

OUR COUNTY Correspondents

Eagle Point Eagles. BY A. G. HOWLETT. J. H. Carlton has had an open porch put in front of his store.

Carl Ringer left here last Saturday for Sacramento, California. Wm. Winkie started with his family last week for Ft. Klamath.

Sam Harvish has moved from the Willacott farm into the Grifth house. Miss Francis Oberbaum has been stopping for several days at the Sunny Side hotel.

Clarence Cox, of Ashland, came up the first of the week to visit his mother and family, Mrs. W. F. Smith. Miss Jennie Lewis, of Eagle Point, is saleslady in Karnes & Ritter's confectionery store in Medford.

Dr. Pickel, assisted by Dr. Holt, operated on Mrs. Mattie Martin, one day last week, for appendicitis. The patient is getting along nicely. T. B. Sears, a young man who has been attending school at Monmouth, is at this writing, here selling stereoscopic views during his vacation.

I unintentionally omitted to state in my last that Mrs. Dr. H. arrived here and that they had rented two rooms in Harry Carlton's building. George W. Daley, Sr., is getting the lumber out for his big hall near the wagon bridge here. He expects to have it under course of construction in a short time.

J. D. Abbott, of Springfield, Ill., arrived to visit with his brother, J. A. Abbott, last week. They had not seen each other for fifty-five years. J. A. Abbott learned through J. N. Grover that his long-lost brother was in Siskiyou county, California, and he immediately wrote to him and the result was he came to Medford and 'phoned over of his arrival, and the two brothers met in Medford for the first time since their boyhood days.

Married—July 22, 1906, by A. L. Hanelton, J. P., Mr. Tracy Boothby and Miss Manning, daughter of Frank Manning, of Leeds. The happy couple spent the night at the Sunny Side hotel and about ten o'clock p. m., about a dozen of the young folks of our town gave them a short chivari. Mr. B. was prepared with candy and cigars, and after a few moments' pleasant chat the boys dispersed and peace and quiet reigned again.

J. W. Grover, who is interested in mining enterprise in California, returned home last week and while here understood that he sold two hundred acres of land to F. W. Streets, consideration $15,500 per acre. I learn that Mr. S. intends to put out the most of it in fruit trees, build a fine residence, large barn and other buildings. He also bought a large lot of hay or Mr. Grover. He is the same man who has had charge of the S. P. L. Co.'s business at Butte Falls and bought the Hazel (old Dave Dunlap) place. Perhaps the Medford & Crater Lake Railroad changing hands had something to do with the deal.

It is always well to have a box of salve in the house. Sunburn, cuts, bruises, piles and boils yield to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Should keep a box on hand at all times to provide for emergencies. For years the standard, but followed by many imitations. Be sure you get the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Chas. Strang, Medford; Mary Mee, Central Point.

Kane Creek Items. By Sine Die, No. 10. Mrs. Childers was the guest of Mrs. Reese on Friday. Misses Mary and Nora Gale left last week for Grants Pass, where they have employment. Elmer Higginbotham and wife spent Sunday at Table Rock, the guests of relatives and friends. Robert Sunden and family will leave on Wednesday for Toisan springs for a several weeks' outing. Walter Waterman, who has been engaged at work for Mr. Hickey during the haying, has returned to his home in Sams Valley. Mr. and Mrs. Engle, who have been the guests of James McDugall and wife for some time, left on Saturday for Coos county. Fred Taylor and wife have returned.

English Regard for Teaching. If there is one occupation which Englishmen are unanimous in condemning as degraded and degrading it is that most fascinating, most difficult, delicate and important work, the training of the mind. In what are humorously called "the higher walks" of teaching there are respectable salaries to be earned and agreeable rooms or houses for occupation. Here, purged of the dross of utility, a man may once more take rank as a gentleman, and if he becomes head of a position commands universal and silent respect.—Nineteenth Century.

A little love, a little wealth, A little home for you and me; It's all I ask except good health. Which comes with Rocky Mountain Tea. Hinkle's Drug Store. This Reward. Dr. Strachan, bishop of Toronto, was waited upon by two churchwardens, who complained that their clergyman wearied his congregation by repeating the same sermon. He had preached it twelve times. The bishop asked for the text. Neither of the churchwardens could remember. "Go back," said the bishop sternly, "and ask your clergyman to preach the sermon once more and then come back and tell me the text."

Children like Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. The pleasantest and best cough syrup to take because it contains no opiate. Sold by Chas. Strang, Medford; Mary Mee, Central Point.

For that Dandruff There is one thing that will cure it—Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is a regular scalp-medicine. It quickly destroys the germs which cause this disease. The unhealthy scalp becomes healthy. The dandruff disappears, had to disappear. A healthy scalp means a great deal to you—healthy hair, no dandruff, no pimples, no eruptions. The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Sole manufacturers of Sarsaparilla, Pills, and Cherry Pectoral.

home from the northern part of California. Fred says that Leather creek is good enough for him. Will Pening, who has been employed at the Braden mine for some time, has moved with his family to the old Pening place, in the Blackwell district. The Childers and McClendon saw all on Kanes creek, has commenced operations and they will soon be prepared to furnish all kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Does evil still you whole life lift? Does love betide? Your thoughts on suicide? You need a pill!

Now for prose and fact—DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the most pleasant and reliable pills known today. They never grip. Sold by Chas. Strang, Medford; Mary Mee, Central Point. Real Estate Transfers
