Gold Hill News:

The big task of moving the mammoth electric shovels from Central Point to its location on Xanes Creek, is progressing as rapidly as conditions will permit. All of the small machinery is now on the ground and the work of transporting the shovels has begun. An effort was made Monday to move the big machine by using a traction engine, but it had not sufficient power to make it. Mr. Hough is now after another traction engine and he hopes that with the combined power of the two that he will be able to place the shovels in position, within a few days. All of the machinery is now on the ground or at the depot, with the exception of the washer or gold saving apparatus, which has just been shipped from the east. It will require several days to place all of the machinery in position, but it is hoped to have everything in readiness when the washer arrives.

Central Point Herald:

R. C. Hensley has sold his farm immediately north of town to H. F. Young, recently from Ashville, N. Y. The place contains about 50 acres of land and the price paid was $12,000. Mr. Hensley will give possession about June 1st and will move to town, where with his family he expects to make his home.

Reports of the auto accident which W. C. Green met with late last Wednesday evening, as published in Medford papers, were not correct. Mr. Green was going to Medford to have some work done on his engine, which had not been working satisfactorily, when the accident occurred. He had no passengers with him as reported, and he says the cause of the accident was a large, round rock in the ditch which veered his machine and caused it to go in the ditch. Mr. Green sustained no broken bones nor other injuries except a dislocation of the shoulder, which is mending tardily.

Ashland Tidings:

At high noon today, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Chamberlain, 74 Beach street, in this city, Miss Daisy Lorenz Jackson was united in marriage to Mr. Mortimer W. Lawton. Rev. W. L. Mellinger, pastor of the Christian church officiating. The newly married couple left on the 2:30 train this afternoon for Millers, Nevada, where Mr. Lawton is now located as an electrical engineer. A company of about forty relatives and friends, many of whom were from Medford, witnessed the interesting ceremony. Mrs. H. T. Sutton played the wedding march and the happy couple took their place before the officiating minister unattended. After congratulations a wedding luncheon was served. The groom is a son of J. W. Lawton, of Medford, and is connected with the first families of our neighboring city. His bride has been a resident of Ashland for two years past, is an accomplished musician, and popular in social circles in this city.

The hardware store of Biegel & Wilcox, Main street, between Granite and Church, was broken into and robbed some time Tuesday night, and goods to the estimated value of $50 taken. Entrance was gained by prying open a window in the rear of the store building, a sheet iron pipe bar with the brand of the C. P. R. R. on it being used as a jimmy. It was left where it was used. A Colt's 38 calibre automatic revolver was taken out of a show case in the front part of the store, together with a supply of ammunition. Several boxes of pocket knives were also taken, besides a few razors.

Upon telegraphic instruction from the authorities at Red Bluff, Calif., Friday to arrest him for child stealing, Chief of Police placed a man named Robbins in custody here on that day, shortly after his arrival from the south, in company with a ten year old boy, and a woman, who it is said is associated with him in his business as a traveling photographer. Not hearing from the authorities at Red Bluff within a reasonable time and having no warrant for the arrest in their possession, the local authorities turned Robbins loose. Saturday, late however, further word came and also Deputy Sheriff Florence from Red Bluff with a warrant sworn out by a Catholic priest at that place, but there is quite a conflict between the Oregon and California authorities, in the matter, and at last report, the re-arrest of Robbins had just occurred. According to Robbins' story he recently found the boy in a convent at Red Bluff and recognized him as his own child, his wife having deserted him when the boy was four months old. For years he had sought in vain and recently by chance found the boy in the convent where he had been all the time, he says. Robbins, at first agreed to go back to California, but later after consulting his attorney, E. D. Briggs, decided to stand upon his rights.

Klamath County News.

Klamath Falls Republican:

There is now an excellent opportunity for this city to secure a state militia. The army bill passed by the Senate a short time ago paved the way for the establishment of a number of military companies in Oregon. It is necessary to recruit five additional companies in order to bring the Fourth Oregon regiment up to a regular army basis. These additional companies will be organized in the towns of the state. Klamath Falls, because of its location, is entitled to one of these companies, and if the proper efforts are put forth it can be secured and its organization effected.

W. H. Helleman, who has charge of the preparation and maintenance states that the water will be turned into the main canal within a very few days. The canal is now ready for the water, but he has not turned it in because the engineers making reclassification of the dirt on the Mason, Davis & Co. contract have not finished their work, and because the lands are not in dire need of water. He says that the water is only a few degrees above the freezing point and it would do very little good to the crops to use cold water on the soil at this time of the year. The crops are all young and the warm dry days have had no bad effect on them. Alfalfa is coming up nicely, but owing to the fact that its roots go down deep it can go for some time without suffering any damage from the want of water. However, the engineers will complete the classification of water within a very few days and the water will then be turned into the canal and will be at the disposal of the ranchers and farmers.

Klamath county has long been looking forward to the time when it should be in a position where a new court house can be built without any infringement of the law governing the indebtedness of the county. This time is now near at hand and it is safe to say that before work will have commenced on the erection of the most beautiful and substantial court house in Southern Oregon. The county has long needed a court house, and had it not been for the unconstitutionality of a certain measure put before the Legislature the structure would now be completed. The indebtedness of the county has prevented the erection of a new building for county purposes, but now that the debt is being reduced the possibility for a court house becomes encouraging. In another year the county should be practically free from debt. The semi-annual statement of the county officials for the term ending March 1st shows the total liabilities of the county to be $83,831.70, while the resources aggregate $31,005.45, leaving an indebtedness of $52,826.25. This itself amounts to practically nothing, but in one more year the amount will be less than $20,000, and if the county of Klamath cannot then begin the erection of a $100,000 court house without having the legality of the warrants questioned by some disgruntled tax payer it will be high time to change the law governing the limit of indebtedness of a county. During the past year the indebtedness of the county has been reduced approximately $40,000, and should this work continue for one year the county can then pay for the court house as the work proceeds and by the time the building is completed it will also be paid for.

Castro Bluff Called.

April 8.—From a number of conferences which Chairman Cullom of the senate committee on foreign relations has had recently with President Roosevelt and Secretary Root, it is now probable that before the adjournment of the present session of Congress blanket authority will be voted to the president to proceed against Venezuela in such a manner as future events may require to uphold the dignity of the United States and protect the interests of American citizens.

A resolution giving such authority to the President has been drafted by Senator Cullom and approved by the President and Secretary Root. It provides in general terms that the President shall have the power to deal with Venezuela in the matter of adjusting the controversy with that country concerning wrongs done to American citizens and corporations. Venezuela by reason of the ill-treatment they have received at the hands of President Castro.

Under such authority the administration could again demand the submission to arbitration of claims of American citizens and corporations against Venezuela. The treaties on the subject of general arbitration and the use of force in the recovery of debts, ratified by the Senate in the last few weeks obligate the United States to follow this line of procedure.

If a resolution giving general authority to President Roosevelt to proceed against Venezuela as he sees fit is adopted by his Congress and in event Castro should continue in his present attitude there is no question that the American Government would have the power to resort to force. Furthermore, the indications are that an aggressive program would be adopted.

Rheumatism.

More than nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp weather, or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed, and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness. Price 25 cents; large size, 50 cents. Sold by Chas. Strang.

Excursion Rates to S. F.

On account of the fleet of battleships and other visiting in San Francisco harbor early in May, the Southern Pacific company will sell tickets at a fare and a third on May 2nd, 3rd and 4th, these tickets will be good for 20 days, but will not permit of stop overs. The company is granting this low rate and long limit to give all an opportunity to see this warship fleet, and partake in the Grand Celebration San Francisco has prepared for the officers and jacking. It will also be an excellent opportunity to see how San Francisco has risen from the ruins in two years. Further information at the depot Medford, Oregon.

Object to Strong Medicine.

Many people object to taking the strong medicines usually prescribed by physicians for rheumatism. There is no need for internal treatment in any case of muscular or chronic rheumatism, and more than nine out of every case of the disease are of one or the other of these varieties. When there is no fever and little (if any) swelling, you may know that it is only necessary to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely to get quick relief. Try it. For sale by Chas. Strang.
