

A LITTLE OF EVERYTHING

No less than seventy-one amateur poets have sent John D. Rockefeller, Jr., congratulatory poems on his son's birth.

Sarah Bernhardt has said that she will never visit the United States again. Sarah is possessed of such a delightful strain of humor!

From the number of genuine photographs of the bombthrowing at Madrid that are now being published, that event must have been carefully planned and extensively advertised.

About the only thing that does not get on the bargain counter is the marriage license; and if it did it would not be worth the price.

What a splendid world it would be if we were all unselfish and altruistic enough to let our brother get the best of it, or the profit, in every trade we make!

An Alabama paper urges the need of more water troughs, on the ground that a man can hustle for water, while a horse cannot. But the question as it is to Alabama is, will a man hustle for water?

Salem gets $15,000, Baker City $60,000 and Eugene $50,000 in the public buildings bill. There are at least three places in Oregon where the pork bar will be mentioned with respect.

The citizen who doesn't value his right of suffrage highly enough to register ought not to be allowed to vote. Voting by certificate is a premium on fraud, indifference and neglect. There should be an end to it.

A Missouri editor says that the biggest trust on earth is the country newspaper combine. It trusts everybody, gets cussed for trusting, mistrusted for causing and if it busts for trusting, gets cussed for busting.

Furniture is made to be used and books to be read. If the disarranging of a chair or the misplacing of a book needs the order of a room, something is wrong. The order that faints at sight of a bit of dust, the order that locates every chair and table by a chalk mark, is not the order that is vital.

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have plugged, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIvor, of Vancouver, B. C., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed to cure cough and cold cure, at Chas. Strang's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Klamath County News.

From Klamath Falls Express:
Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett Obenchain, parents of Sheriff Obenchain, arrived here from Central Point, Jackson county, last week and will stay about six weeks in Klamath county, visiting their sons. They are now with their son, Frank, in Langell Valley.
O. B. Gates, while at work on the telephone line near Altamont last Sunday noon, was overcome by the heat and has since been confined to his bed at his home in this city. Mr. Gates was accompanied by his two small boys, who could render him no assistance and he has no clear recollection of how he got into the buggy and returned home. Under the care of Dr. Geo. Morryman, Mr. Gates is improving and will soon be able to attend to his business again.
The new contractors take charge of the mail routes on July 1st. There are few changes from the old regime. The Klamath Falls-Pokigama line remains under the same management, the Traveler Co., J. L. Yaden will run the line from this city to Port Klamath and also the line from here to Merrill, Honcho to Dale Lake, Cross & Lamborn, of Los Angeles will run the Lakeview-Klamath Falls route. A portion of their equipment is already on the ground, and they are now buying stock as they are able to give a first-class service.
W. H. Holabird, who is well known in this city as being formerly connected with the Klamath Development Co., is here for a short visit, after six months' sojourn in the Orient, and a long illness in Los Angeles following his return. He is looking fine and states that he greatly enjoyed his drive from the Central Pacific railway north through the timber to the valleys of Modoc and Lassen counties. He is still an enthusiastic believer in the future of Klamath Falls, and predicts a real boom at an early date, possibly not until the railway constructors are close to the city, but it is coming and a good many in Klamath Falls will be hitting some one to kick them for not investing in city real estate at the present low prices. Six cities named in cities of five to twelve thousand persons, where the prices for front foot of unimproved city real estate is not less than $750 for front foot, and asks why should not real estate in Klamath Falls be worth as much and more than the great enterprises now under way are finished.

Canada Will Reason Sunday.

Sunday will be more thoroughly observed throughout Canada than in any other country in the world, if a Lord's day bill now before Parliament becomes a law. The measure, which is a government bill and thus sure of enactment in its present form unless modified by the government itself, is the most sweeping piece of Sabbath legislation ever framed. How wide is the scope of the bill may be judged from the following summary of its main provisions:
Nobody may work, do business, sell anything or employ any person to work.
No games or performances where admission fee is charged.
No excursion for amusement.
No public parks, pleasure ground or amusement.
No public parks, pleasure ground or amusement place open where admission fee is charged.
No foreign newspapers sold.
Certain exceptions are made of works of mercy, religion or necessity, in regard to running through trains, ocean vessels, etc.
Jews, Adventists and others who keep Saturday as a day of rest may do business on Sunday.
The exceptions allow:
Work in connection with divine service.
Work for the relief of the sick.
Sale of drugs.
Work in respect to telegraphs and telephones.
Essential work on any industrial process of such a continuous nature that it cannot be stopped without serious injury.
Work for the supply of heat, water, gas or light.
Conveying of travelers.
Continuous passage to their destination of trains and vessels in transit when Sunday begins.
Loading and unloading of merchandise at intermediate points from passenger boats or trains.
Keeping railway tracks clear of snow and making emergency repairs.
Work in handling trains in railroad yards before 6 a. m. and after 8 p. m.
Labor about an ocean vessel which would otherwise be unduly delayed in sailing.
Caring for livestock and perishable products.
Operation of a ferry or passenger boat.
Hiring of horses for personal use.
Work after 8 p. m. in preparing for Monday edition of newspapers.
Work after 4 p. m. in connection with setting bakers' sponge.
Delivery of milk and ice.
The work of domestic servants.
The operation of interprovincial or international electric car lines.
It will thus be seen not only that all usual business vocations and work must cease absolutely on Sunday, but that the operation of freight trains and freight vessels, unless in transit, and that operation of street cars except on lines specifically made exempt, must also stop.

From Klamath Falls Republican:

An immense gasoline launch has been ordered by the Klamath Canal Co. for use on the Upper lake. It will be thirty-five feet long, eight and one-half beam and will be equipped with a 20-horse gasoline engine. It will be the largest on either lake and have a speed that will be a record breaker.
When Frederick Weyerhaeuser was on his tour of inspection last week, he instructed General Main to have built a school house at Thrall and one at Pokigama and send the bill to him. He further instructed Mr. Abbott that he should be used for religious services at all times, and that he should furnish light and heat on such occasions.
Grading operations at the corner of Conger avenue and Main street were begun today by the Klamath Canal Company. It is the intention of the company to bring the avenue to a grade with Main street at the junction, and reduce the grade to three per cent. A stone retaining wall will be built on the river side of the avenue and when the work is completed it will be one of the most picturesque and best thoroughfares in the state.

After July 8th no Sunday trains will be run on the Klamath Falls railroad. This was the order posted in this city Tuesday by General Manager E. T. Abbott, who was here on that day. As soon as the change was made known he was besieged with objections, but he was inexorable and stated that the change was made on the direct order of Mr. Weyerhaeuser and would go into effect on that date. This change will be a hard blow to this city. Transportation had reached the point where it was possible to travel to this city with some degree of comfort on the schedule time. If the order had been deferred until September or October it would not have worked such a hardship as it does coming at the very beginning of the greatest influx of travel to Klamath county. The order is explicit and unalterable. Mr. Weyerhaeuser was in Thrall this week it was one of the first questions he asked me if Sunday trains were run. He is unalterably adverse to Sunday work of any kind where it is at all possible to avoid it. He believed Sunday trains could be improved with and they will be until he orders otherwise. There are, of course, two sides to this question. Our men are entitled to some recreation and this order will give it to them.

From Merrill Record:

Davidson & Davis, of the Merrill Meat Market, are up in arms against the coyotes of this neighborhood. Last week they bought three lambs and were going to treat their customers to mutton, but instead the coyotes were the ones that got the mutton. When Mr. Weyerhaeuser was in Thrall this week it was one of the first questions he asked me if Sunday trains were run. He is unalterably adverse to Sunday work of any kind where it is at all possible to avoid it. He believed Sunday trains could be improved with and they will be until he orders otherwise. There are, of course, two sides to this question. Our men are entitled to some recreation and this order will give it to them.

Southern Oregon Normal School.

The year ended June 12th with the graduation of thirty-four seniors, the largest class in the history of the school. The citizens of Asland and the surrounding country came out en masse and more than 1500 people witnessed the closing exercises in the Chautauqua building. The presentation of the scarf by Miss Nora Beebe on behalf of the Seniors to Walter Herndon, who received it on behalf of the Juniors was an unique and pleasant feature. This banner passes from class to class year after year and is the cherished relic of the school.

The number of people who attended the exercises from abroad bespeaks the wide interests felt in the school. School superintendents and principals and teachers from various parts of Southern Oregon were in attendance.
The Alumni Association was attended by ninety members. The present faculty and students were rejoiced to see the lively interest here shown by the students of long ago.
Nearly all of the graduates of this year will teach. More of them have good positions. Next year will find them located in some desirable field for work. The best positions ask for the best teachers and the best teachers seek the best positions. The Normal graduates and the best positions always find each other.

Of recent graduates Vera Storey is elected to the Woodville high school, Floy McNeil and Anna Beeson to the Medford schools, Eva Storey, Dolca Willis and G. W. Milam to the Ashland schools, Harvey Inlow principalship of Pleasant Hill, C. Strange, city superintendent Cottage Grove, Worth Harvey, principal Grants Pass school, and Mary Mundy, high school at Cottage Grove, Ola and Mabel Micokey, Cordelia Grant and Jessie Wilson, Cottage Grove public schools, Lettie Cooper, Myrtle Point school, Stella Campbell and Mabel Campbell, Klamath Falls school, Elsie Parks, Creswell school, Elizabeth Gibson, Central
