Notices have been posted that a Mr Gurm will present a petition to the county court, August term, for li cense to open a saloon in our town but with what success be will meet with remains to be seen.

Mr. Wright, our harness maker and cobbler, moved into his new house last Saturday evening and now he and his family begin to feel as though they were at home.

W. H. Bowen and Prof. W. A. Wood started for I lamath county last Monday, to be gone for a short time. They are going via Mt. Pitt route on foot. Prof. Wood wants to climb to the summit of that mountain sometime this summer.

Hay, yes hay! More hay! That is the cry. Everybody is cutting and putting up hay and the prospect is that there will be plenty of hey this season. Lofland Bros. report that the wild cats have grown so high siong the M. & C. L. R. R. track that it hides it from view, that the oats are hearly eight feet tall.

James Ringer, our new mail con-tractor, is in high glee and has a fine team and rig, and started on his route from here to Peyton last Tuesday, July 3d. He is man who is entirely reliable and his many friends has put another addition to the Moomaw and Martin barn, so as to store away provender for his borses.

Herman Meyers and Lemon Charley came down last Sunday to settle up with S. Bradbury, who has had charge of the Beigian stallion which is owned by a company of citizens on Butte creek, as Mr. B.'s time had expired, for which he had engaged to care for him, Lemon Charley has taken charge of the horse and will care for him for the next year.

Messrs, Stepp, Hamlin and Islie who are running the Round Top saw mill and Miss Maggle Stepp, came out last Saturday, went to Medford to purchee supplies and returned to the Sunny Side to spend the night. They report that they have quite a lot of lumber on hand and that the roads are getting worn down so that they can haul a good load of lumber out.

Mrs. Lelah Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fryer, of Seattle, Washington, arrived at the parental home one day last week, where she met ber sister, Mrs. Arglee Green, and was soon joined by her other sister, Mrs. Floyd Pierce and her two children, when they had a family reunion of the entire family, except Mr. Jones, who is engaged in contracting business in Scattle. This is the first time the entire family, including Fred and Austin Green, have all met for five years. It seems real nice to see entire family reunited once more and their many friends here gave them a cordial reception.

It is always well to have a box of salve in the house. Sunburn, cuts, bruises, piles and boils yield to De-Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Should keep a box on hand at all times to provide for emergencies. For years the standard, but followed by many imitators. Be sure you get the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Chas. Strang, Medford; Mary Mee, Central Point.
