Eagle Point Eaglets.

BY A. C. HOWLETT.

Mr. and Mrs. Cary, of Phoenix, were here last week, they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Knigton.

Our blacksmith, W. L. Childers, has employed man by the name of Carno, of Humboldt county, California, to help him in his shop and they both seem to have all the work they can do. Mr. Carno has moved his family into the Riddle house.

N. V. Redifer, of Myrtle Creek, who has stock in Klamath county, returned from a trip to that country a few days since. He stopped here over night on his way home, he crossed over the trail creek route and stopped to visit an old friend, John Willis-Croft, of Trail.

Mr. Conner, superintendent of the bridge construction for the P. & E. R. R. Co., is now repairing the railroad bridge across Little Butte creek. The R. R. Co. has a force of men repairing the track and expect to have a construction car running over it in a short time. Section Boss Charles Wolgast reports.

The dance last Friday night was quite a success. There were forty-one numbers sold for supper, besides a number of half tickets. Eagle Point seems to be quite a favorite resort for the dancing part of the community. They seem to have a pleasant time whenever they come.

Frank Neil of Derby and his two daughters, Miss Nydiah and Mildred, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Jones, stopped here for dinner Friday. The Misses Neil and their grandmother were on their way to Portland. The two young ladies are going to visit friends and relatives in that city for a time.

Last week Mr. Swenge, of Grand Fork, N. D., traveling in the interest of the Vermont Loan and Trust Company, was here looking for a location for a bank. He was so favorably impressed with our surroundings that he promised to return in the near future, and thinks seriously of opening up business here.

J. W. Bailey and J. A. McLeod, of Iowa, were here last week on their return trip from Butte Falls. They have been looking over the situation here and have decided to open up business between here and Butte Falls, but did not give out the kind of business they contemplated going into, but one of them remarked that they expected to be in our town considerable of the time this summer.

Last Friday Miss A. N. Thomas gave a birthday dinner and your Eagle Point correspondent had a special invitation, but on Thursday night was taken sick and consequently was unable to attend, so you see I missed good thing for once in my life, on account of being sick. But those who attended report having had a royal good time and such a dinner, well Grandma Thomas knows just how to get up a good dinner and entertain.

Buy Hair at Auction?

At any rate, you seem to be getting rid of it on auction-sale principles: "going, going, gone!" Stop the auction with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It certainly checks falling hair; no mistake about this. It acts as a regular medicine; makes the scalp healthy. Then you must have healthy hair, for it's nature's way.

completed their job and left the road in a very bad condition, worse than they found it.

Will Higginbotham, who has been visiting relatives and friends at Table Rock for some time, returned home Sunday.

The recent rains have done a great deal of good to the crops which have not as yet been cared for.

Mr. and Mrs. Braden, of Indiana, son and daughter of the late Dr. Braden, arrived here recently to look after their father's interests.

The dance Saturday night at Mr. Mardons was a pleasant affair, all those present enjoyed themselves immensely and much credit is due Mr. and Mrs. Mardons as entertainers.

Remarkable Rescue.

That the truth is stranger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me, and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon ceased; the bleeding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work. Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds. 50c. and $1.00. at Chas. Strang, drug store. Trial bottle free.

DONT!!!

Don't let your child suffer with that cough when you can cure it with Ballard's Horehound Syrup, a sure cure for Coughs, Bronchitis, Influenza, Croup and Pulmonary Diseases. Buy a bottle and try it.

B. B. Laughter, Byhalia, Miss., writes: "I have two children who had croup. I tried many different remedies, but I must say your Horehound Syrup is the best Croup and Cough medicine I ever used." Chas. Strang, Medford; Central Point Pharmacy.

BY FRICK'S RAD BOY.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gregory were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Al Turpin last Sunday.

Miss Kate Goble, one of Ashland's charming young ladies, came down last Friday to attend the box social at the Roosevelt school house, Saturday night, returning to her home Sunday morning. While here she was a guest at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Galk.

THAT REMINDS ME.

"That reminds me," mused McCutcheon, "in my office up the street. I've everything so handy there workin' is a treat. I've got labor-saving systems, roll top desks and short-cut plans and electric lights and telephones and cool electric fans."

"That reminds me," says McCutcheon "why should I have all the snaps? With my wife, at home, a strugglin' with lots of handiaps, an' fussin' round with smoky lamps an' gas an' gasoline. And gettin' all worn out with pedalin' that old machine."

"That reminds me," says McCutcheon "my wife's birthday's comin' soon. Now, what is there I can get her that'll be the greatest boon? She's a lookin' sick and weary and she is getting pale and thin. I'd like to get her something that'll help her health to win."

"That reminds me," says McCutcheon "my wife's going away to visit. An' I have struck upon a notion that is not so dusty, is it? While she's gone I'll wire the house up from the garret to the ground."

And we'll have a 'home electric'—time her birthday comes around."

So Mac got awful busy while his frau was out of town. And blew himself for everything electric—money down. Electric fixtures, reading lamps, all gleaming bright and clean. And flat irons, heaters, chafing dish and motor run machine. You should have seen the face on Mrs. Mac when she reached home.

And saw her house electrified and spied the lovely dome (That hung within the dining room) all beautiful and bright. She could only gaze in rapture at the brilliancy of light. If ever husband made a hit McCutcheon was the boy.

His wife was half hysterical with happiness and joy. She tried the irons and chafing dish and started up the fan. And like a happy child, around her electric home she ran.

And it is nothing now unusual to hear the neighbors say "Since Mrs. Mac got 'lectrified she's younger every day. And, no wonder, for her drudgery don't take up all her life. Like it used to when McCutcheon had a non-electric wife."

P. S. Mr. Man-with-an-unwired-house. Why not make a hit with your wife, like McCutcheon did with his? P. S. Mrs. Ditto. Read this poem out loud to him.

Miss May Bigham spent last Wednesday night at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Carlton.

Dr. Pickel was out our way almost every day last week, calling on Mrs. Al Turpin, who has been quite ill, and is not yet able to sit up, although slowly improving.

The pupils of the Dewey school gave an entertainment on the evening of May 24th, which was pronounced most excellent, not far above the average country school entertainment by representatives from our district and many others. Ice cream and candy were sold, which netted a neat sum.

The entertainment and box social given by the pupils of the Roosevelt school on the evening of June 1st was well attended and proved to be a very enjoyable affair. The platform was built outside the school house and was artistically decorated with its boughs and beautiful flowers. The recitations, dialogues and tableaux were fine, and the children deserve great credit for the way they performed their parts. Mr. Bigham entertained the audience between acts with some fine selection from his new Edison graphophone. Great praise is due Misses Lucy Stinson, Mabel Pruett and May Bigham for the assistance they rendered before and during the entertainment, also to three little Misses namely Ethel and Esther Smith and Oliver, who recited in a very creditable manner. The pupils and patrons also extend thanks to John Neustrom for furnishing the lumber to build the platform, also to Mr. Beebe, of Agate, who auctioneered off the boxes equal to an expert. Owing to his proficiency as an auctioneer and to the kindness of the ladies in bringing so many boxes and the liberality of the gentlemen in buying, we received the neat sum of $33.70 and an enjoyable evening besides. Agate, Dewey and Antelope districts were well represented for all of which we were grateful and when their respective schools shall entertain Roosevelt district will endeavor to return the compliment.

Tetter Cured.

A lady customer of ours had suffered with tetter for two or three years. It got so bad on her hands that she could not attend to her household duties. One box of Chamberlain's Salve cured her. Chamberlain's medicines give splendid satisfaction in this country. M. H. ROONEY & Co., Alameda, Ala. Chamberlain's medicines are for sale by Chas. Strang.
