Klamath County News.

Klamath Falls Republican:

One of the largest real estate deals ever consummated in this city was put through Tuesday, when L. Jacobs purchased from G. W. White the property at the corner of Main and Sixth street. It has a frontage of 130 feet on Main and 116 feet deep. This deal has been under consideration for some time and so certain was Mr. Jacobs of purchasing it that he had plans drawn for the structure that is to be erected thereon. This building will be modern in every respect. The ground floor will be divided into five store rooms. Upstairs will be a hotel, with a ground floor office. Each room will have hot and cold water and several will have private baths. It will be a hotel that will have few equals in the state outside of Portland and will be an ornament to the city. The price paid for the property was $15,000, and is a fair indication of the manner in which business property in this city is increasing in value. This is the first step in the movement looking toward the upbuilding of a greater Klamath Falls and one that will this year be followed by many other enterprises of equal importance.

The sale of delinquent tax property by the sheriff, occurred at the court house Friday. On account of the temporary injunction preventing the sale of the holdings of the California & Oregon Land Company, there was very little valuable property left for sale, the greater portion being White lake City and Duffy's addition lots. This proves that property in Klamath county is too valuable to allow it to be sold for taxes.

Klamath Falls Express:

A drunken Dutchman took temporary possession of Merrill last Saturday and rode his horse on the sidewalk defying all the marshals in Klamath county. Fine, $5 and costs. Rather cheap considering the fact that it costs a man in this town $10 and costs to administer a drubbing to an individual and receive a knife wound from a third party.

Beginning this morning the Klamath Falls postoffice passed to the management of the new postmaster, R A Emmitt, H F Murdock retiring. Mr Murdock has had six continuous years as postmaster and has given the public the best of service. Although his administration of the office has at times been criticised, such criticisms have been made without knowledge of the conditions actually existing in the office.

"Not guilty." Saturday night Peter Petersteiner walked home a free man after having been on trial in the circuit court for a week past charged with the murder of James M. Johnson, and a devoted wife saw her tears dispelled as these words fell from the judge's lips. The verdict was reached after less than an hour's deliberation by the jury, and as in the Corpron case, met with general approval. When court convened Saturday morning, the defendant was put on the witness stand and told his story of the occurrences at the Klamath Bar on last Christmas eve when Johnson received his death wound. His testimony was practically the same as that of Frank Corpron given at his trial. The afternoon was taken up with the arguments of the attorneys and the instructions of the court. The jury retired at 5:50 and returned the verdict a few minutes after 6 o'clock.

Prof. H. A. Howell, of Havanna, Cuba, Rccommends Cham Cough Remedy.

"As long ago as I can remember my mother was a faithful user and friend of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, but never in my life have I realized its true value until now," writes Prof. H. A. Howell, of Howell's American School, Havana, Cuba. "On the night of February 3rd our baby was taken sick with a very severe cold; the next day was worse and the following night his condition was desperate. He could not lie down and it was necessary to have him in the arms every moment. Even then his breathing was difficult. I did not think he would live until morning. At last I thought of my mother's remedy, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which we gave, and it afforded prompt relief, and now 3 days later, he has fully recovered. Under the circumstances I would not hesitate a moment in saying that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that only, saved the life of our dear little boy." For sale by C. Strang.

Good For Everybody.

Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect in the Delbert Building, San Francisco, says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine. It is good for everybody. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorders in a prompt and efficient manner and builds up the system." Electric Bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter; as a blood purifier it is unequaled. 50c. at Chas. Strang's drug store.

HAPPENINGS IN OREGON

Prescott Dock Caves Landward.

Rainier—The main dock of the Beaver Lumber Company, at Prescott, has broken down and 1,500,000 feet of lumber went with it. Fortunately the dock fell in toward the land side and all the lumber was saved except what was broken. The loss is estimated at from $12,000 to $15,000.

Handcar Struck by Work Train.

Glendale—While coming from their work near Reuben, the handcar of the section crew on the Southern Pacific railway was struck by a work train going east as it rounded a curve in the canyon. All the crew except D. B. Marker jumped. The handcar was thrown from the trck and wrecked, and Mr. Marker sustained serious injuries.

New Reserve District.

Eugene—On March 15 a new district of the National forest reserves will be established, with headquarters at Eugene, and Supervisor Seitz will have charge of the division. The new division includes all that territory north of the forks of the Willamette and Deschutes rivers, and south of the north line of township 13, and extends from the coast east to a point several miles east of the summit of the Cascades.

Town Lots Sold for Taxes.

Seaside—There has been much contention over the taxes levied by West Seaside for the building of the broad board walk along the ocean front. Some refused to pay the taxes and some who lived elsewhere could not be located and were not notified, consequently 75 lots were sold on March 1 for delinquent improvement taxes. The city of West Seaside purchased all this property and deeds for the lots were placed on file for record with the county clerk.

Slough Appears Bottomless.

The Dalles—An immense sum has already been expended by the North Bank railroad in an effort to complete a fill opposite this city. As rapidly as the material is deposited on the site of the fill it appears to sink and so far it has been impossible to raise the grade above a certain level. It is the theory of the roadbuilders that the bottom of the slough which they are trying to fill is quicksand. In order that traffic shall not be delayed, a temporary track has been laid around the slough.

Lane County Pays $2.50 for Coyotes

Eugene—The Lane County Commissioners' court has made an order directing the payment of $2.50 for every coyote, wolf and cougar killed in Lane County hereafter. The order was made upon petition of the South Lane County Coyote Club, consisting of 80 farmers and stockmen residing at Cottage Grove, Walker and Creswell and their respective vicinities. During the past year the club has paid out considerable money in bounties, but the animals still continue their depredations.

Homesteaders Are Encouraged.

Klamath Falls—There is renewed hope on the part of homesteaders in the Southern Oregon pine timber belt. In several decisions rendered by the land office at Lakeview and sustained by the General Land Office the homesteader on lands valued chiefly for timber received the worst of the deal, and the timber and stone application was given the preference. Recently, however, in a contest decided by the acting commissioner of the General Land Office, the decision was strongly in favor of the homesteader, and the acting commissioner held that the homestead entry should hold regardless of the character of the land or the amount of timber thereon. All that is necessary is for the homesteader to show good faith in compliance with the laws governing homestead entries.

Horse Is Killed While Owner Fights

Pendleton—Left standing unhitched, a horse [illegible] to J. A. Hawks [illegible] while its owner and A. [illegible] in a [illegible] over a [illegible] the [illegible] to which it was hitched. Hawks is a homesteader and schoolteacher at Nolin, and Slusher is the son of Joint Representative Slusher and is associated with his father in the sheep business on their ranches near Nolin.

The schoolteacher says he crosses the Slusher ranch on his way to school, and that Slusher was waiting for him at the gate on the Slusher farm and accused him of leaving the gate open frequently. While frightened and dashed over a [illegible] they were fighting the horse became by bluff.
