CITY HAPPENINGS.

J. M. Hurley and P. M. Kerahaw were about Medford this week collecting money from the several merchants who recently subscribed toward the construction of a wagon road leading into Medford from the Hill road running between Jacksonville and Central Point. They secured $450 in cash, which amount will be deposited with the county officials and will be used in defraying any expense which may be incurred in securing right-of-way and in construction. The proposed new road will leave the Jacksonville-Central Point valley road at the Ross place and run west between the Ed Hanley and Will Stewart places and across the Arm strong place to the Hill road, about three miles north from Jacksonville, and it will be about one and a quarter miles in length, but will shorten the distance between Medford and that point fully three miles. There are a number of farmers in that locality who will appreciate the convenience of the shorter cut—and there are many more tracts of fruit land over there being opened up and set to fruit—and all of this will need to be directly tributary to Medford. At the Ross place this new road will connect with the one running into Medford past the Jones farm and north of the Ish tract.

Miss Gloria Dare appeared in concert and recital at the opera house Monday night, assisted by local talent, to a small audience. The show was given for the benefit of Weston Ka Tribe, Imp'd O. H. Olive Rebekah Lodge members were highly entertained on Tuesday evening of this week at Odd Fellows hall. It was social night in that lodge and there was more fun to the square inch of lodge room space than is often the good fortune of people to enjoy. It would be useless to attempt to tell of the amusements presented—but there was innocent diversion and pleasure for everyone. The banquet room was a roaring, rollicking carnival scene, a scene where booths, popcorn balls and confetti were factors not to be disregarded. Besides these there was an abundance of good things to eat—all of which was, per force of circumstances, peppered, spiced and salted with confetti. The committee responsible for all this merriment and enjoyment was Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Boyden, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Butler, Mrs. T. E. Pottenger.

To the Public.

Office of the Commissioner, Department of the Interior, General Land Office, Washington, January 21, 1908.

Registers and Receivers, United States Land Office, Gentlemen:

There has been industriously circulated by way of newspaper advertisements, and otherwise, over the name of F. P. Rolfe, statements to the effect that Congressman Tawney, after a conference with the commissioner of the General Land office, advised his son that persons filing on the Oregon and California railroad lands would, without doubt, be able to secure the lands. These advertisements are untrue and misleading. The tendency of such advertisements is to impose upon innocent and unsuspecting persons. You will please give as wide publicity as possible to the statements above set forth.

Very respectfully,
R. A. Ballinger, Commissioner.

Quality in Flour

Ma says: "A kind word thrown at a husband will go farther toward a new bonnet than a rolling pin will." That's where she's wise. Pa thinks there's no one like Ma, because she knows how to put a good square meal on the table. When we came to Medford Ma hunted around for the best place to trade. When she came across Miller & Eubank, she said: "If I could only get Willie (that's me) with a house like that, half my worries would over." Well, I'm it, and most of our groceries and provisions come from this store, also Medford flour for bread and cakes. You won't have much use for a rolling pin in your family if you buy our Webb Flour for bread and rolls, also pies and cookies. Loaf and layer cakes, too. That's a skinch.
