Oregon, Ida, youngest daughter of William Klinead, of Chicago. The summons came very suddenly and was a shock to the family and friends. The family are now coming here and for that reason the sympathy of the neighborhood went out to them in an unusual degree. The remains were laid to rest in the Central Point cemetery Friday afternoon.

Besides her husband and six little children she leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn her untimely death. "Her suffering ended with the day,
Yet lived she at its close,
And breathed the long, long night away
In statue-like repose.
But when the sun, in all his state,
Illumed the eastern sky,
She passed through glory's morning gate
And walked in Paradise."
