary qualifications to make a competent and popular official. He is honest, obliging and has the clerical ability to carry on the office. Vote for Bob Burnett and you can't go wrong.

Jackson for Sheriff.
D. H. Jackson was born in Hampden, Maine, in the year of 1876. He is a graduate of the Hampden Academy, and also a graduate of the Maine Commercial College. He has a wide experience in business and has always made a success in all his undertakings. He has been a resident of Jackson county for twenty years and has a wide acquaintance, and the people of Jackson county want a man who can handle the sheriff's office in a business manner. This will be established to a certainty by giving him a large majority.

Residence and Business Property in Medford.

WITH the country filling up rapidly and the fact evident that Medford is going to double in population within the next three years, the sagacious among our citizens are getting hold of inside property and securing the most desirable residence property, in advance of the newcomer, and we want to call attention to the number of good business propositions which we now have on our list. Call and talk it over, and you will find some talking to interest you.

AND RESIDENCE LOTS: We have concluded to meet the demand for small lots of good rich land by dividing the large lots of the Garnett Sub-Division into average sized building lots to give the people what they want, and will give good terms and cheap prices. LOOK THIS MATTER UP and ACT at ONCE.

THERE Never was a Better Time to invest in Medford property than right now, and if you do NOT Secure a Nice Home this Spring, you will wonder in a month from now how you came to be so short-sighted as to let the opportunity go by.

It will pay you to look over the List of Medford Property for Sale, by the
