News From Van Dyke's Quit Business Sale--Medford

THE GREATEST SELLING EVENT IN SOUTHERN OREGON BEGINS

SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1908

And Continues Until the Entire Stock is Disposed of

READ THIS

When J. G. Van Dyke ordered that this business be closed out and discontinued, there was over $3000.00 worth of new spring goods in transit to this store which was due to arrive before the opening of this sale, but it failed to come. The entire shipment has been delayed through error of the Railroad Company, but at last this order has arrived and will be offered to you at such low prices that you will be amazed

Complete line of calicoes, gingham, percales, spring and summer dress materials, curtain swisses, draperies, linens, etc. Splendid assortment of new summer parasols, in all the new shades.

Remember

This sale is a bona fide Quit Business Sale and J. G. Van Dyke & Co. must and will quit business as soon as this stock can be disposed of. All our orders are now in and all must go at some price.

Remember

ANOTHER FACT

Although this sale has been an unparalleled success and an enormous amount of merchandise has been sold, to close out a stock of this size takes time and labor. The best of this stock is still your disposal and prices are lower than ever.
