CHICAGO, July 6.—"There will be no depression in business on account of the presidential campaign and election this year. Business is getting into boom condition again, and the outlook is bright."

Such was the optimistic view expressed today by J. Ogden Armour on his return from Europe.

"We are recovering more rapidly than Europe, from our business and financial difficulties," said Mr. Armour. "Our exports have begun to increase and everything indicates that there is a new boom on, beneficial to the business man and the workingman.

"Our national resources help the situation in this country materially and aid us in regaining our normal prosperous condition more rapidly than do the European countries.

"The condition of business in this country and all that goes on here with references to finances and trade, is receiving more attention and is deemed of greatr importance in Europe at this time than it has ever been heretofore. There is no truth in the reports that we are losing out in Europe."

Fleet Leaves for Orient.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—Fifteen battleships of the Atlantic fleet sailed today on a voyage that is to take them around the world and end at Hampton Roads, whence they started last December. The sixteenth member of the fleet, the Nebraska, was left behind because of an outbreak of scarlet fever among the crew. She will be held in quarantine three days and thoroughly fumigated, after which she joins her sister ships at Honolulu. Without ceremony or celebration of any sort, the fleet got away promptly at 2 o'clock upon a signal from the Connecticut, and steaming in single column slowly wended their way out of the bay. A few small craft followed in he wake of the fleet as far as the Golden Gate, and gave the big white ships a parting salute with their sirens, while on the hills were scattered groups of people silently watching their departure, a striking contrast to the enthusiasm upon its arrival on May 6. It was 3:10 p. m. when the Kentucky, last in the line, passed the lighthouse at the entrance to the Golden Gate, and an hour later the fleet was lost to view.

A splendid picture of America's fighting strength on the sea was presented today when the fifteen battleships of the Atlantic fleet, led by the magnificent Connecticut with Rear Admiral Charles S. Perry on the bridge headed out of the Golden Gate and bathed their bows in the blue Pacific. In imposing array they passed beyond the headlands, out of the view of the thousands of cheering watchers on shore and started fairly on the long voyage through five seas from San Francisco to Hampton Roads—a striking demonstration of the power and efficiency of the United States navy.

Fifteen battleships were in the line, divided into four divisions and two squadrons. In the first division of the first squadron were the flagship of Rear Admiral Sperry, the Connecticut and her sister ships, the Kansas, Minnesota and Vermont. This division, as well as the entire fleet, is under the immediate command of Rear Admiral Sperry. The second division of the first squadron is commanded by Acting Rear Admiral Richard Wainwright, and consists of the flagship Georgia and her sister ships, the Nebraska, New Jersey and Rhode Island. Rear Admiral William H. Emory commands the second squadron and third division, and is aboard of the flagship Louisiana. The Virginia, Ohio and Missouri are also in the division under the command of Acting Rear Admiral Seaton Schroder, is made up of the flagship Wisconsin and the Illinois, Kearsarge and Kentucky. The Nebraska and Wisconsin, formerly of the Pacific fleet, have taken the places of the Maine and Alabama of the Atlantic fleet, which are en route to Hampton Roads as a special service squadron.

The fleet auxilaries preceded the battleships by a week, and are now nearing Honolulu, where they will unload supplies and sail away for New Zealand before the arrival of the fleet at Honolulu. These auxiliaries are the Panther, repair ship; Glacier, refrigerator supply ship; Relief, hospital ship, and Yankton, Cudgea, supply ship; Ajax, collier; tender and dispatch boat.

FOURTH'S TOLL APPALLING.

Numbers Over One Thousand Victims Each Year.

CHICAGO, July 3.—Seven thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine deaths in the United States in seven years, due principally to "insane" Fourth of July celebrations, is the shocking total obtained today through a tabulation compiled by the Chicago Bureau of Staistics.

It came as a timely and clinching argument on the eve of the great move for a "sane" Fourth, which was launched under the auspices of Chicago's leading clubs. Already the work of destruction and mutilation incidental to the advance celebrations has begun in Chicago and elsewhere.

A special tabulation classified according to the ages of the victims shows that they were found at all stages of life, from the infant in the cradle to the patriarch of 90. It also reveals an abnormal increase among the child victoms of accidentally discharging firearms. There were nearly three times as many deaths in 1906 among those from 5 to 9 years old as there were in 1900.

TO DEFEAT BRYAN.

Secret Meeting Held in Order to Focus Opposition.

DENVER, July 6.—Another effort was made against Bryan today, and the opposition claim they now are encouraged for the first time since the delegations began to arrive. The mevement is not, however, taken with deep seriousness by the men who are leading the Bryan forces. Tre greatest effort is made to keep the meeting secret, as well as the conferes. The place where the meeting occurred was i nthe Equitable building, and as far as is known those present were Daniel F. Cohan and Wm. F. Sheehan of New York; Colonel Guffey, former Senator Smith of New Jersey, A. F. Cox of Georgia, C. L. Straus of Maryland, Josiah Marvel of Maryland and Frederick B. Lynch of Minnesota. There was a concensus of opinion among those present that if New York will declare against Bryan there is still a chance of defeating him. It has been understood from the first that New York would not vote for Bryan if it believed that a decisive result could be obtained by casting it for another candidate who meets the favor of the Empire state. Some of those present at the secret meeting pointed out that there are sill two days to work up an opposition, and there was a chance of bringing New York to their aid, as it has not yet declared its position.
