CITY HAPPENINGS.

—W. M. Hodson and Chas. True expect to leave soon for the terminus of the Weed railroad, and from which place they will go to Oyster Lake, the purpose of the trip being the selection of an automobile route from that point to the lake. They have already made a tour of inspection from Eagle Point to the lake, and after they make this Weed inspection they will determine from which of the two points they will start their automobile transportation line to the lake. They have formed a partnership for this express purpose and are very anxious to determine the route as soon as possible so that they may be in readiness to accommodate the travel when it starts. A little boosting for the Medford and Eagle Point route might not be out of place right at this time by the people hereabouts who are interested—and we all are—in having the route mapped out from this valley.

—The Ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a Library social at the residence of Mrs. E. N. Warner Friday, February 7, 1908, at 3 o'clock p. m. Fifteen cents. Refreshments will be served. All interested in promoting a free library are cordially invited to attend.

—T. E. Moore, owner and manager of Hotel Moore, is right at this time laying plans for the erection of a new brick building at the corner of West Seventh and F streets. This building will cover the entire corner and will be put up with the idea of making it the main part of the hotel. A basement will be put in and over it will be built a two story brick structure. The wall of this building will be sufficiently heavy to carry two additional stories should Mr. Moore later decide to build them. No building which has been built on West Seventh street during the past couple of years has added so much to the appearance of that part of the city as this structure will have added when it is built.

—Johnson is in town with a full line of sewing machines from $5 to $75. All makes sold and repaired, rents $2 per month. Try before you buy. M. Elwood's Jeweler store.

—At a meeting of twenty odd members of a musical organization held at the home of Mrs. Krause, in Medford, on Monday evening of this week, a name was selected for the organization which is—The "M. M.

"club. What these letters mean is one of the principal secrets of the club—and a secret which no member is permitted to divulge under penalty of expulsion. There are now about twenty-five members of the club, all ladies, and it is expected it will grow to fully thirty-five in the near future. They meet every Monday night for from one to two hours music (vocal) practice. Monday evening Mrs. Krause served refreshments of candy, nuts and lemonade, and there was also an added program of vocal selections by Miss Rindlaub and Mrs. Krause, also a guessing contest in which Misses Redden and Rindlaub won prizes.

—The Ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a Library social at the residence of Mrs. E. N. Warner Friday, February 7, 1908 at three o'clock p. m., fifteen cents. Refreshments will be served. All interested in promoting a free library are cordially invited to attend.

—The members of the Epworth League and their friends, to the number of thirty or more, enjoyed a very pleasant progressive party on Tuesday evening of this week. They first met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ewbank. Here the young people were entertained for an hour or more with various amusements and were served with oysters and the necessary "fixins" which go with refreshments of this nature. In one of the guessing contests Clara Wynne won first prize—a sterling silver letter opener. The party from here went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Corey where another hour or more was spent in playing games and guessing contests—and more refreshments—sandwiches and coffee. From that place they went to the home of Rev. and Mrs. Renter where they were—for the third time most royally entertained—and again refreshed with more lunch, and amused with guessing contests. In one of the contests Maggie Ewbank won first prize—a box of fine stationery. This was one of the jolliest times the League have ever had—and there will be more of them.

—$2500 buys 100 acres, well located, buildings, two acres of orchard, 40 acres cleared. Easy terms. See C. H. Plerce & Son.

—Mrs. M. Shepard and daughter, Miss Basile, of Spokane, Wash., are among the recent purchasers of Medford real estate. This week they purchased the H. C. Mackey property, on North A street for $1,500, and the Clarence Eads property, south of the Westside school house, for $1500. These sales were made through the Rogue River Land Company.

—For sale—An excellent quality of brick—in any quantity. G. W. Fridley. Medford, Oregon.

—"Dare Devil" Duke, ex-trick bicycle rider, ex-house number, ex-Tribune employer and other "ex," left Monday for San Francisco. He would have gone Sunday morning, had it not been that the Hotel Nash management held different views on the matter, owing to Duke not settling up his bill before departing, and swore out a warrant for his arrest. Chief of Police Turpin boarded the train as it pulled out Sunday morning and arrested Duke on the charge of trying to defraud a hotel keeper. He was released on $50 cash bail and between that time and Monday morning had arranged matters with his creditors so that he was permitted to depart in peace, and we hope rejoicing.

—All kinds of bake stuff—Vienna Bakery, Oak house 196 and have goods delivered.

—The Medford Sash & Door Co. are planning on making some extensive improvements at their place of business. A piece of ground has been purchased and they intend to move to their new location, and will erect a new building twice as large as the present one, and will build lumber sheds, moulding racks and will have ample room for carrying a large stock of lumber for all kinds of house work, fixtures and hard wood work. The business of this firm has increased so they cannot do half of the work they will have when the season opens. Several new machines have been ordered and some are expected daily. The new mill will be so arranged that a team can be driven through the shop and unload right at the machine, thereby saving time and money in handling of lumber. With the additional machinery and room the Medford Sash & Door Co. will be able to compete with any other of its kind, and will be able to turn out first class work at a reasonable figure, and on short notice.

—On Tuesday afternoon of this week the Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church met at the Manse and enjoyed several hours time in reciting incidents as to how each of them had earned a dollar for the church. Some few weeks ago each member was assigned the duty of earning a dollar for the church—and Tuesday was the day set for reports. There were thirty-one ladies present who had each earned the required dollar, and they were expected to tell how they earned the money. Mrs. M. L. Alford dressed chickens for her dollar—that is, she redressed the dressed undressed towels—with raiment peculiar to the ladies of our land—and after Worth's latest fashions; Mrs. E. N. Warner popped corn and sold it and blackened her husband's shoes; Mrs. J. E. Watt took kodak postal card pictures and earned her dollar by selling them. Mrs. H. G. Wortman made soukrut and sold it—and there were others whose names our informant could not call to mind who earned their money in equally as amusing a manner as did those mentioned.

—Get your house numbers from the Nicholson Hardware Co. We have all kinds.

—Married—in Medford, Oregon, on Wednesday, January 29, 1908, by Rev. C. H. Hoxie, Mr. Elmer G. Coleman and Mrs. Lillian M. Carver. Both these people are well and favorably known in this locality, being residents of Phoenix precinct, where they will continue to make their home. All their friends—and there are a great number of them—are wishing this happy couple success and happiness in unstinted measure and of life's duration—and The Mail is one of these friends. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. L. A. Keames, of Phoenix.

—I buy poultry and eggs. S. J. Summerlin, at Hotel Emerick, 4-7.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Warner entertained a number of their friends at progressive Euchre at their pleasant home on West Seventh street on Monday evening of this week. Refreshments of cake, salad and coffee were served. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. York, Mr. and Mrs. Kentner, Mrs. Jennings and Mrs. Alford.

—Mrs. Ed. Andrews has opened a studio for voice culture and the art of singing. Phone 71.

—The Baker-Hutcheon firm has leased the store room joining their present quarters. The partition between the two rooms is being removed and they expect to occupy both these rooms the first of the week. This will give them a floor space of 50x75 feet, and there will be two entrances to the store.

—Early Sunrise seed potatoes for sale. C. M. Parker, phone 717, Medford.

—E. E. Bagley arrived in Medford this week from Woodstock, Illinois. Mr. Bagley has some quite extensive land interests near Woodville and he expects to remain here now and improve his property. It is not improbable that F. W. Streets, of this city, will be interested with him in the improvement of this property.

—Every lady in Medford should see that Haviland now on "special sale" at Roberts & Reagan.

—P. K. Nalley has sold his 35 acre farm on Griffin creek, to Mr. Nelson. Mr. Nalley bought this piece a little over a year ago for $1800 and he now sells at a price which nets him just $2025 more than he paid. Nothing wrong about that little deal from the view point of profitable investments.

—The Ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a Library social at the residence of Mrs. E. N. Warner Friday, February 7, 1908, at three o'clock p. m., fifteen cents. Refreshments will be served. All interested in promoting a free library are cordially invited to attend.

—E. F. Winkler who left Medford a few months ago and opened a furniture business in Woodburn, this state, was in Medford this week. He has disposed of his business at Woodburn and he and Mrs. Winkler will locate in Ashland, where Mr. Winkler will engage in business.

—The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. C. H. Corey, on Tuesday afternoon of this week. This was Public Library benefit day with these ladies and about $5 was raised for the library fund—by charging ten cents for refreshments.

—Come and get our special prices on Chinaware. Allen & Reagan.

—The automobile railway car which was ordered a few weeks ago for service on the Pacific & Eastern railroad arrived on Thursday of this week and was put into service on that line, between Medford and Eagle Point. It has a carrying capacity of about a dozen passengers.

—Read carefully the new real estate list of C. H. Plerce & Son, in this issue.

—Died—At his home, two miles west from Medford, on Tuesday, January 28, 1908, John Durning, a native of Maryland, aged nearly 78 years. Funeral services were held on Thursday of this week and interment was made in Old Fellows cemetery.

—Lettuce, cut flowers, and decorative plants at Medford Green House, Phone 604.

—Wm. Humphrey received quite a bad saw cut on his thumb at the Iowa Lumber & Box Company's factory, on Wednesday of this week. Dr. Seelye dressed the wound, and while painful he does not consider it serious.

—Buy your cigars from Ritter & Dunlap, where you get a valuable coupon with every cigar. 39-11.

—H. Scarron, of Los Angeles, Calif., has invested in a number of city lots lately, and purposes putting up a fine, modern dwelling on the same, during the coming season.

—Medford now has the most up-to-date abstract system in this county. See Jackson County Abstract Co. Palm-Neidermeyer building. 2-11.

—Miss Jessie Cole has taken a position as stenographer in the Baker-Hutcheon store. She is a very capable lady and this firm is fortunate in securing her services.

—Clarence D. Kellogg, instructor on piano. Lessons 75 cents. 11-11.

—Married, in Medford at the house of Emil Walter, January 28, 1908, by the Rev. C. H. Hoxie, Mr. Edward F. Walter and Miss Mary Cole, both of Jackson county.

—Read carefully the new real estate list of C. H. Plerce & Son, in this issue.

—Mrs. Farrer assisted by Meadames Wortman and Hale, will entertain the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church at her home Tuesday, February 4th at 2:30 p. m.

—Ladies Aid Market—Saturday p. m. from 2 to 5 at Lindley's store, near Hubbard building. Buy your Sunday dinner.

—J. C. Ward, of Salem, will open, next week, a two-story five cent cash store in the McAndrew block, on East Seventh street.

—Fresh home made bread, cookies, doughnuts and popovers at Bolson's store—No 101. West 7th street, in Moore building.

—Herod Corum has just completed a five-room cottage on North C street.

The Mascot Saturday Night.

Those who hadn't seen The Mascot at the first performance took the opportunity Saturday night to witness the play, and then a whole lot of people who had attended the first performance thought they would have more of a good thing and attended again. Nor were they disappointed. The play ran even more smoothly, than on the first night, even if Ed. Andrews did introduce some new stunts in his trombone solo that convulsed not only the audience but the chorus and some of the principals as well, and the gum-chewing members of the guard were properly and severely rebuked. The more Medford people hear Mrs. Hazlrigg sing the more they want until it has become sort of a habit with the most of us. Miss Ellert was even better in the second than in the first performance and we heard many expressions of admiration from a professional people concerning not only her singing but her dramatic power and graceful stage bearing. Medford can well be proud of the talent displayed by the principals in the production of "The Mascot."

Quality in Flour

Ma says: "A kind word thrown at a husband will farther toward a new bonnet than a rolling pin will." That's where she's wise. Pa thinks there's no one like Ma, because she knows how to put a good square meal on the table. When we came to Medford Ma hunted around for the best place to trade. When she came across Miller & Eubank, she said: "If I could only get Willie (that's me) with a house like that, half my worries would over." Well, I'm it, and most of our groceries and provisions come from this store, also Medford flour for bread and cakes. You won't have much use for a rolling pin in your family if you buy our Webb Foot flour for bread and rolls, also pies and cookies. Loaf and layer cakes, too. That's a skinch.
