Standard Patterns in Medford.

Machinery for Sale

J. G. Van Dyke & Co have made arrangements with the Standard Pattern Co. and will hereafter carry a full stock of these patterns in Medford. (They have discontinued the New Idea Pattern agency.)

—When you are notified by the proper authorities what your house number is, call on us, get the number and put them up yourself. We have all kinds. Nicholson Hardware Co.

—Hickory Bark Cough Remedy made by The Hickory Bark Remedy Co., of Salem, Ore., guaranteed to cure your cough, or money refunded. Guaranteed to make a friend of you. For sale by Haskin's Drug Store and first-class dealers everywhere.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL. A LITTLE OF EVERYTHING

—Sunday was a perfect day. Warm, sunshiny and with a feeling of spring in the air. A big majority of Medford's population took advantage of the pleasant afternoon to take a constitutional. The park benches were all occupied by people "taking the air." Think of sitting out in the open air without hats or overcoats for a couple of hours in January in the corresponding latitude as this for instance in the east. It's all right to think of it perhaps, but it would hardly do to try the experiment.

—The Southern Oregon Laundry Co. is doing business in the same old way—with satisfaction to all patrons. The laundry is the best equipped in Southern Oregon, the laundries are experienced and every care is taken to do good and prompt work. The wagon will call at your home or place of business, or you can leave orders at the candy store in the Moore Building, West Seventh Street.

—The rumor which has been published in several local papers that trains 13 and 14 were to be taken off and 11 and 12 restored on practically the old schedule could not be confirmed at the Medford office. It is likely one of those "brakeman cards" which so frequently come out.

—The grandmothers of the old Dutch Dunkard families of Western Pennsylvania have made and used "Hickory Bark Cough Remedy" and reared their families on it for a hundred years. Now you can buy it from your dealers. Ask for it, and use it, because it is pure; because it will stop your cough; because it is the best cough remedy made today. Try it. For sale by Haskin's Drug Store and all dealers everywhere.

—Rev. C. Miller, lately of Duluth, Minn., has purchased the J. M. Hurley place west of Central Point. This place is located in the foothills and is finely adapted to the growing of fruits and especially to grape culture, as Mr. Hurley, the former owner has demonstrated time and again, by showing the goods.

—Not all the good things are to be found in one place, but it is worth your while to try the splendid roads at Woodville now, and look up the profit makers in Ben A. Lowell's as of good things in that "Emerald Valley."

—The Southern Pacific Company has granted the extremely low rates of 33 cents per hundred on arsenate of lead from Portland to Southern Oregon points. This is used largely for spraying purposes and this rate will be of great benefit to the orchardists.

A sure cure, one you can depend upon. Hickory Bark Cough Remedy. A sure cure, and its pure! Use it for all lung trouble, coughs, colds, hoarseness and sore throat. For sale by Haskin's Drug Store and first-class dealers everywhere.

—Mrs. S. U. Hull this week sold her residence property on North C street to Rev. G. L. Hall, for a consideration of $1850. The sale was made through the agency of the Rogue River Land Co.

I wish to announce that I have bought H. C. Mokey's Photograph Gallery. As to my work will let it show for itself, all I ask is a chance fair chance. Come up and see me. F. L. Leemolster.

—A special rate has been given the fruit growers of this valley by the Southern Pacific company of 33 cents per hundred from Portland on arsenate of lead for spraying purposes. This is a substantial concession.

—For any of the ordinary diseases of the skin Chamberlain's Salve is excellent. It not only allays the itching and smarting but effects a cure. For sale by Chas. Strang.

It Does the Business.
Mr. E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Maine, says of Bucklin Arnica Salve, "I do the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore and it healed it without a scab or a mark." So at Chas. Strang's drug store.

—Time.
—Surrogate—day, old man, there was a time when you promised to share your last dollar with me.
—Mistake—There's all right. I haven't got down to it yet.

Though the sun scorches us sometimes and gives us the headache, we do not refuse to acknowledge that we stand in need of his warmth.—De Morgan.

—The girl who takes Scott's Emulsion has plenty of rich, red blood; she is plump, active and energetic.

The reason is that at a period when a girl's digestion is weak, Scott's Emulsion provides her with powerful nourishment in easily digested form.

It is a food that builds and keeps up a girl's strength.

A Cleveland poultryman has a hen that refuses to lay unless she gets a chew of tobacco. The anti-cigar gaffe league should be thankful that she does not smoke cigarettes.

Roseburg has passed an ordinance prohibiting minors under 18 years of age from entering pool rooms and cigar stores, and also prohibiting use of tobacco by minors under said age.

Two well-dressed Japanese, found inspecting fortifications and guns at Fort Stevens, at the mouth of the Columbia river, have been arrested and held for investigation. Thus does evidence accumulate to show that Japan is very much interested in topography of the Pacific coast.

"Ouida," the English novelist who delighted in plotting this world and its queer people as being infinitely worse than we are, died in poverty at Florence, Italy, last Saturday. Her books had a wide sale on both sides of the ocean, but if they ever contributed in the slightest degree to making better men and women of the readers, it is somewhat mystifying how the miracle was accomplished.

Francis A. Wilcox, 81 years old, a farmer, and a citizen of Berlin, Conn., has become the father of an 11 pound boy. Mr. Wilcox has been married twice. He lived with his first wife 56 years, when she died. His marriage was childless. Two years ago, Mr. Wilcox was wedded to Miss Frances Green of New Berlin, the daughter of a school mate of his first wife. Mr. Wilcox is distributing cigars and candy throughout the village.

Having failed to free Harry Thaw on his first trial on the theory that he was virtuously trying to defend his wife's honor when he committed his murder, Thaw's counsel are now attempting to prove that the misguided youth was insane not only at the time of the killing, but from boyhood up. Surely such a reversal of attitude upon the part of a defendant ought to be permitted to have weight with a jury in the rendering of a verdict. No such trifling with justice should be countenanced.

The tariff agreement which has just been reached between this country and France, which grants a reduction of 20 per cent on French champagnes and other reductions, especially food products, in return for the minimum French rate on Porto Rico coffee, petroleum and cotton seed oil, provides for a joint commission to examine into the tariff relations of the two countries, similar to the German-American commission. Whether we would have it or not, it is quite apparent that protective tariffs are coming to exist not so much for erecting a wall around the manufacturer of a country, as for driving the best possible bargain with the countries most actively engaged in an exchange of commodities with the country maintaining the tariff.

Several hundred farmers who left Eastern Oregon and the Walla Walla and Palouse districts to engage in wheat growing in the new provinces of British Columbia will be interested in the following Ottawa dispatch printed in yesterday's Oregonian: "The Dominion government has decided to loan a sum of approximately $4,000,000 to the farmers of the new provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan whose crops were a failure, to purchase seed grain." With everything favorable in the new districts mentioned, good crops of wheat can be grown, but when the season is unfavorable, as it was last year, the resulting failure is so much worse than any failure of which the Oregon or Washington farmer has ever heard that it means government aid or starvation. Another year like the one just closed will see the departure for America of a few thousand settlers who have been drifting north in search of cheap land.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism?
Do you know that Rheumatism pains can be relieved? If you doubt this just try one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It will make rest and sleep possible, and that certainly means a great deal to anyone afflicted with rheumatism. For sale by Chas. Strang.

Hands and Feet.
It is said that Darnell was prouder of his small hands than of all his great mental accomplishments. This was presumably because they were badge of aristocracy in their evidence that he had not been brought up to labor, and he worshipped aristocracy. And small feet of the same character—evidence that the possessor did not go barefoot when a child. Generations of carefully bred children of the nobility developed this characteristic of those of "gentle blood" as distinguished from the commonalty. But such proofs of superiority were not meekly endured. In due time brainy commoners discovered that the "aristocratic hand" was not small, but long and slender, and these cause the athlete multitude, who scorn small hands and feet as evidences of effeminacy.—Indianapolis Star.

Gray Hairs in Wall Street.
"It seemed to me down in New York the other day," remarked a Cleveland-er who had just returned from the metropolis, "that one might almost recognize Wall street and the financial region by the number of gray haired young men you see. I had occasion to be in several offices on Wall street the other day, and I honestly believe more than half of the young men I saw had gray hair. I noticed the same thing along the street. It may have been just a coincidence, but I couldn't help wondering if they would have been gray just as soon if they had been at some other game for the last few years."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

French Superstitions.
The French superstitions regarding deaths and funerals are all but numberless. "If you meet a funeral while driving, you will have an accident before your drive is over unless you turn back," they say. Many a gambler en route for Monte Carlo will not gamble that day if he meets a funeral. Others will bet only at rouge et noir and persistently on the black. The presentists have at least a hundred superstitions about bees. They believe (and did not verify) that, "if he but chronicle it of his contemporaries; that bees are bred of dead men's bones and flesh. This seems to be one of the oldest of the current French superstitions; for on a very old tomb at Arles (found in the world famous Alyscamp) is this inscription: "The Hive Become the Home of Unhallowed Bees."—London Answer.

A Wasted Motion.
"Ladies," called the president of the afternoon whist club—"Ladies, it has been moved and seconded that there shall be no conversation at the card tables. What shall we do with the motion?"

"I suggest that we discuss it while we play," piped a shrill voice from Table A, and the suggestion was adopted.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

FROM COUNTY EXCHANGES

Ashland Tidings:

Mrs. May Lamb Anderson, wife of G. R. Anderson, died at their home on Maple street yesterday. A mother life, that of a new born babe, went out a few hours before that of the mother, and mother and child will be laid to rest in the same casket, in Hagadine Cemetery, tomorrow afternoon, the funeral occurring at 2 o'clock. The case is a sad one indeed. Mrs. Anderson, who was a native of Kansas, is survived by two children, besides the bereaved husband. The latter is the gardener employed in caring for the Chautauqua grounds.

Burglars are again at work in Grants Pass. On last Sunday evening the store room of Harth & Son was entered by some one and a number of articles of wearing apparel were taken. The gentleman also paid Gold Hill a visit, as the stolen articles were found in this place.

W. H. Barnum and wife, who have been visiting in Seattle, Portland and other northern points, returned last Tuesday to their home in this city. Mr. Barnum has made arrangements to purchase a 50 horse power auto which will be used on the R. R. V. line. It will be wonderful improvement over the old motor car.

Miss Dorland Robinson, who is a student in the Oregon School of Art, Portland, is progressing very rapidly. Her work is looked upon as really wonderful when her age is considered. She only recently finished painting in oil "An Oriental Corner" in one of the furniture and carpet houses in the metropolis, which has attracted considerable attention. She also painted a likeness of Homer Davenport, the cartoonist, which pleased that gentleman greatly. He says it is the best picture he ever had painted.

Biliousness and Constipation.
For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally.—Mrs. Rose Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by Chas. Strang.

Chapped hands are quickly cured by applying Chamberlain's Salve. Price, 25 cents. For sale by Chas. Strang.
