LAND FRAUD CASES.

Eleven Defendants Were Arraigned in Court Yesterday.

(Associated Press Dispatch.)
PORTLAND, Ore., June 22.—Eleven of the fourteen defendants included in the Umattila Indian reservation land fraud indictments were arraigned before Judge Wolverton in the United States district court today and were given until August 1 to plead. The defendants arraigned today were: J. H. Raley, John Crow, William Slusher, Joseph H. Parker, Bailey Ross, John Vert, Charles Mathias, George Adams, William Rahn, Samuel Olmstead and O. P. Bowman. One of the other three had not been served with a bench warrant and the other two failed to present an appearance. Robert Porter was given an extension until next Monday, when he will be arraigned. None of the cases are likely to be set for trial until after the so-called "Henry" cases are disposed of late this summer. It has been commented on that these defendants are nearly all residents of Pendleton and are the first men to be indicted by District Attorney John McCourt, who hails from the same place, after his induction to office.

JAMES R. KEENE TAKES TIDAL STAKES

(Associated Press Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, June 26.—The 15th successive victory was added to his record today by Colin, James R. Keene's unbeaten 2-year-old, when he won the Tidal stakes at Sheepshead Bay today in easy fashion. The Tidal stakes are for 3-year-olds and are worth $14,500 to the winner. Today's winning, with that of Ballot in the Suburban Friday, makes Keene's returns from two races $25,000. The distance today was one mile and a quarter; time, 2:02. Donrante was second by two lengths and Stamina third by four lengths.

A LITTLE OF EVERYTHING

"Bill" Taft will be a mighty fast runner in the presidential race, notwithstanding that heavy avoirdupois that makes up his stature. Whatever the future may do for Frank Hitchcock, the young man has surely been making a noise like the big boss in Chicago. Where a few are gathered together there will be found someone to jump on William H. Taft. As it may gratify the jumper and doesn't worry the candidate, on with the sport. The hegira to the mountains and coast resorts has begun earlier than usual this year, indicating that the movement will be general after the fourth of July. The third time is said to be the charm. Perhaps the next time the Tribune publishes the fact that Judge Hanna has overruled the demurrer offered by Attorney Colvig, it will be true. An exchange queries: "How can a man run a seven-column newspaper in a one-column town?" We would advise him to move, and if he can't we would remind him that virtue is its own reward. Political prophets are becoming very dependable. They called the turn in the case of Taft, and none of their reputations will be wrecked by the outcome of the Denver convention, which they predict will select Bryan on the first ballot. Tennessee and Mississippi have instructed for Bryan. It is not remarkable that they should have done so, in view of the fact that it is customary for Democratic state conventions to instruct for somebody. There was no one else to tie up. Governor Hughes can now turn his entire attention to being governor of New York, and if he makes good in the next four years as he has in the past he is going to be a serious problem in the presidential nominations of 1912. Another business concern with a world-wide reputation has turned its attention to the wonderful resources of this valley. The D. M. Perry Seed company will not be disappointed in their investment in this valley. There is an abundance of room for other concerns of a like nature. Residents of this valley should welcome them all.

Prohibition moves are not all of a political nature, as is evidenced by a recent order of the Frick Coke company of Pittsburg, Pa., in which it prohibits the use of intoxicants by any of its employees either while on or off duty, with the understanding that the one who disregards the order will be discharged from the employ of the company. The company has traced the cause of many of the accidents in its mines direct to the overindulgence in intoxicants by their employees, and takes this move as a matter of economy for itself and safety for the men who are employed by it.

A Grand Family Medicine.
"It gives me pleasure to speak a good word for Electric Bitters," writes Mr. Frank Conlan of No. 436 Houston street, New York. "It's a grand family medicine for dyspepsia and liver complications; while for lame back and weak kidneys it cannot be too highly recommended." Electric Bitters regulate the digestive functions, purify the blood and impart renewed vigor and vitality to the weak and debilitated of both sexes. Sold under guarantee at Chas. Strang's drug store. Fifty cents.

JURY BRING CHOSEN.
Four Jurors Are Chosen for the Trial of James H. Booth.
PORTLAND, Ore., June 22.—Following the denial of a motion to dismiss the indictment against James H. Booth, ex-receiver of the land office at Roseburg, Ore., the selection of the jury began this afternoon in the United States district court, and when the case was adjourned until tomorrow four jurors were chosen. They are: Henry C. Fowler, Columbia county; Peter Peterson, Multnomah; Frank Odell, Yamhill; E. Allen, Benton. The jury will be completed tomorrow and it is expected that the case will go to the jury the last of the present week. Booth is accused of having accepted $800 from P. A. Keyes for giving advance information concerning certain lands when they became available for filing.

Thinks It Saved His Life.
Lester M. Nelson, of Naples, Me., says in a recent letter: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery many years, for coughs and colds, and I think it saved my life. I have found it a reliable remedy for throat and lung complaints and would no more be without a bottle than I would be without food." For nearly forty years New Discovery has stood at the head of throat and lung remedies. As a preventative of pneumonia and healer of weak lungs it has no equal. Sold under guarantee at Chas. Strang's drug store, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

(From Friday's Daily.)

I. J. Patton of Eagle Point, visited his many Medford friends on Thursday.

H. J. Wortman and C. W. Backus of Portland are in the city looking for a location.

C. H. Lewis, owner of the Bear Creek orchards, came in from Portland yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Burdick and son, Mrs. E. D. Briggs and Miss Marlon Nell of Ashland were Medford visitors yesterday.

Mrs. Fred Hand of Seattle, Wash., arrived in the city yesterday and will visit with her sister, Mrs. H. L. Young, near Brownsboro.

Louis Bennett will return today from Corvallis, where he has been attending commencement exercises of the Agricultural college.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mudge of Gate, Wash., arrived in Medford Thursday and will remain hereabouts for a few days looking for a location.

Arthur Holden of Sellwood, Or., was in Medford Thursday. He was en route to his old home, in the Trall Creek country, for a few days' stay.

Roy Roberts, who has been engaged in the real estate business in Medford for the past few months left Thursday for Mexico, to remain.

Mrs. William Ferguson, sister of Mrs. Robert Ferguson, of this city, left yesterday for her home in California. She was en route home from a visit to Tacoma friends.

Mrs. Stein of Oakland, Cal., was in Medford this week, paying a visit to Druggist Strang and family. The lady had been at Brownsboro, visiting her mother, Mrs. McDonald.

Mrs. L. E. Whiting and son, Norman, left last evening for a visit to Portland, at which place they will stop for a short time with Mrs. Whiting's sister, Mrs. Charles A. Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. John Haertle and Mrs. William Milnes came out from Hills, Cal., yesterday and within a few days Mrs. Haertle and Mrs. Milnes will leave for a visit to their old home at Marshfield, Wis.

Clem Burke, Bert Stancliff and Ernest Smith attended the Southern Oregon Normal school alumni and banquet at Ashland Wednesday evening. There were between 75 and 100 in attendance and a very enjoyable time was had. The meeting was held downtown in Memorial hall.

O. B. Ball, manager of the Portland branch of the American Typefounders' company, was in Medford yesterday. He went as far south as Ashland, where today he will meet his wife, who has been in California for her health—and all the printer boys along the line will regret to learn that the trip has not proven as beneficial as it was hoped for.

Mrs. Lulu J. Perry and her mother, Mrs. E. J. Roberts, were in from the Griffin creek country Thursday. These ladies have but recently moved to their new home, which they recently purchased, the scrubbing 27 acres of the old Farber place. They have but recently built some fine large buildings on the place.

(From Saturday's Daily.)
B. S. Baker of Trall was in the city Friday. His business in the city at this time was to file a homestead on the unsurveyed land in his section.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones of Fort Jones, Cal., arrived in Medford on Thursday evening on a six weeks' visit to Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith of North Medford.

Mrs. H. C. Godlove of Vancouver, Wash., and her sister, Miss Maud Sutherland of Spokane, arrived in the city yesterday and will only a visit with J. C. Godlove, who lives between Medford and Jacksonville.

Mrs. C. I. Hutchison and daughter, Miss Fern, returned Friday morning from Portland, where they have been residing for several months and where Miss Fern has been attending school and studying music.

Miss Della Pickel returned to Medford Friday from Douglas, Alaska, at which place she has been principal of the public schools for the past two years, and to which position she has been re-elected for another year. Miss Pickel is a sister of Dr. E. H. Fickel and will spend her vacation in Medford with relatives and many old-time friends.

Mrs. William Milnes of Hills, Cal. who left Medford yesterday for the East, took with her about $129 in gold sticks and nuggets, which she will present to her friends, at her old home in Marshfield, Wis. The really nice feature in connection with these little gifts will be the fact that the nuggets were mined by her husband and from his own mine.

(From Sunday's Daily.)
G. W. Campbell of Denver is here looking over the valley with a view to purchasing orchard land.

Mrs. F. E. Redden and daughter, Little Georgia, left yesterday for Appleton, for a week's visit with relatives.

H. G. Mather and family will return next week to their home at Phoenix, after having spent the winter and spring in Oakland, Cal.

John Porter returned yesterday from Corvallis, Or., where he has been in attendance at the State Agricultural college for the past year.

T. H. Miller and son, Oscar Miller, and Anton Dreda, all of Crete, Neb., arrived in Medford Saturday and will visit here a few days. They are old-time acquaintances of Mr. Bothwell and family of this city.

C. B. Pierce of Los Angeles, Cal., is in Medford looking for orchard land. His coming is the result of a bit of maling work done by Barney O'Neil.

W. S. Bennett reports that his cherry crop is an unusually good one this year. Some of his trees, he says, are too heavily loaded for the trees to easily stand up under.

S. G. Van Dyke of Phoenix was in the city yesterday. Mr. Van Dyke is making things look businesslike around his new home east of Bear creek. He already has 100 acres of fine fruit trees growing nicely—these of the standard apple varieties.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Carnahan returned to Medford yesterday, the former from Yreka and Mrs. Carnahan from the Klamath Hot Springs, where she has been taking treatment for rheumatism for the past couple of weeks. Her health is very much improved.

Mrs. M. A. Finch and Mrs. S. A. McIlwain of Willows, Cal., arrived in Medford Saturday and will spend the summer here and may decide to remain permanently. They are mother and sister, respectively, of Mrs. J. K. Russell of this city.

(From Sunday's Daily.)
The international commerce of the world now exceeds 25 billions of dollars, of which 13 1/2 billions is imports and 12 1/2 billions exports. Of the imports of countries other than the United States, 14.1-5 per cent are drawn from this country, and of their exports, 9 1/2 per cent are sent to us.

The countries in which the largest share of the trade occurs with the United States are as a rule those of the American continent and those lying nearer to its markets than to those of other countries, while in a large proportion of cases their products are of the character especially required in the United States, and their requirements chiefly of the character of articles largely produced in the United States. Mexico, separated from the United States only by an imaginary line, and penetrated by railroad lines which are operated in close conjunction with those of the United States, takes practically 66 per cent of its imports from this country and sends 68.6 per cent of its exports to our markets. Manufactures, breadstuffs, meats and coal are the principal articles forming this large share which Mexico takes from the United States, and sisal, copper in ore and pigs, lead, hides and skins, and coffee and other tropical products are the principal articles forming the large share of her exports to us.

In the case of European countries, the percentage which American products form of the imports is much larger than that which products for the United States form of the exports. In the case of the United Kingdom, for example, the imports from the United States formed 20.45 per cent of the total, while of the exports, the share sent to the United States was 7.25 per cent. In the case of Germany imports from the United States formed 13.91 per cent of the total, and exports to the United States 9.46 per cent of the total. In the case of Italy, imports from the United States formed 12.48 per cent of the total, and exports to the United States formed 11.95 per cent of the total. In the case of Austria-Hungary merchandise from the United States formed 0.40 per cent of the total imports, and that sent to the United States formed 2.36 per cent of the total exports. In the case of France, merchandise from the United States formed 10.7 per cent of the total imports, and that sent to the United States, 6 per cent of the total exports.

In the Orient conditions vary greatly, according to the peculiar circumstances. In the case of Japan, merchandise from the United States formed 21.35 per cent of the imports and consignments to the United States 29.48 per cent of the exports. In the case of China, merchandise from the United States formed 16.68 per cent of the imports and that sent to the United States 11.86 per cent of the exports. In the case of India merchandise from the United States formed 1.47 per cent of the imports, while that sent to the United States formed 6.13 per cent of the exports. In the case of Java, merchandise from the United States formed 1.66 per cent of the imports and that sent to the United States formed 8.25 per cent of the exports. In the case of Turkey, imports from the United States formed but one-fourth of 1 per cent of the total, and merchandise sent to the United States formed 2.76 per cent of the exports.

Correct Glasses Correctly Fitted

Notice the difference in the way the rays of light pass through the OLD style lens and the new TORIC glass.

When looking through the TORIC lens you get the same vision clear out to the edge of the glass, in all directions, that you do ONLY through the center of the old-style of lens, thus giving you more freedom of vision without the strain upon the Rectus muscles, which constantly occurs when wearing the old-style glasses.

With the old-style before the eye you see like this.

With the new TORIC lens you get the same results at all angles without turning your head that you do directly through the center of the old style.

Dr. Goble makes a specialty of the above lenses; also fits the BI-SIGHT bi-focal, ground from ONE piece of glass. Optical Parlor in Perry's Warehouse, Seventh Street, Medford.

MONEY AVAILABLE.

PORTLAND, June 22.—There is more money available for loans in the country now than there has been in many a day, declare local bankers and brokers. The reaction from the stringency of last winter has set in and money is plentiful. The rate of interest, too, which a few months ago was scarce at 8 per cent, has dropped, or at least there is a large amount available at a lower rate. One agent for a wealthy insurance company in the east says he has an almost unlimited amount of coin to loan. Four days ago he loaned $75,000 at 5 per cent. Of course, he wants only inside, revenue-producing property and will not touch outside propositions. However, he says he is willing to make almost any number of loans and does not want more than 5 per cent. When the panic came, money was at 7 and 8 per cent and the drop to 5 per cent, even in this isolated case, is considered remarkable.

So much money is now on hand that there is little difficulty in raising loans on suitable propositions. The propositions are scarcer than the money. A well-known Portlander looked for a week for a chance to place his $25,000 in some big interest-paying enterprise, and finally carried it down to one of the banks, where he will receive 4 per cent. Large sums of money have been in the hands of the postal money order department of the government since the panic. An instance of this is where a mortgage for $2200 was released during the past week. The mortgagee canceled the debt by laying down 22 money orders each for $100. This $2200 had been in the local postoffice for the past eight months, absolutely safe and secure, but not drawing a cent of interest. How much money is tied up in the postal money order department is not known, except to the clerks of the department, and they are not telling.

In the east money is also plentiful. Eastern banks have written to banks in Portland offering to act as their correspondents without commission and offering to send capital here for investment if local bankers have insufficient sums to swing deals.
