CITY HAPPENINGS.

—C. H. Mace, a graduate from an engineering school in Berkeley, Calif., and for a number of years employed as mining engineer by one of the largest mining corporations operating in Nevada, arrived in Medford Saturday and on Tuesday of this week left for the Blue Ledge country in company with engineer Willis Green. His visit to that section is for the purpose of making a thorough examination of several groups of mines which a company which he represents is figuring on bonding. The properties are those lying outside of the Blue Ledge group. Mr. Mace is rated as one of the best engineers and mining experts on the coast, and upon his report will depend the investment of a vast amount of additional capital in that locality. Mr. Green makes bold the assertion that the Blue Ledge district is the greatest copper mining section in the world. Now if Mr. Mace is of the same opinion there will undoubtedly be big things doing in that locality—that is, new things will be doing. The Blue Ledge people have been "rolling logs" in a manner very proper for months past.

—Wanted—four homestead or timber railroads, E. L. Taylor, Medford.

—Chrysanthemum Circle, W. O. W., entertained a number of visiting members from Ashland and Phoenix Tuesday evening. After the regular lodge work had been finished, a short program consisting of vocal and instrumental music was rendered and then an adjournment was taken to the banquet hall where a dainty repast was served. The time until the arrival of the South bound midnight train was pleasantly spent in social converse.

—Come and get our "special prices" on Chinaware. Allen & Reagan.

—The booklets gotten out by the Commercial Club have arrived, and are ready for distribution. The work is the best of the kind yet put out in Southern Oregon. It contains full and comprehensive information about Medford and vicinity, and is copiously illustrated with Southern Oregon scenes. The paper used is of good quality and the half tones are brought out in fine shape. The subject matter while claiming all the advantages to which our climate and our resources entitle us does not exaggerate the facts, and every statement made can be substantiated.

—Lost—On the streets of Medford, one gold cuff button, with quartz setting. Finder please leave at Mail office and receive reward.

—Sunday the ceremony of unveiling the monument to the late G. C. Johnson was observed by Medford Camp, No. 90, W. O. W. The attendance at the unveiling ceremony was quite large, especially so in view of the fact that the funeral of J. P. True, occurred at the Jacksonville cemetery at the same hour. The impressive and beautiful ceremony was successfully carried out, and witnessed with deep attention. The ceremonies were in charge of J. H. Fitzgerald, C. C. and Master of Ceremonies, assisted by the officers of Medford camp, and the Uniform rank of the Camp. F. W. Wait read the memorial poem. A number of visiting brothers from Phoenix were present.

—If you are not illuminating your home with electricity, do it now. Considerations of safety, comfort, convenience, health and economy demand it.

—The Ratbone sisters had an enjoyable social evening Wednesday evening of last week, and the member who was absent missed a treat. After the lodge business had been transacted the social part of the evening began. A short program was presented, consisting of recitations, vocal and instrumental music, and games. Partners were chosen for supper by comparison of the photographs of the ladies when in their juvenile days with their present appearance and mistakes were numerous and mirth provoking. The committee in charge consisted of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Shermershorn and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lay.

—For Sale—10 acres of land—5 in fruit—good 7-room house—1 mile from Medford. Snap if taken soon. Call at Mail office.

—A number of the energetic residents of North C street are making noticeable improvements in the street in front of their homes. Some have put in new plank sidewalks others more substantial cement sidewalks and within the last few days several have removed all grass and weeds from the street near the walks and some of them have graded this portion in boulevard style and planting it into grass plots. If any of our Medford readers do not think this is an improvement worthy of the effort they have only to walk on North C street and discover their mistake.

—Twenty-five cents will be given for every button found off of any article laundered by Fell's Laundry, Medford.

—Saturday night the Red Men will hold a grand scalp dance, during which a number of pale faces will run the gauntlet and be adopted into Westonska Tribe. The new additions will bring the membership up to 300, making it one of the strongest tribes in the reservation of Oregon and the strongest order in this city. Great Sachem Jacobs has made good the statement that the Imp'd O. R. M. would increase 1000 members during the year of his term of office and Westonska Tribe has helped toward that end in no small degree. There will be "corn and venison at the meeting Saturday night and all members are requested to be present.

—Choice lots in all parts of Medford, for sale, on installment plan—$5 per month. See Palm, the real estate dealer.

—F. W. Wait, one of our granite and marble dealers, has discovered a new variety of granite in his quarry, west from Central Point. It is darker in color than the granite previously gotten out near here, and, while it does not take a better polish than the lighter colored grade, it is in some respect preferable, one because of lettering or scroll work made on it stands out more distinctly. The granite is near the surface and this may account for its darker color. However, Mr. Wait says he has a great amount of it and it matters not where it came from.

—Competent woman cook wanted in private family, best wages, no washing. Apply at Mail office.

—The Medford Furniture Company has recently put in a new office in their big furniture showroom. There is a new problem confronting this firm. They have appropriated all the available room adjoining their store—and still goods are several deep in many places and have to secure more space is the problem which is up to them to solve—and the only solution is another story to the building. This firm carries a very large stock and their sales are correspondingly large—and growing.

—Leave orders for parsley at Miller & Eubank's grocery, Medford.

—The Models will play an exhibition game Sunday against a team picked from the business men of the city. Martin will be in the box for the latter team. There are a lot of people about this town who can play ball besides those who are members of the Model, and with the big south paw shooting them over there will be a good game.

—For sale—An excellent quality of brick—in any quantity. G. W. Priddy, Medford, Oregon.

—Wm. J. Warner, who came here from Washington several months ago and purchased a portion of the Hodge place adjoining the Orchard Home tract, is experimenting with a private irrigation plant. He has a well 18 feet deep and has installed a "Mauds" pump operated by electric power, which gives him all the water he needs for domestic purposes and for irrigating his garden. Later he intends sinking a larger well on the highest ground on his place, and with the aid of a similar outfit to the one above mentioned intends irrigating the whole tract. "I know what water will do," said Mr. Warner, "I lived for many years in the famous Wenatchee Valley, where you can hardly raise a disturbance without water, but with it you can produce anything. Good crops are grown here without water, but with water better ones will be grown."

—Fresh bread made daily at Vienna Bakery. Call phone 400 and have all your bake stuff delivered promptly.

—On Wednesday evening of this week Miss Ida Redden entertained fourteen members of her Sunday school class in the beautiful lawn at her parents home, in West Medford. Miss Redden was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. F. E. Redden, Miss Sadie Auman and Nola Redden. The lawn was spread with rugs and cushions and upon these and in the light of pale Luna and Japanese lanterns the young people enjoyed themselves greatly in games of various nature. Good refreshing lemonade was served during the evening and at 10:30 refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Those present were Myrtle Roberts, Clara Wines, Mattie Jones, Maud Line, Bernice Carder, Nellie and Lillie Reuter, Isola and Lela Eubank, Alma Gould, Pearl and Crystal McNary, Hubert Allen, Clyde Roberts, and Roy Martin.

—If cold, heat up; if hot, cool off; if dry, wet up; if in darkness, light up; if hungry, cook with electricity.

—N. S. Bennett has the thanks of the Mail office force for a box of very fine cherries—the kind he always grows. W. L. Beardsley, living just south from Phoenix, also brought us a goodly supply of large luscious logan berries. The gentleman has an acre of land set to berries of different varieties and is surely "making good" in the markets of the valley with his products.

—For sale—Durable residence, or residence property, all in fine location. Enquire at this office. 36-1f
