Mrs. Geo. W. Otfield, of Merrill had a leg broken as the result of a runaway on the grade this side of Chase's station Monday. With her children Mrs. Otfield was on her way to Poekama with Prof. Hobbs of the Merrill school. The children were not injured while the professor suffered a severe sprain of the ankle.

Hazen's transfer team ran away yesterday, starting at Center street on Main street and ran west on Main street striking Henry and Cranston's team which had just returned from the huckleberry patch loaded with huckleberries, breaking the tongue of the huckleberry wagon and running the horses of the latter over the Long Lake Lumber company's eight-horse team knocking one horse down.

John Oliver the 13 year-old son of C. T. Oliver, met with a serious and painful accident Tuesday morning about 10 o'clock while out hunting near the railroad dyke below town with John Siemens, Lec Houston and Arthur Leavitt. When the accident happened young Oliver and Siemens were in a row boat near the dyke while Houston and Leavitt were on the dyke. Oliver was getting out of the boat with his shot gun drawing the gun towards him with the muzzle pointed toward his body when the weapon was discharged and the unfortunate youth received the deadly discharge on his right hand. The shot went in the back of the first and second fingers. As soon as they could get to young Oliver, Siemens and Houston tied a handkerchief tightly around his wrist to stop the bleeding. They all then walked on the dyke to the county road, a distance of about a mile and a half, where they overtook a wagon and rode to town.

Three of the best oxen belonging to August Liskey disappeared recently, under circumstances that lead to the belief that they were stolen. In looking for them Wednesday last August went over to the reservation. He was riding at the time a pony which had been taken up last winter and had been advertised as an stray, when he got over there an Indian claimed the animal as his own, and told August to unsaddle and leave the pony there, under a threat to give him a thrashing if he didn't do it. As the Indian was about twice August's size, he concluded to do as he was told. So he came home on foot.

William Lubke and wife left this week, the former to visit his home in Germany and the latter to spend the winter in Los Angeles. They expect to return to this city next spring. This is the first time Mr. Lubke has visited his old home since he left there, 34 years ago. His mother is still living, having reached the advanced age of 89 years, and it is to see her once more that caused him to make the trip.

Reports from the huckleberry patch are to the effect that this toothsome delicacy is very scarce this year. It is up to the weather prophet who not long ago stated that we were going to have a severe winter because huckleberries were unusually plentiful, to account for this discrepancy between his theory and fact. There are many who prefer an abundance of snow to a scarcity of huckleberry pie, and these will receive the news of the scarcity with more regret than did the public the prediction of a severe winter.

Articles of incorporation were filed with the County Clerk this week for the Lakeside Co., the incorporators being Alex Martin, Frank Adams and Chas. S. Moore. Klamath Falls designated as the principal place of business. The capital stock of the company is $10,000, divided into shares of $100 each. While the articles permit the company to engage in a wide range of business, the prime object of its creation is the handling of what is now known as the Lakeside tract, which borders on Tule Lake. No statement has as yet been made public, but it is understood that it is the intention of the Lakeside company to plat this big tract into small farms and by a systematic campaign of advertising to bring farmers into the basin to settle on the same. It is not likely that at there will be very much done along this line this year, but the coming season will undoubtedly see considerable activity.

Health in the Canal Zone.
The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artists to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influences with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles Guaranteed by Chas. Strang, druggist.

STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers twenty-five years. The practical Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for many years under her direction, and since her decease, her advice has been freely given to sick women.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation:
Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is every foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.—Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Following we publish two letters from a woman who accepts this invitation. Note the results.

First letter.
Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"For eight years I have suffered something terrible every month. The pains are excruciating and I can hardly stand them. My doctor says I have a severe female trouble, and I must go through an operation if I want to get well. I do not want to submit to it if I can possibly help it. Please let me know what I hope you can relieve me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and E. Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

Second letter.
Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"After following carefully your advice, and taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am very anxious to send you my testimonial, that others may know their value and what you have done for me."

"As you know, I wrote you that my doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I then wrote you, telling you my ailments. I followed your advice and am entirely well. I can walk miles without a ache or pain, and I feel like a new woman. I wish every suffering woman would read this testimonial and realize the value of writing to you and your remedy.—Mary Dimmick, 50th and E. Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women whose testimony is so unquestionable, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Your dog never bothers any one, when the lake is "on" you it is never very funny.

There is a great deal of inhumanity in human nature.

How loud the doings when some one else stales it!

It is easier to keep a secret than it is to keep a mouth.

Every one is so suspicious enough to believe in the dollar sign.

You can't judge the speed of a locomotive by the way it whistles.

There are lots of happy people, but they are unnoticed in the noise the wretched make.

As we grow older we are all compelled to give up much of the spunk we displayed in youth.

If you think you are right, go ahead, if you want to, but don't expect every one to go with you.—Atchison Globe.

The Muskellunge.
The Indian name of this great fighter of the fresh water lakes and tributaries is "esquassumungony." Our naturalists have the word translated into about eight or nine different styles, but the correct way of spelling it in our language is undoubtedly "muskellunge." Most fishermen, however, pronounce and spell it to suit themselves, and no man seems to be an accepted authority. It is one thing in Canada, another in the St. Lawrence and another among New Yorkers is "muskallonge." The fish reaches a length of seven and a half feet, and the biggest ever taken is said to have weighed ninety-two pounds. In gamefish it is said to surpass the tarpon of the Caribbean and the tuna of the Pacific.—New York Press.

Rather Confusing.
Nowadays the duties of clerk and sexton are usually performed by the same person, and an amusing story is told of a person who, visiting a village church and being struck by the knowledge of legends and history shown by the old man who was taking him round, asked his guide what occupation he followed. "Well," said the old man, "I hardly know what I be. First vicar he called me clerk; then another he came, and he called me virgin; then the last vicar said I was the Christian, and now I be clerk again."—"Virgin" was, of course, a confusion of verger, and "Christian" for sacristan or sexton.—London Strand.

Neighbors.
"I beg your pardon, sir, but I'm going to ask you if your daughter would mind not playing on the piano for the next two weeks?"
"May I ask, sir, the reason for this extraordinary request?"
"Well, you see, my son wishes to get a good start with the flute."—New York Life.

A Humane Appeal.
A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 107 West Main, says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation. It saves more lives than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup, quincy, whooping cough, hoarseness, and phthisis, stops hemorrhages of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed at Chas. Strang's drug store, 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free."

TIMBER LAND, ACT JUNE 8, 1878.—NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office, Roseburg, Oregon, July 25, 1907. Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 8, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the states of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as amended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892.

BENJAMIN W. HEBERLING, of Sunnyside, county of Santa Clara, state of California, filed in this office on April 25, 1907, his sworn statement No. 830, for the purchase of the S 1/2 E 1/4 Section 14, Township 23, South, of Range 3 East, and the S 1/2 E 1/4 Section 14, Township 23, South, of Range 3 East, and will offer proof to show that the land is more valuable for timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said timber land, at his office in Medford, Oregon, on Thursday, the 17th day of October, 1907.

He names as witnesses: Thomas C. Norris, Bert H. Harris, Clarence K. Wolverson, all of Jackson County, Oregon. Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are notified to file their claims in this office on or before said 17th day of October, 1907. BENJAMIN L. EDDY, Register.
