Klamath County News.
Klamath Falls Republican: Episcopal Church, of the Southern Pacific states that the work of cross-sectioning from Downslong to the Upper Lake, a distance of 30 miles, is complete with the exception of about 2000 yards at the depot grounds. The railroad will have about a mile and a half of yards in Klamath Falls, and this would indicate that this city would be a division point.

A message was received from Bray, stating that a large force of men began Wednesday morning laying track on the extension of the California Northwestern railroad to Dorris. The roadbed has already been graded and ready for the rail-for about two thirds of the distance and the grading crew is pushing the work as fast as possible. The track laying will be swift work and the contractors expect to have the road complete and ready for service as far as Macdoel, a distance of 15 miles, by the tenth of March. It is now assured that the railroad will be completed and in running order, as far as Dorris by the first of May.

J. B. C. Taylor and M. F. Parker are building, near Hanks' Landing, a fast traveling steamboat for service, between Klamath Falls and Fort Klamath. The boat will be 60 feet long and 12 feet beam with cabin and pilot house, and will be equipped with 12 horse power engine and twin screw propeller. The fuel has been laid and the frame up and the lumber is ready for the sides.
 The boat will be ready for use by May 1. The regular round trip daily run between this city and the Fort will be inaugurated about June 1.
 The steamboat is specially constructed for use on the river and will be able to make the short turns necessary, which are impossible for boats the size of the Winema. It is to be used for conveying passengers and light freight to the Wood river country.

Klamath Falls Express: Henry Stoebeler brought in a load of the finest oats brought to town for many a day. Mr. Stoebeler grew 1000 bushels of these oats on 20 acres of dry farming on his Yonka valley ranch.

That work will be commenced on the Clear lake dam in the early spring no longer conjecture but an assured fact. The reclamation service has advertised for bids for the part of the upper irrigation project, to be opened April 15. The specifications for the dam call for the placing of 54,000 cubic yards of earth and rock fill, and the building of necessary spillway and outlet. The dikes will require about 25,000 cubic yards of fill.

The rapidly growing little town of Dorris, on the C. & N. E. line in Siskiyou county, Calif., is to have a newspaper within the next few weeks. W. H. Bohannon, a practical newspaper man of Nevada, is to engineer the new weekly. Mr. Bohannon was in town yesterday and while here purchased the press used for years for the publication of the Express which will be moved to the Hutto valley town at once.

BORROWED BOOKS.
 The Way Their Return Priced an Artist's Conscience.
 In the course of some reminiscences of Mr. Edward Burns-Jones a correspondent of the Westchester Gazette remarks: Those who are not "offended" by the paradoxes of Charles Lamb would have delighted in Burns-Jones' play of humor and imagination. Let me justify my reference to Charles Lamb.
 I once returned to Burns-Jones some books which he had lent me thirty years before, writing to him to the effect that if it was time to help borrowed books so long it was heretofore to return them after such long possession as might well breed the sense of ownership. In reply he said:
 "The return of those books has simply staggered me. It has also pained me, for it seems to raise the standard of morality in those matters and perhaps to sting the susceptible conscience of book borrowers. I have many borrowed books on my shelves.
 I would rather the owners should die than that I should have to think about those things and return them. I have two costly volumes that were lent to me before that little incident of ours, which you may remember, was in Red Lion square. I hope the owner is no more, for I simply will not give them up. And you have made me uneasy and have helped to turn an unhappy rascal into a confirmed villain."

Spain's Popular Beverage.
 "Borchata de chufa" is the singular name of the most popular drink in Madrid. This is made from a nut called "chufa," yielding a milky liquid when reduced to a pulp. This is diluted with water and forms a most cooling and refreshing drink. However, it is an acquired taste. Very few like it at the first trial. The borchata may be made from different kinds of nuts. The almond is used also. Strange to relate, the borchata de chufa is always sold where matting is kept for sale, so that when you pay a roll of the latter outside the store door it is a sufficient indication that in that particular place you may procure a glass of the borchata. In spite of inquiries, I was unable to discover the origin of the singular combination of articles on sale.—London Truth.

Writers' Cramp.
 Writers' cramp is a serious matter to people whose work requires that they use a pen very much, while for the unaccustomed writer who takes up his pen after a long vacation, it is, to say the least, very discouraging. The trouble is more than muscular in this kind of cramp. Very often a low, nervous condition will cause it. Then one should take it as a warning that the system is run down and needs general toning up. Very often, however, the trouble is all in the way you hold your pen.
 Children now in school are not likely to be troubled with writers' cramp, because they are taught to hold the pen lightly and make all the movements from the arm instead of the hand. The old-fashioned method which most of us learned of holding the pen between the thumb and forefinger is also very likely to encourage a cramp. The muscles become tense and hard, until finally they contract so much that all control over them is lost. The pen should be held between the first two fingers, well up toward the joint. The trouble may often be relieved by putting the hand and wrist into the hottest water one can stand.
 —Boston Herald.

Tenderness of the Hanging Judge.
 Mr. Justice Hawkins' tenderness for women prisoners was well known. He admitted it, and he had a great difficulty of sentencing these poor creatures to death who had been recommended to mercy and would probably be relieved of it. On one such occasion the sheriff asked if he was not going to put on the black cap.
 "No," he answered, "I am not. I do not intend the poor creature to be hanged, and I am not going to frighten her to death."
 Addressing her by name, he said:
 "Don't pay any attention to what I am going to read. No harm will be done to you. I am sure you did not know in your great trouble and sorrow what you were doing, and I will take care to represent your case so that nothing will harm you in the way of punishment."
 He then mumbled over the words of the sentence of death so that the poor creature did not hear them.—London Graphic.

Lobster Fare.
 Hungry lobsters in their natural state seldom refuse fish of any kind, whether dead or alive. The favorite bait with fishermen is fresh or stale herring, but even shark meat is used at a pinch. Lobsters also eat small crabs, sea urchins and mussels. Indeed, there are few forms of marine life suitable for food which they refuse. Lobsters sometimes capture fish alive, striking them with the smaller of their two great claws, which for this reason fishermen call the "quick" or "fish" claw, but they will live for a long time, especially when confined without taking any food. If you tether the lobster by the large claws, you will find that, like the muskrat, he will catch some fine morning, leaving only his legs in the trap, for this animal has the remarkable power of "shooting a claw," or amputating its limbs, and what is still more wonderful, of grow-
 hind.—St. Nicholas.

The Microscope.
 There is good reason to believe that the magnifying power of transparent media with convex surfaces was very early known. A convex lens of rock crystal was found by Lavey among the ruins of the palace of Nimrod. And it is pretty certain that after the invention of glass hollow spheres blown of that material were commonly used as magnifiers. The perfection of gem cutting shown in ancient gems, especially in those of very minute size, could not have been attained without the use of such aids to the eye, and there can be little doubt that the artificers who could execute those wonderful works could also shape and polish the magnifiers best suited for their own or others' use.—New York American.

Best Healer in the World.
 Rev. F. Starbird, of East Raymond, Maine, says: "I have used Bukler's Arnica Salve for several years on my old army wound, and other obstinate sores, and find it the best healer in the world. I use it too with great success in my veterinary business." Price 25c at Chas. Strang's drug store.

The Right Idea.
 "How do you define the phrase 'as black as your hat'?" a father asked his son as the latter had just used the expression.
 "Well," replied the youth, "I should define it as darkness that might be felt."—Cassell's Journal.

The Clock and the Watch.
 "What pleased me most," said the man who had been abroad, "was the wonderful clock at Strasburg."
 "Oh, how I should like to see it!" replied the ignorant youth. "And did you see the watch on the Rhine too?"

At the Foot End.
 "Alas, I am at my wit's end," exclaimed the monarch as he was unexpectedly kicked by the court jester.
